Teleparody Angela Hague, David Lavery, 2002 In a cautionary attempt to dissuade those who might be tempted to write such material, Teleparody is a compilation of reviews of fictional but all too possible contributions to academic Television Studies.

Teaching Yourself Social Theory David Harris, 2002-12-13 Social theory is a very difficult subject to teach and it is one that students generally find hard to get to grips with. Teaching Yourself Social Theory offers a highly original and comprehensive resource that will be welcomed by students and teachers alike. Barry Smart, University of Portsmouth. I have no hesitation in recommending Harris' text to students and teachers of social theory. Sociology. This refreshing and accessible text demonstrates how social theory can be made into an intelligible discourse that touches upon key aspects of everyday life. The abstraction and formalism of much contemporary social theory is criticized as unnecessarily scholastic for the beginner. The author maintains that the main problems in studying the subject are not intrinsic to social theory but derive from how the subject is taught as a university discipline. This lively book uses non-specialist terms to introduce more complex themes and incorporates a Website with questions and reading guides to some of the classic works.

Haunting Inquiry Robert Nellis, 2009-01-01 The NFB's mandate is to make and distribute films designed to help Canadians in all parts of Canada to understand the ways of living and the problems of Canadians in other parts. NFB Founding Commissioner John Grierson. It is only by our lack of ghosts we're haunted. Canadian poet Earle Birney. Haunting Inquiry Classic NFB Documentary. Jacques Derrida and the Curricular. Otherwise reintroduces significant if sometimes forgotten National Film Board of Canada documentaries into contemporary curriculum conversation. Author Robert Christopher Nellis employs an inflection of Derridean deconstruction to mobilize historical, political and intellectual themes emerging from the films as elliptical curricular opportunities. The work explores hauntings in and around the documentaries to open toward Others neither fully present nor absent within the Canadian imagination. They remain troublingly illicit as is the character of haunting. This book's contribution to the literature of curriculum is a unique and innovative conceptual framework, reintroduction of many classic NFB documentaries and the use of a productive language and outlook to mobilize fresh perspectives and hopeful possibilities.

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale. Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism, the social, the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Learning and Teaching Across Cultures in Higher Education D.
