A World to Win Jack Conroy, 2000 Written in the full heat of the Great Depression Jack Conroy's A World to Win bears the marks of the labor struggles and union strikes he witnessed in the early 1930s Like Dickens Conroy evokes compassion and warmth for his absurd comic tragic characters through caricature using parody to extract humor from their gray circumscribed lives Set in St Louis the narrative centers on Leo and Robert Hurley two half brothers who are divided by education and aspirations Leo is an unlikely proletarian hero who finally gains political consciousness in spite of himself Robert has literary pretensions but little talent and a head clogged with scraps of genteel romance and Victorian poetry As Leo and Robert grope toward reconciliation they come into contact with hybrids of artistic milieu radical politics and labor activism that were particular to the Popular Front era The introduction by Douglas Wixson shows how Conroy's writing is embedded in his experiences and also how his flawless ear for language shapes both form and character in the novel Moving readers from a sentimentalized concern for the poor to a more concrete contemplation of the social and political conditions that characterize their lives A World to Win serves as a reminder of the continuing importance of a dedication like Conroy's to giving voice to the voiceless
