Berry, Claudia Chávez Argüelles, Sarah Ihmoud, R. Elizabeth Velásquez Estrada, 2026-01-06 A personal provocative and boundary breaking volume on the power relations that racialized gendered and sexualized researchers grapple with while conducting activist research Fugitive Anthropology is a transnational intergenerational engagement that extends feminist theory activist research methodologies and the discipline of anthropology in new directions Contributors examine the tensions that arise from conducting politically engaged collaborative research alongside communities in struggle in particular theorizing from the experiences of racialized women queer trans and gender nonconforming researchers across distinct geographies Essays contend with the matrices of colonial imperial and patriarchal violence that afflict the researchers and communities with which they seek political alignment Articulating an ethnographic practice grounded in Black and Indigenous political struggles and committed to collective liberation the volume reflects on what it means to navigate violent relations of power systemic inequities and current onslaughts shaping field research and US academia Ultimately Fugitive Anthropology argues that a feminist ethos one that embraces embodied knowledges and fugitive sensibilities forges liberatory spaces that break from dominant masculinist frames of the political and challenge colonial regimes within and beyond the neoliberal university
