Written on the Body Jane Caplan, 2021-10-12 Despite the social sciences growing fascination with tattooing and the immense popularity of tattoos themselves the practice has not left much of a historical record And until very recently there was no good context for writing a serious history of tattooing in the West This collection exposes for the first time the richness of the tattoo's European and American history from antiquity to the present day In the process it rescues tattoos from their stereotypical and sensationalized association with criminality The tattoo has long hovered in a space between the cosmetic and the punitive Throughout its history the status of the tattoo has been complicated by its dual association with slavery and penal practices on the one hand and exotic or forbidden sexuality on the other The tattoo appears often as an involuntary stigma sometimes as a self imposed marker of identity and occasionally as a beautiful corporal decoration This volume analyzes the tattoo's fluctuating often uncomfortable position from multiple angles Individual chapters explore fascinating segments of its history from the metaphorical meanings of tattooing in Celtic society to the class related commodification of the body in Victorian Britain from tattooed entertainers in Germany to tattooing and piercing as self expression in the contemporary United States But they also accumulate to form an expansive textured view of permanent bodily modification in the West By combining empirical history powerful cultural analysis and a highly readable style this volume both draws on and propels the ongoing effort to write a meaningful cultural history of the body The contributors representing several disciplines have all conducted extensive original research into the Western tattoo Together they have produced an unrivalled account of its history They are in addition to the editor Clare Anderson Susan Benson James Bradley Ian Duffield Juliet Fleming Alan Govenar Harriet Guest Mark Gustafson C P Jones Charles MacQuarrie Hamish Maxwell Stewart Stephan Oettermann Jennipher A Rosecrans and Abby Schrader Pagan Fleshworks Maureen Mercury,2000-09-01 A groundbreaking work that sees the contemporary cultural trends of tattooing piercing implanting and branding as a quest for a transformative psychic experience Features unforgettable color photographs by Steve Haworth the foremost body modification artist in the United States Introduces a subculture that has gone far beyond the realm of simple tattooing Acts of body modification are deeply rooted in physical impulses that are obscured in our technological society As we become more removed from the physicality of our existence we lose touch with an essential part of our humanity Body modification is a way of reconnecting to our bodies to the earth and to the divine Pagan Fleshworks reveals that the prevalence of body modification tattooing piercings brandings and implants is the postmodern way to heal the body and enliven the soul These fleshworks are the result of people creating their own rituals and symbols of meaning in order to feel a sense of the divine within Maureen Mercury relates the various stages of obtaining fleshworks to the stages of alchemy showing how fleshworks lead to psychic transformation soul making Using mythological imagery and the stories of those who have chosen to modify their bodies she identifies the signposts of our journey toward self expression exploring the connection between our desires and our outward life More than 30 riveting color photographs by leading body modification artist Steve Haworth provide the perfect visual complement to this examination of the soul as it rises toward freedom Icons of Irishness from the Middle Ages to the Modern World M.
