The Four Questions of Melancholy Tomaž Šalamun, 1997 A large and important collection by one of Eastern Europe's major contemporary poets

The Hidden Handshake Aleš Debeljak, 2004-09-27 The Hidden Handshake uses four distinct yet intertwined essays to address the questions surrounding our notions of citizenship national identity and cosmopolitan belonging The violent disintegration of Yugoslavia and the undercurrent of EU enlargement stand out as two contrasting movements that highlight the importance of having a national identification while also defying it to avoid both the rigidity of nationalist exclusivism and the blithe nonsense of global citizenship Through the exploration of sociohistorical material and artistic visions as well as the author's layered identity as a Slovene a Yugoslav a Central European and a European Aleš Debeljak tries to show that it is possible to remain faithful to geography history and community even as one fosters links to global cultural movements Not surprisingly the book itself shares some of this hybrid identity It uses not only theoretical concepts and empirical data but also historical sketches on art national life and society along with poetic autobiographical reminiscences and personal anecdotes Ultimately the book calls for an adoption of liberal nationalism which is commensurate with democratic order and for a more ecumenical understanding of artistic visions that does not discriminate on the grounds of one's place of origin

The Tree of the Doves Christopher Merrill, 2011-10-11 A unique travelogue that explores the nature of terror its place in the post 9/11 world and how it unites and galvanizes those in the throes of it Kirkus Reviews Using several ageless questions Where do we come from Where are we going What shall we do as his point of departure journalist and award winning poet Christopher Merrill explores the related issues of terror modernity tradition and epochal transformation In three extended essays Merrill observes the performance of a banned ritual in the Malaysian province of Kelantan traces Saint John Perse's epic voyage from Beijing to Ulan Bator in 1921 and relates it to the China of today and embarks on a trip across the Levant in 2007 in the wake of the American wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Merrill asserts that it is in this trinity of human actions ceremony expedition war all devised to keep terror at bay that history is formed and that the technological political environmental and social changes we are witnessing now presage the end of one order and the creation of another Merrill is a writer's writer he spins sentences made of gold Publishers Weekly

Only the Nails Remain Christopher Merrill, 2001-10-23 Only the Nails Remain Scenes from the Balkan Wars is a chronicle of poet and critic Christopher Merrill's ten war time journeys to the Balkans from the years 1992 through 1996 At once a travelogue a book of war reportage and a biography of the imagination under siege this beautifully written and personal narrative takes the reader along on the author's journeys to all the provinces and republics of the former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro Serbia Slovenia and Vojvodina as well as to Albania Austria Bulgaria Greece Hungary Italy and Turkey His journeys provide the narrative structure for an exploration of the roles and responsibility of intellectuals caught up in a decisive historical moment many of whom either helped to incite the war or else bore eloquent witness to its

carnage What separates this book the first non native literary work on the conflict from other collections of reportage political analysis and polemic is its concern for capturing the texture of particular places in the midst of dramatic change the sounds and sights and smells the stories and observations of victim and perpetrator alike the culture of war Here is a literary meditation on war a fascinating portrait of the poetry politics and the people of the Balkans that will provide insight into the past present and future of those war torn lands Hear an interview with the author on NPR s Weekend All Things Considered February 20th Balkan Poets Flash Fiction International James Thomas,Robert Shapard,Christopher Merrill,2025-04-25 A dazzling new anthology of the very best very short fiction from around the world What is a flash fiction called in other countries In Latin America it is a micro in Denmark kortprosa in Bulgaria mikro razkaz These short shorts usually no more than 750 words range from linear narratives to the more unusual stories based on mathematical forms a paragraph length novel a scientific report on volcanic fireflies that proliferate in nightclubs Flash has always and everywhere been a form of experiment of possibility A new entry in the lauded Flash and Sudden Fiction anthologies this collection includes 86 of the most beautiful provocative and moving narratives by authors from six continents including best selling writer Etgar Keret Zimbabwean writer Petina Gappah Korean screenwriter Kim Young ha Nobel Prize winner Czeslaw Milosz and Argentinian Queen of the Microstory Ana Mar a Shua among many others These brilliantly chosen stories challenge readers to widen their vision and celebrate both the local and the universal Afterwards Andrew Zawacki,1999 An instructive essay by poet and critic Ales Debeljak opens this introduction to the rich post World War II literary tradition of Slovenia a nation that emerged from the former Yugoslavia in 1991 following a brief conflict that prefigured the Balkan conflicts that persist to this day Part of one empire or another for centuries Slovenia was denied a cultural identity of its own Its writers however insisted on writing in their native tongue thus keeping Slovenian culture alive in the written word Contributors include Edvard Kocbek Tomaz Salamun Drago Jancar Berta Bojetu Boeta and others Self-Portrait with Dogwood Christopher Merrill,2017-01-16 In the course of researching dogwood trees beloved poet and essayist Christopher Merrill realized that a number of formative moments in his life had some connection to the tree named according to one writer because its fruit was not fit for a dog As he approached his sixtieth birthday Merrill began to compose a self portrait alongside this tree whose lifespan is comparable to a human s and that from an early age he s regarded as a talisman Dogwoods have never been far from Merrill s view at significant moments throughout his life helping to shape his understanding of place in the great chain of being entwined in his experience is the conviction that our relationship to the natural world is central to our walk in the sun The feeling of a connection to nature has become more acute as his life has taken him to distant corners of the earth often to war zones where he has witnessed not only humankind s propensity for violence and evil but also the enduring power of connections that can be forged across languages borders and politics Dogwoods teach us persistence humility and wonder Self Portrait with Dogwood is no ordinary memoir but rather the work of a traveler who has crisscrossed the country and the globe in search of ways to make sense of his time here Merrill provides new ways of thinking about personal history the environment politics faith and the power of the written word In his descriptions of places far and near many outside of the average American's purview a besieged city in Bosnia a hidden path in a Taiwanese park Tolstoy's country house in Russia a castle in Slovakia a blossoming dogwood at daybreak in Seattle the reader's understanding of the world will flourish as well
