Becoming Bilingual in School and Home in Tibetan Areas of China: Stories of Struggle YiXi LaMuCuo, 2019-07-09 This book contributes significantly to our understanding of bilingualism and bilingual education as a sociocultural and political process by offering analyses of the stories of five Tibetan individual journeys of becoming bilingual in the Tibetan areas of China at four different points in time from 1950 to the present The data presented comprises the narrative of their bilingual encounters including their experiences of using language in their families in village and in school Opportunities to develop bilingualism were intimately linked with historical and political events in the wider layers of experiences which reveal the complexity of bilingualism Moreover their experiences of developing bilingualism are the stories of struggle to become bilingual They struggle because they want to keep two languages in their lives It illustrates their relationship with society They are Tibetans L1 is not the official language of their country but it is the tie with their ethnicity It addresses bilingualism linked with the formation of identity The unique feature of this book is that it offers a deep understanding of bilingualism and bilingual education by examining the stories of five individuals learning experiences over a period of almost 60 years

The Institution Quarterly, 1921 China Martin Wolff, 2011-12-08 China's annual 5 million university graduates are the elite of Chinese society They are the future leaders be they community economic industrial political religious or social they are the privileged class who have been educated for future leadership roles Common Chinese people look up to them and follow them because they are the anointed. A look into their psyche now may be a window into the future of China. What they think and feel as students will undoubtedly carry over into and shape their adult attitudes and thoughts. Post graduate students at a 1st tier comprehensive university in Guangzhou Guangdong Province and a 2nd tier science and technology university in Hangzhou Zhejiang Province were given various topics of current importance and afforded an opportunity to express their thoughts on the issues presented. Participation was voluntary. Herein we present the issues and a random selection of the students responses.
