Following in the Buddha's Footsteps Dalai Lama, Thubten Chodron, 2019-10-15 The newest volume in the bestselling series from the Dalai Lama Delve into the substance of spiritual practice in this fourth volume of the Dalai Lama's definitive series on the path to awakening Following in the Buddha's Footsteps You'll first hear His Holiness's explanation of the Buddha Dharma and Sangha why they are reliable guides on the path and how to relate to them His Holiness then describes the three essential trainings common to all Buddhist traditions the higher trainings in ethical conduct concentration and wisdom These chapters show us how to live a life free of harm to self or others and give us detailed instructions on how to develop single pointed concentration as well as the higher states of concentration available to an earnest practitioner In addition the chapters on wisdom contain in depth teachings on the noble eightfold path and the four establishments of mindfulness for developing greater awareness and understanding of our body feelings mind and other phenomena Together these topics form the core of Buddhist practice This is a book to treasure and refer to repeatedly as you begin the path progress on it and near the final goal of nirvana

Modern Mandarin Chinese Claudia Ross, Baozhang He, Pei-Chia Chen, Meng Yeh, 2018-10-10 Modern Mandarin Chinese is a two year undergraduate course for students with no prior background in Chinese study Designed to build a strong foundation in both the spoken and written language it develops all the basic skills such as pronunciation character writing word use and structures while placing a strong emphasis on the development of communicative skills Each level of the course consists of a textbook and workbook in simplified Chinese A free companion website provides all the audio for the course with a broad range of interactive exercises and additional resources for students self study along with a comprehensive instructor's guide with teaching tips assessment and homework material and a full answer key Key changes to this new edition An increased number of vocabulary and characters introduced 255 characters are introduced in this second edition for active production Dialogues and example sentences are also presented in full character format for passive recognition and to provide additional challenge for more advanced students Additional exercises in the workbooks and online to support the expanded number of words and characters incorporated into the textbooks New cross references between the textbooks workbooks and companion website facilitate using all the resources in an integrated manner Greatly enhanced and re designed website Retaining its focus on communicative skills and the long term retention of characters the text is now presented in simplified characters and pinyin from the outset with a gradual and phased removal of pinyin as specific characters are introduced and learnt This unique approach allows students to benefit from the support of pinyin in the initial stages as they begin speaking while ensuring they are guided and supported towards reading only in characters

Language Alternation, Language Choice and Language Encounter in International Tertiary Education Hartmut Haberland, Dorte Lønsmann, Bent Preisler, 2013-06-26 Reflecting the increased use of English as lingua franca in today's university education this volume maps the interplay and competition between English and other tongues in a learning community that in practice is not only bilingual but multilingual The volume includes case studies from Japan Australia South Africa Germany Catalonia China Denmark and Sweden analysing a range of issues such as the conflict between the students native languages and English the reality of parallel teaching in English as well as in the local language and classrooms that are nominally English speaking but multilingual in practice The book assesses the factors common to successful bilingual learners and provides university administrators policy makers and teachers around the world with a much needed commentary on the challenges they face in increasingly multilingual surroundings characterized by a heterogeneous student population Patterns of language alternation and choice have become increasingly important to the development of an understanding of the internationalisation of higher education that is occurring world wide This volume draws on the extensive and varied literature related to the sociolinguistics of globalisation linguistic ethnography discourse analysis language teaching language and identity and language planning as the theoretical bases for the description of the nature of these emerging multilingual communities that are increasingly found in international education It uses observational data from eleven studies that take into account the macro societal meso university and micro participant levels of language interaction to explicate the range of language encounters highlighting both successful and problematic interactions and their related language ideologies Although English is the common lingua franca the studies in the volume highlight the importance of the multilingual resources available to participants in higher educational institutions that are used to negotiate and solve their language problems The volume brings to our attention a range of important insights into language issues found in the internationalisation of higher education and provides a resource for those wishing to understand or do research on how language hybridity and multilingual communicative practices are evolving there Richard B Baldauf Jr Professor The University of Queensland I Brag... Some More. Girls, Goddesses, and a Chinese Lady Annie Chau, 2012-01-01 Author Annie Chau writes about her life in her continuing Brag series I Brag Some More Girls Goddesses and a Chinese Lady is the third book in this series The earlier books are I Brag and I Brag Again Dating Through Heartbreak In taking a detour off my main path of bragging through man adventures and my quest for love I wanted to reflect on the women who have significantly affected my life These important women have taken part in whether they know it or not shaping who I am I am grateful for the life lessons taught by them from when I was just a little girl to my present day adult life It has been incredibly fulfilling to find the humor in these stories while writing about them and doing so has helped me heal Annie pays homage to her pseudo grandmother who loved her family as if she birthed us herself She talks about the mothers and moms she s had in her life and the differences between them She writes of the teachers who helped build her intellect and nurtured her drive and the amazing women she chose to be her sisters Teach Me... Japanese W/CD Judy Mahoney,2005-03 Ages 2 to 12 years Book CD Includes a 45 minute CD and 20 page colouring book that includes all lyrics and translations Global Spaces of Chinese Culture Sylvia Van Ziegert,2013-09-13 This book is an exploration of how Chinese communities in the United States and Germany create and disseminate a sense of diasporic Chinese identity It not only compares the local conditions of the Chinese communities in the two locations but also moves to a global dimension to track the Chinese transnational imaginary Van Ziegert analyzes three strategies that overseas Chinese use to articulate their identities as diasporic subjects being more American German being more Chinese hybridizing and commodifying Chinese culture through trans cultural performances These three strategies are not mutually exclusive and they often intersect and supplement each other in unexpected ways The author also analyzes how the everyday lives of overseas Chinese connect with global and local factors and how these experiences contribute to the formation of a global Chinese identity Kind Words ,1901 The Chinese Students' Monthly ,1927 Several Worlds: Reminiscences And Reflections Of A Chinese-american Physician Monto Ho,2005-10-25 This fascinating book comprises the autobiographical reminiscences and reflections of Monto Ho M D a Chinese born American physician and widely recognized infectious disease specialist It presents a remarkable opportunity to understand his personal history the development of his scholarly qualities and the logic of his scientific and cultural passions A leader in the field over the past half a century the author was a pioneer investigator of interferon He made major contributions to the pathogenesis of virus infections in the immunocompromised host especially of cytomegalovirus and other herpesvirus infections in organ transplant recipients He built a strong science based infectious diseases group at the University of Pittsburgh in the US In his second career in Taiwan Monto Ho changed the direction of his research to address problems that were important to that country He recognized the threat posed by the emergence of antibiotic resistant bacteria and the need to enhance the quality of training of infectious diseases physicians These efforts paid unexpected dividends The appropriate use of antibiotics has become an important national health priority and there is now intense research on the devastating outbreaks of enterovirus 71 in children Teach me-- French Judy Mahoney,1996 Uses music from popular children s songs and narration to teach the French language
