Biting at the Grave Padraig

O'Malley,1991-10-31 In an eloquent and haunting book O Malley makes the fanaticism of the hunger strikers and their supporters the obdurate and morally discredited tactics of the British Government and the hopeless combat of the Protestant and Roman Catholic factions in the Northern Ireland struggle explicable and exposes the politics behind it The New York Times Book Review Insurgent Terrorism Gerald Cromer,2017-11-30 Terrorists engage in propaganda and rhetoric even though they prefer the power of deed over word They use a wide variety of mechanisms of moral disengagement to convince themselves of the rightness of their actions a necessary prerequisite for taking up arms The articles collected together in this excellent volume focus on the rhetoric and propaganda used by insurgent terrorists to justify their resort to violence The volume includes a thoughtful introduction which summarizes the main findings of the literature drawing attention to the many different kinds of terrorist propaganda and the underlying similarity between them The Violence Within Kay Warren,2018-02-05 This book explores a range of contemporary conflicts in which culture has become an explicit issue ethnic nationalism religious fundamentalism the militarization of civilian life opposition movements in authoritarian states political resistance to redistributive reforms and racism in racial democracies The authors show that one cannot understand current conflicts or crises without studying long term patterns of social political and cultural change At issue throughout the book is how anthropologists and comparative political scientists conceptualize the interplay of culture and politics The result is a volume that offers readers a sophisticated introduction to new currents in cultural analysis demonstrates realms of convergence and continuing debate between the two disciplines and offers focused analyses of contemporary conflicts from the perspective of those caught up in them The case studies for this volume focus on communities and movements in Guatemala Brazil Israel Iran Egypt South Africa the Philippines and Northern Ireland Jailtacht Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost,2012-05-15 Using research methods and techniques the author closely analyses the emergence of the Irish language amongst republican prisoners and ex prisoners in Northern Ireland from the 1970 s up until the present This pioneering study shows how the language was used exclusively in parts of the prison despite the efforts of the prison authorities to suppress the language and the dramatic impact this had on Irish society Drawing on interviews with the prisoners and various other materials Mac Giolla Chríost shows how these developments gave rise to the popular coinage of the term Jailtacht a deformation of Gaeltacht the official Irish speaking district of the Republic of Ireland to describe this unique linguistic phenomenon Plural Identities - Singular Narratives Máiréad Nic Craith,2002-02-01 Northern Ireland is frequently characterized in terms of a two traditions paradigm representing the conflict as being between two discrete cultures Proceeding from an analysis of the historical and religious context this study demonstrates the reductionist nature of the two traditions model highlighting instead the complexity of ethnic identities and cultural traditions It thus shows why attempts at reconciliation like the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 which seeks to promote the concept of a parity of esteem based on this identity model are fraught with difficulties Reflecting on the applicability of the concept of multiculturalism in the context of Northern Ireland the author proposes a re conceptualisation of Northern Irish culture along lines that steer clear of binary oppositions From the Contents Webs of Significance Dis membering the Past Divided by Common Cosmologies A Discourse in Difference The Process if Cruthinitude Un Unclaimed Tradition Ethnic Nationality The Fuzzy Frontier The Common Ground Living at the Edges of Capitalism Andrej Grubacic, Denis O'Hearn, 2016-04-19 Since the earliest development of states groups of people escaped or were exiled As capitalism developed people tried to escape capitalist constraints connected with state control This powerful book gives voice to three communities living at the edges of capitalism Cossacks on the Don River in Russia Zapatistas in Chiapas Mexico and prisoners in long term isolation since the 1970s Inspired by their experiences visiting Cossacks living with the Zapatistas and developing connections and relationships with prisoners and ex prisoners Andrej Grubacic and Denis O Hearn present a uniquely sweeping historical and systematic study of exilic communities engaged in mutual aid Following the tradition of Peter Kropotkin Pierre Clastres James Scott Fernand Braudel and Imanuel Wallerstein this study examines the full historical and contemporary possibilities for establishing self governing communities at the edges of the capitalist world system considering the historical forces that often militate against those who try to practice mutual aid in the face of state power and capitalist incursion Northern / Irish Feminist Judgments Máiréad Enright, Julie McCandless, Aoife O'Donoghue, 2017-02-09 The Northern Irish Feminist Judgments Project inaugurates a fresh dialogue on gender legal judgment judicial power and national identity in Ireland and Northern Ireland Through a process of judicial re imagining the project takes account of the peculiarly Northern Irish concerns in shaping gender through judicial practice This collection following on from feminist judgments projects in Canada England and Australia takes the feminist judging methodology in challenging new directions This book collects 26 rewritten judgments covering a range of substantive areas As well as opinions from appellate courts the book includes fi rst instance decisions and a fi ctional review of a Tribunal of Inquiry Each feminist judgment is accompanied by a commentary putting the case in its social context and explaining the original decision The book also includes introductory chapters examining the project methodology constructions of national identity theoretical and conceptual issues pertaining to feminist judging and the legal context of both jurisdictions The book shines a light on past and future possibilities and limitations for judgment on the island of Ireland This book provides a rich and expansive addition to the feminist judgments catalogue The judgments demonstrate powerfully how Northern Irish judges have contributed to the gendered politics of national identity and how the narrow subject positions they have created for women and others could have been so much wider and more open Professor Rosemary Hunter School of Law Queen Mary University London The Northern Irish Feminist Judgments Project is inspirational reading for anyone interested in feminism or Irish studies It is a model of how to conduct feminist enquiry Its most innovative contribution to scholarship and politics is how the rewriting of landmark legal judgments from a feminist perspective allows us to imagine and therefore begin to construct a more egalitarian a more just future Associate Professor Katherine O Donnell School of Philosophy University College Dublin If you let it this book will make you think It made me think it reminded me I suppose that legal writing can be wonderful rigorous creative deeply observant provocative Read it and see what it makes you think Professor Th r se Murphy School of Law Queen s University Belfast Sacred and Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland since 1914 John Wolffe,2019-11-28 During and immediately after the First World War there was a merging of Christian and nationalist traditions of martyrdom expressed in the design of war cemeteries and war memorials and the state funeral of the Unknown Warrior in 1920 John Wolffe explores the subsequent development of these traditions of sacred and secular martyrdom analysing the ways in which they operated sometimes in parallel sometimes merged together and sometimes in conflict with each other Particular topics explored include the Protestant commemoration of Marian and missionary martyrs and the Roman Catholic campaign for the canonization of the saints and martyrs of England Secular martyrdom is discussed in relation to military conflicts especially the Second World War and the Falklands In Ireland there was a particularly persistent merging of sacred and secular martyrdom in the wake of the Easter Rising of 1916 although by the time of the Northern Ireland Troubles in the later twentieth century these traditions diverged In covering these themes the book also offers historical and comparative context for understanding present day acts of martyrdom in the form of suicide attacks
