Tawfiq Alhakim A Readers Guide:

Tawfiq Al-Hakim William M. Hutchins, 2003 The book also includes plot summaries a chronology of Al Hakim s life and a comprehensive annotated bibliography of his oeuvre BOOK JACKET Transforming Loss into Beauty Marlé Hammond, Dana Sajdi, 2008-05-01 The contributors to this wide ranging work of scholarship and analysis include mentors colleagues friends and students of the late Magda al Nowaihi an outstanding scholar of Middle East studies whose diverse interests and energy inspired numerous colleagues The book s first part is devoted to Arabic elegy the subject of an unfinished work by al Nowaihi from which this volume takes its title Included here is a previously unpublished lecture on elegy delivered by al Nowaihi herself Other contributors examine this poetic form in both classical and modern contexts from a number of angles including the partial feminization of the genre making this volume perhaps the most comprehensive resource on the Arabic elegy available in English The book s second half features essays relating to al Nowaihi s other research interests especially the modern Arabic novel and its transgressive and marginalized status as literature It deals with authors as varied as Tawfiq al Hakim Latifa al Zayyat Bensalem Himmich and Sonallah Ibrahim Broad in its scope and rigorous in its scholarship this volume makes a fitting tribute to an inspiring scholar Contributors Roger Allen Dina Amin Michael Beard Jonathan P Decter Alexander E Elinson Marl Hammond Andr s H mori Mervat Hatem Wolfhart Heinrichs Richard Jacquemond Lital Levy Mara Naaman Magda al Nowaihi Dana Sajdi and Christopher Stone Contesting Antiquity in Egypt Donald Malcolm Reid, 2019-09-03 The history of the struggles for control over Egypt s antiquities and their repercussions during a period of intense national ferment The sensational discovery in 1922 of Tutankhamun s tomb close on the heels of Britain s declaration of Egyptian independence accelerated the growth in Egypt of both Egyptology as a formal discipline and of pharaonism popular interest in ancient Egypt as an inspiration in the struggle for full independence Emphasizing the three decades from 1922 until Nasser s revolution in 1952 this compelling follow up to Whose Pharaohs looks at the ways in which Egypt developed its own archaeologies Islamic Coptic and Greco Roman as well as the more dominant ancient Egyptian Each of these four archaeologies had given birth to and grown up around a major antiquities museum in Egypt Later Cairo Alexandria and Ain Shams universities joined in shaping these fields Contesting Antiquity in Egypt brings all four disciplines as well as the closely related history of tourism together in a single engaging framework Throughout this semi colonial era the British fought a prolonged rearguard action to retain control of the country while the French continued to dominate the Antiquities Service as they had since 1858 Traditional accounts highlight the role of European and American archaeologists in discovering and interpreting Egypt s long past Donald Reid redresses the balance by also paying close attention to the lives and careers of often neglected Egyptian specialists He draws attention not only to the contests between westerners and Egyptians over the control of antiquities but also to passionate debates among Egyptians themselves over pharaonism in relation to Islam and Arabism during a critical period of nascent nationalism

Drawing on rich archival and published sources extensive interviews and material objects ranging from statues and murals to photographs and postage stamps this comprehensive study by one of the leading scholars in the field will make fascinating reading for scholars and students of Middle East history archaeology politics and museum and heritage studies as well as for the interested lay reader

The Revolt of the Young, 2015-01-08 Tawfiq al Hakim 1898 1987 is recognized as one of the most important figures in the history of modern Arabic literature Considered a pioneer in many literary forms including drama novels and short stories al Hakim influenced generations of Egyptian writers The Revolt of the Young is a collection of essays originally published in 1984 that shows al Hakim as a public intellectual addressing the ongoing conflict between generations Al Hakim muses on the cultural artistic and intellectual links and breakages between the old and the young generations He focuses on the young and their role in the continuing development of Egyptian society which over the course of the last century or so has undergone foreign occupation an experiment in parliamentary democracy within a monarchical system a socialist revolution characterized by both successes and failures the emergence of a dictatorial presidency and now the development of a complex political scenario currently dominated by groups with varyingly strong ties to the tenets of Islam Al Hakim did not live long enough to witness the most recent phases of this elongated and often disruptive process of experimentation and change but in his writing he focuses on the institution that he regards as crucial to any forward progress the family The essays present readers with a voice from the past with uncanny foretelling of issues raised by the events that occurred in Egypt more than twenty years after al Hakim's death Radwan's translation along with Roger Allen's foreword brings to light al Hakim's lucid and erudite commentary much of it as relevant to the problems facing Egyptian youth today as it was when first published

Modern Arabic Literature Paul Starkey, 2014-03-11 An introduction to Modern Arabic Literature from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the present

The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

Return of the Spirit Tawfiq al-Hakim, 2019-07-09 The celebrated revolutionary novel from a pioneering Egyptian writer Tawfiq al Hakim now for the first time in Penguin Classics with a foreword by Egyptian writer Alaa Al Aswany First published in Arabic in 1933 Egyptian playwright and novelist Tawfiq Al Hakim s Return of the Spirit follows a patriotic young Egyptian and his extended family as they grapple with the events leading up to the 1919 Egyptian revolution Though often cited as an apprenticeship novel in the vein of Joyce s A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man with a touch of failed romance a la Goethe s Sorrow of Young Werther Al Hakim s classic is most recognized for being a trailblazing political novel that illustrates the way one man s spiritual awakening ties to a political awakening of a nation While enthusiasm for the book was stifled in the mid 20th century due to a shift in Egyptian government rule the 2011 Tahrir revolution in Egypt caused it to be examined anew as a strong expression of nationalist solidarity and an expos of the heritage stripping power of Western colonialism that resonates with 21st century Egyptians Return of the Spirit is considered Al Hakim s most important novel despite writing more plays than novels and his adept understanding of class and culture within Egyptian society has cemented his place as one of the country s most celebrated writers and cultural critics

Rewriting Narratives in Egyptian Theatre Sirkku Aaltonen, Areeg Ibrahim, 2016-03-31 This study of Egyptian theatre and its narrative construction explores the ways representations of Egypt are created of and within theatrical means from the 19th century to the present day Essays address the narratives that structure theatrical textual and performative representations and the ways the rewriting process has varied in different contexts and at different times Drawing on concepts from Theatre and Performance Studies Translation Studies Cultural Studies Postcolonial Studies and Diaspora Studies scholars and practitioners from Egypt and the West enter into dialogue with one another expanding understanding of the different fields The articles focus on the ways theatre texts and performances change are rewritten when crossing borders between different worlds The concept of rewriting is seen to include translation transformation and reconstruction and the different borders may be cultural and national between languages and dramaturgies or borders that are present in people s everyday lives Essays consider how rewritings and performances cross borders from one culture nation country and language to another They also study the process of rewriting the resulting representations of foreign plays on stage and representations of the Egyptian revolution on stage and in Tahrir Square This assessment of the relationship between theatre practices exchanges and rewritings in Egyptian theatre brings vital coverage to an undervisited area and will be of interest to developments in theatre translation and beyond
