Quest for Inclusion Marc Dollinger,2021-05-11 For over sixty years Jews have ranked as the most liberal white ethnic group in American politics figuring prominently in social reform campaigns ranging from the New Deal to the civil rights movement Today many continue to defy stereotypes that link voting patterns to wealth What explains this political behavior Historians have attributed it mainly to religious beliefs but Marc Dollinger discovered that this explanation fails to account for the entire American Jewish political experience In this the first synthetic treatment of Jewish liberalism and U S public policy from the 1930s to the mid 1970s Dollinger identifies the drive for a more tolerant pluralistic and egalitarian nation with Jewish desires for inclusion in the larger non Jewish society The politics of acculturation the process by which Jews championed unpopular social causes to ease their adaptation to American life established them as the guardians of liberal America But according to Dollinger it also erected barriers to Jewish liberal success Faced with a conflict between liberal politics and their own acculturation Jews almost always chose the latter Few Jewish leaders for example condemned the wartime internment of Japanese Americans and most southern Jews refused to join their northern co religionists in public civil rights protests When liberals advocated race based affirmative action programs and busing to desegregate public schools most Jews dissented In chronicling the successes limits and failures of Jewish liberalism Dollinger offers a nuanced yet wide ranging political history one intended for liberal activists conservatives curious about the creation of neo conservatism and anyone interested in Jewish communal life Making Faces Aline Fruhauf,1987 Quest ,1976 The American Harp Journal ,2003 Personnel Literature United States.
