The Flying Tortoise An Igbo Tale:

The Flying Tortoise ,1993 Mbeku the greedy tortoise gets himself invited to the banquet in Skyland but is trapped with no way to get back to Earth in this Igbo tale of why the tortoise has a checkered shell The Flying Tortoise Jill Rebecca Speer,2000

Leading Kids to Books Through Puppets Caroline Feller Bauer,1997-05 If you ve got an envelope handy or a paper cup or a cereal box you re ready to lead kids to literature through puppetry Caroline Feller Bauer style The Bauer style celebrated throughout the world means maximum fun for kids with minimum training preparation and costs Bauer s charmingly chatty lessons set your stage up in a wink She then introduces literature selections to perform and here draws upon her experience in choosing readings that work More than thirty selections are presented along with scores of recommended books and a selection on puppetry resources

The Storymakers ,2000 Explore the lives of 83 of the most talented children s authors writing today Told in the authors own words these lively biographies describe the creative process and offer advice to today s young writers Learn how they crate wonderful books where they get their ideas what their desks look like and what their favourite books were when they were growing up Folktales Aloud Janice M. Del Negro,2014 A good folktale triggers the imagination connecting children to a wider world as well as increasing their vocabulary and comprehension skills In this delightful and easy to use book teacher and storyteller Del Negro gives librarians teachers and parents the keys to storytelling success Including more than a dozen original adaptations of folktales from around the world tailored specifically for library and classroom use she Reviews storytelling basics such as selecting a tale and learning the story Offers tips for dealing with stage fright and reluctant listeners Presents a bibliography of recommended online and print resources steering readers to more wonderful tales to tell For young listeners the folktale is a perfect gateway to the exciting worlds of culture and literature and Del Negro s book invites their engagement with proven techniques and original story scripts that can be used by experienced as well as beginning tellers

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke,2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora
