Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel Morris

Skinny Eighth Avenue:

The Girls of Slender Means Muriel Spark, 2012-08-01 Long ago in 1945 all the nice people in England were poor allowing for exceptions begins The Girls of Slender Means Dame Muriel Spark's tragic and rapier-witted portrait of a London ladies hostel just emerging from the shadow of World War II Like the May of Teck Club itself three times window shattered since 1940 but never directly hit its lady inhabitants do their best to act as if the world were back to normal practicing elocution and jostling over suitors and a single Schiaparelli gown The novel's harrowing ending reveals that the girls' giddy literary and amorous peregrinations are hiding some tragically painful war wounds Chosen by Anthony Burgess as one of the Best Modern Novels in the Sunday Times of London The Girls of Slender Means is a taut and eerily perfect novel by an author The New York Times has called one of this century's finest creators of comic metaphysical entertainment Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century Original Gangster Frank Lucas, Aliya S. King, 2010-06-08 The true story of the rise and fall of a Harlem heroin kingpin In his own words Frank Lucas recounts his life as the former heroin dealer and organized crime boss who ran Harlem during the late 1960s and early 1970s From being taken under the wing of old-time gangster Bumpy Johnson through one of the most successful drug smuggling operations to being sentenced to seventy years in prison Original Gangster is a chilling look at the rise and fall of a modern legacy To gain the success he craved Lucas broke the Italian mafia's monopoly in New York by cutting out middlemen and smuggling heroin directly from the Golden Triangle using coffins Selling Blue Magic the purest heroin on the street Lucas became one of the most powerful crime lords of his time while rubbing shoulders with the elite in entertainment politics and crime After his arrest Federal Judge Sterling Johnson called Lucas and his operation one of the most outrageous international dope smuggling gangs ever This powerful memoir reveals the true story behind the 2007 film American Gangster exposing a startling look at the world of organized crime The Bloomsbury Anthology of Contemporary Jewish American Poetry Deborah Ager, M. E. Silverman, 2013-09-26 With works by over 100 poets The Bloomsbury Anthology of Contemporary Jewish American Poetry celebrates contemporary writers born after World War II who write about Jewish themes This anthology brings together poets whose writings offer fascinating insight into Jewish cultural and religious topics and Jewish identity Featuring established poets as well as representatives of the next generation of Jewish voices it includes poems by Ellen Bass Charles Bernstein Carol V. Davis Edward Hirsch Jane Hirshfield David Lehman Jacqueline Osherow Ira Sadoff Philip Schultz Alan Shapiro Jane Shore Judith Skillman Melissa Stein Matthew Zapruder and many others Finding Fogerty Thomas M. Kitts, 2012-12-20 Finding Fogerty: Interdisciplinary Readings of John Fogerty and Creedence Clearwater Revival edited by Thomas M. Kitts begins to correct the scholarly neglect of John Fogerty one of America's great songwriters one of the rock era's great vocalists and one of its underrated guitarists and producers This essential collection pulls together scholars from a wide range of disciplines and approaches to assess Fogerty's fifty year career and to argue for his musical and cultural significance. The composer of American classics like Proud Mary, Fortunate Son, Green River, Who'll Stop the Rain, and Centerfield, Fogerty first achieved commercial success with the release of Creedence Clearwater Revival in 1968. As the band's songwriter, lead singer, lead guitarist, and producer, Fogerty led CCR in a blistering output of 10 top ten singles and seven gold albums before disbanding CCR in 1972. Divided into four sections: Born on the Bayou, Run Through the Jungle, Centerfield, and Keep on Chooglin', Finding Fogerty investigates Fogerty's songs, life, and legacy and stands as a tribute to one of America's most treasured musical legends. Radical Poetics and Secular Jewish Culture Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel

Morris, 2010. This collection of essays is the first to address this often obscured dimension of modern and contemporary poetry: the secular Jewish dimension. Editors Daniel Morris and Stephen Paul Miller asked their contributors to address what constitutes radical poetry written by Jews, defined as secular, and whether or not there is a Jewish component or dimension to radical and modernist poetic practice in general. These poets and critics address these questions by exploring the legacy of those poets who preceded and influenced them: Stein, Zukofsky, Reznikoff, Oppen, and Ginsberg, among others. Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying 'I' Micah Mattix, 2011-03-03. While recent works of criticism on Frank O'Hara have focused on the technical similarities between his poetry and painting or between his use of language and poststructuralism, Frank O'Hara and the Poetics of Saying 'I' argues that what is most significant in O'Hara's work is not such much his borrowing from painters or his proto-Derridean use of language, but his preoccupation with self-exploration and the temporal effects of his work as artifacts. Following Pasternak's understanding of artistic inspiration as an act of love for the material world, O'Hara explores moments of experience in an effort to both complicate and enrich our experience of the material world. On the one hand, in poems such as Second Avenue, for example, O'Hara works to muddy language through which experience is in part mediated with the use of parataxis, allusions, and absurd metaphors and similes. On the other, in his I do this I do that poems, he names the events of his lunch hour in an effort, among other things, to experience time as a moment of fullness rather than as a moment of loss. The book argues furthermore that O'Hara's view of the self as both an expression of the creative force at work in the world and as the temporal aggregate of finite experiences places him between so-called Romantic and postmodern theories of the lyric. While it is often argued that O'Hara is a forerunner of a new critically informed materialist poetics, this study concludes that O'Hara's work is somewhat less radical in its understanding of poetic meaning than is often claimed. Moreover, while O'Hara is preoccupied with his experience in his poems, the book argues that he espouses in some respects a rather traditional view of love. In addition to being a metaphor for the creative act, love for O'Hara is the chance coming together of two entities. Yet one of the ironies of this is that while love is for O'Hara a feeling that is the result of movement or the unexpected coming together of two otherwise separate entities.
