become a pyrotechnic insanitarium Mark Dery says borrowing a turn of the century name for Coney Island Dery elucidates the meaning to our madness deconstructing American culture from mainstream forces like Disney and Nike to fringe phenomena like the Unabomber and alien invaders Our millennial angst he argues is a product of a pervasive cultural anxiety a combination of the social and economic upheaval wrought by global capitalism and the paranoia fanned by media sensationalism The Pyrotechnic Insanitarium is a theme park ride through the extremes of American culture of which The Atlantic has written Mark Dery confirms once again what writers and thinkers as disparate as Nathanael West Fyodor Dostoyevsky Sigmund Freud and Oliver Sacks have already shown us the best place to explore the human condition is at its outer margins its pathological extremes Dery is the kind of critic who just might give conspiracy theory a good name Wired
