Teachers Preachers Nonbelievers:

Teachers, Preachers, Non-believers Flora Veit-Wild, 1992 OF GREAT VALUE FOR ANYONE WISHING TO UNDERSTAND CURRENT ZIMBABWEAN REALITY AFRICA TODAY An overview of Zimbabwe's principal literary figures this study examines the ways in which the prevailing social setting each writer's personal background determined the characteristics of their literature Equal attention is devoted to the earlier school of black writers as well as those who gained prominence after independence such as Chenjerai Hove 1990 Noma Award winner Shimmer Choyda 1990 Commonwealth Writers Prize winner the female author Tsitsi Dangarembga NEW PERSPECTIVES ON AFRICAN LITERATURE 6 Zimbabwean Transitions Mbongeni Z. Malaba, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2007 This collection of essays on Zimbabwean literature brings together studies of both Rhodesian and Zimbabwean literature spanning different languages and genres It charts the at times painful process of the evolution of Rhodesian Zimbabwean identities that was shaped by pre colonial colonial and post colonial realities The hybrid nature of the society emerges as different writers endeavour to make sense of their world Two essays focus on the literature of the white settler The first distils the essence of white settlers' alienation from the Africa they purport to civilize revealing the delusional fixations of the racist mindset that permeates the discourse of the white man's burden in imperial narratives The second takes up the theme of alienation found in settler discourse showing how the collapse of the white supremacists' dream when southern African countries gained independence left many settlers caught up in a profound identity crisis Four essays are devoted to Ndebele writing They focus on the praise poetry composed for kings Mzilikazi and Lobengula the preponderance of historical themes in Ndebele literature the dilemma that lies at the heart of the modern Ndebele identity and the fossilized views on gender roles found in the works of leading Ndebele novelists both female and male The essays on English language writing chart the predominantly negative view of women found in the fiction of Stanley Nyamfukudza assess the destabilization of masculine identities in post colonial Zimbabwe evaluate the complex vision of life and reality in Charles Mungoshi's short stories as exemplified in the tragic isolation of many of his protagonists and explore Dambudzo Marechera's obsession with isolated threatened individuals in his hitherto generally neglected dramas The development of Shona writing is surveyed in two articles the first traces its development from its origins as a colonial educational tool to the more critical works of the post 1980 independence phase the second turns the spotlight on written drama from 1968 when plays seemed divorced from the everyday realities of people's lives to more recent work which engages with corruption and the perversion of the moral order The volume also includes an illuminating interview with Irene Staunton the former publisher of Baobab Books and now of Weaver Press The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac, 2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author

resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare Crabtracks ,2021-12-28 The essays in this collection celebrate the signal achievement of Dieter Riemenschneider in helping found and consolidate the study of postcolonial anglophone literatures in Germany and Europe As well as poems a short story drawings of the Indian scene the first and abiding focus of this scholar s work and letters of reminiscence one quite grave there are revealing contributions of a literary historical nature on the establishment of anglophone especially African literatures as an academic discipline within Germany the UK and Northern Europe generally as well as a group of searching reflections on such topics of postcolonial import as globalization and the applicability of models to the literature of the indigene in Canada and Australia The largest section is devoted to individual topics each treatment implicitly keyed to approaches to the teaching of New Literatures texts Writers covered include Anita Desai landscape and memory Salman Rushdie painting in The Moor s Last Sigh Charlotte Bront imperial discourse in Jane Eyre Derek Walcott Omeros and cultural cohabitation and Witi Ihimaera his rewriting of Katherine Mansfield Topics dealt with include music and radio in West Africa the African literary hit parade the New Zealand prose poem Canadian and Australian war fiction the Middle Passage in the American and Caribbean novel Paul Theroux s uneasy relations with V S Naipaul and the colonial discourse of illness and recuperation The volume closes with Dieter Riemenschneider s very first and most recent critical essays the one a classic on Mulk Raj Anand the other a challenging and doubtless controversial thesis on postcolonial minority writing A select bibliography of Riemenschneider's work books edited publications journal articles and book contributions reviews and broadcasts rounds off this substantial collection The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04 This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War Eschewing the common focus on national cultures the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders Drawing on specialists from across the world the volume analyses the period's fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writings in three sections dominant concerns socialism decolonisation nuclearism propaganda censorship espionage common genres postmodernism socialism realism dystopianism migrant poetry science fiction testimonial writing and regional cultures Asia Africa Oceania Europe and the Americas In doing so the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945-1989 period including specialists in comparative literature postcolonial literature contemporary literature and regional literature Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature The Big Idea Companion for Preaching and Teaching Matthew D. Kim, Scott M. Gibson, 2021-04-20 Preaching 2022 Book of the Year Haddon Robinson's widely used and influential text Biblical Preaching has influenced generations of students and preachers In The Big Idea Companion for Preaching and Teaching trusted leading evangelical homiletics teachers of preaching and experienced pastors demonstrate that Robinson's big idea approach to expository preaching still works in today's diverse cultures and fast-paced world This accessible resource offers an insider's view on figuring out the big idea of each book of the Bible helping preachers and teachers check their interpretation of particular biblical books and passages The contributors offer tips on how to divide each book of the Bible into preaching and teaching passages guidance on difficult passages and verses cultural perspectives for faithful application and suggested resources for interpreting preaching and teaching Pastors teachers Bible study leaders small groups and college and seminary students and professors will find a wealth of valuable information in this resource Preparing Evangelistic Sermons Ramesh Richard, 2005-10 Ministry leader and evangelist provides readers with a proven do it yourself method for effective evangelistic sermons Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture

