The Garden Of Venus:

The Garden, 1873 Gardens in Art Lucia Impelluso, 2007 Impelluso analyzes the constituent elements of gardens both real and imagined and uncovers their often hidden symbolic meanings Paintings and the nearly 400 works presented here provide a continuous visual record of the myriad forms of gardens EcoGothic gardens in the long nineteenth century Sue Edney, 2020-11-24 EcoGothic gardens in the long nineteenth century provides fresh approaches to contemporary ecocritical and environmental debates providing new compelling insights into material relationships between vegetal and human beings Through twelve exciting essays the collection demonstrates how unseen but vital relationships among plants and their life systems can reflect and inform human behaviours and actions In these entertaining essays human and vegetal agency is interpreted through ecocritical and ecoGothic investigation of uncanny manifestations in gardens hauntings psychic encounters monstrous hybrids fairies and ghosts with plants greenhouses granges mansions lakes lawns flowerbeds and trees as agents and sites of uncanny developments The collection represents the forefront of ecoGothic critical debate and will be welcomed by specialists in environmental humanities at every level as a timely innovative inclusion in ecoGothic studies Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture s placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape Fountains, Statues, and Flowers Elisabeth B. MacDougall, 1994 Resource added for the Landscape Horticulture Technician program 100014 The Monster in the Garden Luke Morgan, 2016 In The Monster in the Garden Luke Morgan develops a new conceptual model of Renaissance landscape design arguing that the monster was a key figure in Renaissance culture and that the incorporation of the monstrous into gardens was not incidental but an essential feature Spenser's Allegory of Love James W. Broaddus, 1995 Spenser s Allegory of Love approaches the major characters in Books III IV and V of The Faerie Queene as fictional personages who function psychically according to Renaissance sexual psychology and physically according to Renaissance sexual physiology This approach enables readings of the quests in their own peculiar allegorical way as imitations of actions For each of the questers Britomart Florimell Scudamour and Timias union with a loved one is the goal and that goal is achieved however problematically in each of the quests When the interwoven quests which begin in Book III continue through Book IV and with Britomart s quest into Book V are separated out and explicated these three books of Spenser s Faerie Queene can be read so as to constitute a social vision The Hidden Gardens Jan Pollard, 2012-10-12

The Hidden Gardens of Park Close in North Acton London is a quiet area Six terrace homes stand across the street from a park erected after a bomb destroyed the opposite numbered houses during the last war If houses could talk they certainly would have something to say about the inhabitants of this interesting terrace Venus the sub editor of a television programme lives in Number 6 with her husband Benji a chef and their baby She decides it s high time society knows about Hidden Gardens and plans to feature her neighbourhood in a makeover segment that explores the beauty of the gardens and the goings on of its occupants Once the project gets started she finds out things she never knew about her neighbours There s Millie a beautiful 20 something single mum Mike a handsome and unhappily married accountant Damian and Guy a gay couple Malcolm the neighbourhood tough guy and maintenance operator his downtrodden wife Linda their pregnant 15 year old daughter and their shy son and Edna a bedraggled 80 year old All of these lives intersect as the programme comes to fruition and each resident learns just how amazing their little neighbourhood truly is This wonderfully entertaining story is generously peppered with humour mystery romance and unforgettable characters
