Taxpayer Rights And Revenue Powers:

Guide to Taxpayers Rights and Revenue Powers Robert Maas, Peter Howarth, 2004-12-01 Written by leading practitioners in the field Taxpayer Rights and Revenue Powers looks at the statutory provisions on which the Revenue's approach to investigations to tax collection and to penalties is based This book provides a detailed explanation of the Act and related case law and Revenue practices It focuses on the boundaries of the powers of the Inland Revenue and the statutory rights that the taxpayer has when confronted by the Inland Revenue Taxpayer Bill of Rights United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on Oversight of the Internal Revenue Service, 1981 Taxpayers in International Law Julianne Kokott, Pasquale Pistone, 2022-03-24 This ground breaking book brings clarity to the dynamically developing field of international tax law It empowers individuals and corporate taxpayers to navigate their way around and helps tax authorities take taxpayers rights into account from the beginning The book is the result of several years of research conducted with the support of the International Law Association Taxpayers in International Law puts taxpayers rights on the global international tax agenda as the necessary counterweight and complement to Base Erosion and Profit Shifting BEPS Importantly it pleads for a global minimum standard of legal protection of the fundamental rights of taxpayers and extracts the content of such rights from relevant constitutional principles of many countries around the world The book is structured in 3 parts Part I focusses on the legal sources and on the relations between taxation and international human rights law Part II identifies general principles and specific taxpayers rights groups them into 3 categories procedural related to sanctions and substantive and analyses the different implications that arise in each of them Part III features concrete proposals for establishing a global framework for the protection of taxpayers rights including guidelines for tax authorities The book is a unique instrument for the daily work of practitioners and international tax scholars interested in securing the protection of taxpayer's fundamental rights as well as for those involved in tax collection worldwide Taxpayers can refer to the book to find out which rulings and concepts can help them enforce their rights tax authorities and judges can use the book to verify which rights have to be respected Tax Law, State-Building and the Constitution Dominic de Cogan, 2020-08-06 This monograph looks at how tax is intertwined with constitutional law and the state in the UK It looks at a variety of topics including tax devolution scrutiny and reform of tax legislation the protection of taxpayers and the domestic legal processing of international rules and problems Tax Law State Building and the Constitution presents and interrogates five key claims First there is a clear overlap between the concerns of tax and constitutional lawyers Secondly the tax system is being deeply affected by the fast pace of constitutional change Thirdly decisions taken in the tax field are likely to have a reverse influence on the evolution of the constitution Fourthly these relationships are heavily context dependent with tax making all the difference to some ongoing constitutional controversies whilst having very little to do with others Fifthly by acknowledging tax as an important moving part within the contemporary constitution we might understand both tax and constitutional law a little better The book therefore contributes to deeper theoretical debates on the identity of tax law as a discipline the relevance of tax to public lawyers the meaning of state building in the recent history of a developed country and the importance of public finances to a wider sense of what is going on These are questions that ought to command the attention of tax and constitutional law academics as well as policy makers and reformers Runner up of the 2022 SLS Peter Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship Internal Revenue Bulletin United States.
