The Year's Best Science Fiction: Twenty-Eighth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 2011-07-05 Contains thirty three short stories chosen by the editor as the best in science fiction for 2010 including selections by Damien Broderick, Steven Popkes, Rachel Swirsky and others and features a summation of the year's events as well as a list of honorable mentions.

Body Piercing and Tattoos J. D. Lloyd, 2003 Tattoos have been steadily gaining popularity since World War II and in the 1990s even the practice of body piercing became a mainstream fad. The selections in this volume explore the history of tattoos and body piercing, the reasons people practice body modification and the controversial nature of these trends.

The Best Science Fiction of the Year Neil Clarke, 2018-04-03 As Earth dies, an architect is commissioned to remotely build a monument on Mars from the remains of a failed colony. A man who has transferred his consciousness into a humanoid robot discovers he's missing thirty percent of his memories and tries to discover why. Bored with life in the underground colony of an alien world, a few risk life inside one of the whales floating in the planet's atmosphere. An apprentice librarian searching through centuries of SETI messages from alien civilizations makes an ominous discovery. A ship in crisis pulls a veteran multibot out from storage with an unusual assignment: pest control. The dead are given a second shot at life in exchange for a five-year term in a zombie military program. For decades, science fiction has compelled us to imagine futures both inspiring and cautionary. Whether it's a warning message from a survey ship, a harrowing journey to a new world, or the adventures of well-meaning AI, science fiction inspires the imagination and delivers a lens through which we can view ourselves and the world around us. With The Best Science Fiction of the Year Volume Three, award-winning editor Neil Clarke provides a year in review and twenty-seven of the best stories published by both new and established authors in 2017.
