Tea With Mr Rochester:

Tea with Mr. Rochester Frances Towers, 1949 When these captivating and at times bizarre stories were published posthumously in 1949 Angus Wilson wrote It appears no exaggeration to say that Frances Towers death in 1948 may have robbed us of a figure of more than purely contemporary significance At first glance one might be disposed to dismiss Miss Towers as an imitation Jane Austen but it would be a mistaken judgment for her cool detachment and ironic eye are directed more often than not against the sensible breeze that blasts and withers the forthright candour that kills the soul Miss Towers flashes and shines now this way now that like a darting sunfish At her best her prose style is a shimmering marvel wrote the Independent on Sunday and few writers can so deftly and economically delineate not only the outside but the inside of a character There s always more going on than you can possibly fathom Tea with Mr. Rochester and Other Stories Frances Towers, 2024-03-05 When Frances Towers first and only book was published posthumously in 1949 it was an immediate hit quickly going through several printings and earning rave reviews from critics who praised her masterful abilities as a short story writer while at the same time lamenting that she would never write any more Several of these stories are in a macabre or supernatural vein such as the opening tale Violet a favorite of Angela Carter's and Lucinda which in her new introduction to this edition Alice Ferrebe calls a surprising ghost story while other tales showcase Towers wit and humor and possess what one critic called the enduring fragility of fine porcelain Tea with Mr Rochester 1949 collects fourteen of Towers short tales originally published in British and American magazines in the 1930s and 40s This edition of this rediscovered gem is the book s first ever publication in the U S and is the first unabridged reprint in over seventy years Tea with Mr Rochester is an almost perfect short story Towers world sparkles with satire charming tenderness and real passion Times Literary Supplement I would gladly read any line she has written G W Stonier The Observer Tea with Mr Rochester, Etc Frances TOWERS, 1952 Brontë Society Publications Brontë Society, 1906 Who Decides?
