Urban Education Karen Symms Gallagher, Rodney Goodyear, Dominic Brewer, Robert Rueda, 2013-03-19 Many factors complicate the education of urban students Among them have been issues related to population density racial ethnic cultural and linguistic diversity poverty racism individual and institutional and funding levels Although urban educators have been addressing these issues for decades placing them under the umbrella of urban education and treating them as a specific area of practice and inquiry is relatively recent Despite the wide adoption of the term a consensus about its meaning exists at only the broadest of levels In short urban education remains an ill defined concept This comprehensive volume addresses this definitional challenge and provides a 3 part conceptual model in which the achievement of equity for all regardless of race gender or ethnicity is an ideal that is central to urban education The model also posits that effective urban education requires attention to the three central issues that confronts all education systems a accountability of individuals and the institutions in which they work b leadership which occurs in multiple ways and at multiple levels and c learning which is the raison d tre of education Just as a three legged stool would fall if any one leg were weak or missing each of these areas is essential to effective urban education and affects the others

Transforming City Schools Through Art Karen Hutzell, Flavia MC Bastos, Kimberly J. Cosier, 2012 This anthology places art at the center of meaningful urban education reform Providing a fresh perspective contributors describe a positive asset based community development model designed to tap into the teaching learning potential already available in urban settings Rather than focusing on a lack of resources this innovative approach shows teachers how to use the cultural resources at hand to engage students in the processes of critical imaginative investigation Featuring personal narratives that reflect the authors vast experience and passion for teaching art this resource Offers a new vision for urban schools that reflects current directions of urban renewal and transformation Highlights successful models of visual art education for the K 12 classroom Describes meaningful socially concerned teaching practices Includes unit plans a glossary of terms and online resources Contributors include Olivia Gude James Haywood Rolling Jr and Leda Guimar es This terrific much needed resource promises to become a classic in the field Christine Marm Thompson Penn State University