Robert Muponde, Ranka Primorac, 2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice Biblical Foundations for Baptist Churches John S. Hammett, 2019-02-26 An updated examination of ecclesiology from a Baptist perspective In this useful book professor and former pastor John Hammett helps church leaders think through foundational questions about the nature of the church Blending biblical teaching and practical ministry experience Hammett presents a comprehensive ecclesiology from a historic Baptist perspective examining crucial contemporary issues such as church discipline the role of elders and church ministry in a post Christian culture This second edition contains updates throughout including Substantive changes to chapters on the nature of the church Baptist church polity and deacons An expanded chapter on baptism and the Lord s Supper A thoroughly revised chapter on church models like multisite churches and missional churches A brand new chapter on meaningful church membership They Called You Dambudzo Flora Veit-Wild, 2022 Compelling memoir of Flora Veit Wild and her relationship with the Zimbabwean novelist poet playwright and essayist Dambudzo Marechera one of Africa s most innovative and subversive writers and a significant voice in contemporary world literature How shall I tell our story I hear your voice ringing in mine I struggle to disentangle a dense tapestry of memories One thread will be caught up in another Early images will embrace later ones My gaze will often be filtered through your eyes your poems In the end I will not always be able to tell the original from the reflection Just as you wrote Time s fingers on the piano play emotion into motion the dancers in the looking glass never recognise us as their originals This book is a memoir with a double heartbeat At its centre is the author s relationship with the late Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera whose award winning book The House of Hunger marked him as a powerful disruptive perhaps prophetic voice in African literature Flora Veit Wild is internationally recognised for her significant contribution to preserving Marechera s legacy What is less known about Marechera and Veit Wild is that they had an intense personal and sexual relationship This memoir explores this the couple s first encounter in 1983 amidst the euphoria of the newly independent Zimbabwe the tumultuous months when the homeless writer moved in with his lover and her family the bouts of creativity once he had his own flat followed by feelings of abandonment the increasing despair about a love affair that could not stand up against reality and the illness of the writer and his death of HIV related pneumonia in August 1987 What follows are the struggles Flora went through once Dambudzo had died On the one hand she became the custodian of his life and work on the other she had to live with her own HIV infection and the ensuing threats to her health Jacana Southern Africa Annual Report of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church Methodist Episcopal Church. Missionary Society, 1908 The Tale of Two Churches Amos Dertes, 2024-05-31

This book is designed as an instructional manual for anyone who ever said I do not understand what is happening in the churches Why are pastors untrustworthy Why are the members of churches acting worse than those who do not know God And why is the church mundane and cold The author is taking a bold stand to address the elephant in the room He reveals that there are two different churches on earth currently the church of Jesus Christ and the counterfeit Each church has chosen a platform to stand on On the platform of holiness stands the church of Jesus the true church This church is managed by the Holy Spirit just like the church of Pentecost There are very few of them but they remain holy and preach the true gospel of Jesus Christ They show justice righteousness holiness and confirm the love and power of God and the resurrection of Jesus by performing miracles In contrast the counterfeit church stands on a materialistic platform This church pledges allegiance to a different master It is selfish lawless and unjust It rejects the power of God and has evicted the Holy Spirit Its mission is to discredit the true Jesus It has no ethics no brotherly love It prefers a feel good do good gospel instead of the genuine gospel of Jesus and his apostles It seeks power prestige and the love of the world In the book the author reveals that this rogue materialistic unjust and unrighteous Christian church is the instrument of Satan part of the false religion that will usher the days of the Antichrist As its members infiltrate the true church this book is a call reminding the true Christian to take a stand for justice and righteousness to be sanctified and to receive the anointing of the Holy Spirit Go purchase oil for your lamp now because the window of opportunity is closing Jesus is coming to take his own home soon and those who do not have oil in their lamp and are not holy will not be allowed in the wedding chamber to see the king
