Teaching About Europe:

Teaching about Europe Margaret Shennan,1991 Ranging across the whole curriculum and drawing on experiences in many European countries the author assesses the progress toward establishing a coherent European dimension in secondary education during the past 25 years through the initiatives of international organizations like the Council of Europe

Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Teaching History in the New Europe John Slater,1995

Drawing on Council of Europe material and his long experience of teaching and observing history in schools the author attempts a definition of Europe asks whether Europeans have anything in common and what is new about the New Europe In particular he asks why young Europeans should learn history at all If so what kind and how For what and whose purposes And who decides what pupils learn Teaching History in the New Europe was prompted by an influential symposium entitled History Teaching in the New Europe It will be invaluable to all those who are concerned with teaching history as well as having an interest in European history and culture Aspects of Modern Language Teaching in Europe Wolf

Gewehr,2002-03-11 From the teaching of grammar to the teaching of literature from classroom teaching to independent learning from role playing to CAL few books on teaching languages cover such a wide field In this book teaching experience and research from practitioners in four European countries throw new light on old problems faced every day while others reveal innovative teaching methods and new insights into how teachers and learners interact Sections include language learning strategies and computer assisted language learning facilitating individual progress through autonomous learning how to bring a foreign country alive in the classroom de mythologising grammar teaching how different types of dictionaries can make valuable contributions to language teaching teaching and using idiomatic phrases How Teachers in Europe Teach Religion Hans-Georg Ziebertz,Ulrich Riegel,2009 In 2007 around 3500 teachers in 16 European countries participated in a cross cultural study of existing teaching procedures in religion and theology This text shows the results which present different approaches strategies and ways of thinking when it comes to teaching religion in a multicultural context
