Southeast Asia in a New Era Rodolfo C Severino, Elspeth Thomson, Mark Hong, 2010 This book is about Southeast Asia in a new era This new era began with a new century and a new millennium posing great challenges to the region and to each country in it It has a chapter on each of the ten countries in the region covering both the politics and the economic aspects It has one on the region as a whole and one on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations It has a thoughtful afterword that is a summary of its contents but is more than the sum of the individual chapters Many books and chapters of books have been written on Southeast Asia usually by external observers Aside from being up to date this book is different from most of them in several ways Most of the chapters are written by Southeast Asians indeed most of the country chapters are written by natives of those countries This means that the perspectives are based on local insights which provide nuance and sensitivity The book is addressed primarily to the young people of Southeast Asia so that they can get to know their neighbours better Each chapter has a guide to further reading and a series of questions to provoke further research and deeper inquiry publisher

Sailing Wondertime: A Family Voyage

from Seattle to New Zealand Sara Dawn Johnson, 2018-05-31 People have told us how lucky we are to get to sail far away My typical response is to say luck has little to do with it that we've worked so very hard made many difficult decisions and given up so much for so many years to get to this place on the Earth But on nights like this under a sky full of stars and our spinnaker full of warm trade wind pulling us deeper into the South Pacific Ocean I see how very lucky we truly are to be here together In 2011 the Johnson family of four left their comfortable home in the Pacific Northwest trading it in for a life of unpredictability adventure and joy aboard their 38 foot sailboat Wondertime With their two young daughters Sara and Michael sailed north to Canada south to Mexico then west across the Pacific eventually landing in New Zealand All along the way Sara kept an online journal of their travels and trials her stories followed by hundreds of friends and family members Now the best of her stories essays and voyage logs are collected in this freshly edited volume for all to enjoy Much more than a typical travel log this is the story of a family's journey into uncertainty and coming out on the other side knowing that the only thing that's truly certain is the importance of treasuring time with the ones you love The New Southern Style Alyssa Rosenheck, 2020-09-22 A vibrantly illustrated exploration of the creative inclusive and inspiring movement happening in today's Southern interior design The American South is a place steeped in history and tradition We think of sweet tea thick drawls and even thicker summer air It is also a place with a fraught history complicated social norms and dated perspectives Yet among the makers and artists of the South there is a powerful movement afoot Alyssa Rosenheck shines a much needed spotlight on a burgeoning community of people who are taking what's beloved inherent and honored in the South and making it their own The New Southern Style tours more than 30 homes and includes interviews with the designers artists and creative entrepreneurs who are reinventing Southern design and culture This beautifully illustrated book is sure to inspire the home and soul Critical Storytelling from behind Invisible Bars, 2020-08-17 Critical stories are narratives that recount the writer's experiences situating those experiences in broader cultural contexts In this volume of Critical Storytelling marginalized excluded and oppressed peoples share insights from their liminality to help readers learn from their perspectives on living from behind invisible bars Female inmates at Decatur's Correctional Center and the undergraduate Millikin University students who worked with them come together to give voice to their specific histories of living from behind invisible bars and pose important questions to the reader about inciting change for the future Specifically the voices in this volume seek to expose analyze and challenge deeply entrenched narratives and characterizations of incarcerated women whose histories are often marked by sexual abuse domestic violence poverty PTSD a lack of education housing insecurity mental illness and substance addiction These silenced female inmate voices need to be heard and contextualized within the larger metanarrative of prison literature Through telling critical stories these writers attempt to sustain recovery from trauma make positive changes and informed decisions create a real sense of empowerment strengthen their capacity to exercise personal agency and inspire audiences to create change far outside the reaches of physical and metaphorical bars
