Joubert,Ansie E. Kitching,Michael L. Marumo,Zahraa McDonald,Nicholus T. Mollo,Louis J. Oosthuizen,Ferdinand J. Potgieter,Bianke van Rooyen,Marius H. Smit,Amos T. Thebenyane,Andre van der Bijl,Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt,2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities Good Teachers for Tomorrow's Schools ,2021-05-25 Teachers in schools nowadays are challenged to create inclusive learning environments and safe spaces for encountering diversity in values cultures and religions as well as in dis ability and talent Classrooms are micro cosmoses in which local and global issues are confronted and addressed This volume discusses the characteristics of good teachers and the teaching that is needed in today s and tomorrow s schools The focus is on research based perspectives with contributions from several internationally renowned scholars on what constitutes good and quality in teaching studying learning processes The chapters focus on good teaching and good teachers from perspectives concerning the fundamental and transversal features of what constitutes a good teacher More specifically it is argued that good teachers in tomorrow s schools will need capabilities that reflect the purpose of education values in education and talent in education As an outcome the book provides insights into how in attending not only to the cognitive but also to the affective behavioral moral and spiritual domains teachers are able to support holistic growth and learning among their students in schools of the 21st century This volume discusses good teaching for schools in the future from the perspectives of school pedagogy educational psychology and neuropsychology

Reframing the Early Childhood Curriculum Jane M. Page,2000 Argues that pre school children have a less apprehensive view of the future than adolescents and that an effective programme in the early years can counteract the difficulties youths experience Reframing the Early Childhood Curriculum Jane Page,2002-01-04 Pre school children have fundamentally different attitudes towards the future and attendant notions of time and space For this reason early childhood professionals are optimally placed to lay important foundations for young children's long term development Children's flexibility of thought their positive and constructive outlook on life their sense of the continuity of time their creativity and imagination and their sense of personal connection with time and the future are all qualities that should be recognized and addressed in early childhood educational programmes as a means of counteracting the difficulty youths experience in knowing what to expect in their future lives and coming to understand their roles in shaping them Reframing the Early Childhood Curriculum offers fresh insight into examining futurists and early childhood theorists thinking of the relevance of planning for children's long term needs in early childhood identifying the skills attitudes and outlooks required to assist young children attending early childhood programmes in their long term growth and development exploring the means through which these skills attitudes and outlooks can be achieved in curriculum frameworks through specific goals and learning experiences against the background of youth and young children's views of the future School Psychology Frederic J. Medway, Thomas P.

Cafferty, Frederic Medway, 2013-12-16 This impressive volume reintroduces the importance of and the contributions made by social psychology to school psychology It provides an overview of the basic areas of social psychology history attitudes attribution attraction and research methods as well as the traditional school psychology functions assessment therapy and consultation To unite these two crucial areas the editors and their contributors provide detailed discussions of specific educational and social issues such as substance abuse prevention and treatment loneliness cooperative versus competitive environments and integration of handicapped and culturally different children Based on classical contemporary and cutting edge research and theory this text should become an essential reference tool for all school psychologists New Thinking for a New Millennium Richard A. Slaughter, 2002-11 The study of futures is an area of increasing interest and one that is comprehensively examined in this new collection with contributions from key names in the field The Politics of Teacher

Education Reform National Commission on Teaching & America's Future (U.S.), 2000-04-18 Yearbook of the Politics of Education Association A competent caring and qualified teacher for every student in the United States This audacious goal is taken right from the opening pages of the report of the National Commission on Teaching and America's Future NCTAF What Matters Most Teaching for America's Future The NCTAF findings are so powerful and unique that The Politics of Teacher Association PTA uses them as the basis for this 2000 Yearbook Editors Gallagher and Bailey along with leading educators explore the controversies and ramifications of the Commission's major recommendations Get serious about standards for both students and teachers Reinvent teacher preparation and professional development Overhaul teacher recruitment and put qualified teachers in every classroom Encourage and reward teaching knowledge and skill Create schools that are organized for student and teacher success The contributors to this book speak to the underlying assumptions research bases and values found in the recommendations Long time and persistent issues about teaching teacher education programs and public policy making are examined under the new light of the latest research Real life successes of the recommendations in action are shown in two state level stories and an urban school partnership This PEA 2000 yearbook will prove a valuable resource for students researchers and all educators interested in teacher education reform in the 21st century Integrated Lifecycle Services for Persons with Disabilities David L. Lovett, Kathryn A. Haring, 2012-12-06 The field of education is under pressure both external and internal to improve the services provided to all students In American society and elsewhere there is a concern that current educational practices fail to adequately prepare many students to be productive citizens There has been a call for educational services that are more responsive to the needs of students that use effective educational practices that involve parents and the local community and that adequately prepare teachers to assume more professional roles Over the last several decades special educators have addressed these and other critical issues as they relate to students with disabilities The knowledge gained from these endeavors can be useful in the reshaping of schools for all students those with disabilities and those without Indeed this information may be useful for services beyond school whether for young children or adults This volume has been written to address how people with disabilities can be effectively served in settings with their nondisabled peers Because many of the students who are not well served by current educational practices have similar needs as students with disabilities it is anticipated that some of this information may be useful in the discussion regarding the reshaping of educational systems It is also anticipated that the material presented will help in the design of more effective coordinated systems that serve people with disabilities throughout their lives Tomorrow's Schools Ron Best, Caroline Lodge, Chris Watkins, 2002-11-01 Today's schools are subject to increasing demand and constraint their work is more complex and fast changing than ever before politicians and press demand quick fixes This book paints the picture of a new integrity for our schools as they face a challenging future Themes addressed include schools as places of learning and integrity the curriculum family child and intercultural perspectives community relations policy and governance The authors demonstrate how a connected approach is necessary if schools are to hold themselves together and play a key role in working with young people to construct a future Restructuring and Quality: Issues for Tomorrow's Schools Tony Townsend, 2002-11-01 The restructuring of schools systems across the world has been controversial Have reforms been driven by a desire to cut educational budgets or the need to improve the quality of educational provision This book explores the restructuring movement with a particular emphasis on how decentralisation of power has affected the quality of education It provides a broad and international picture of educational reform New Teacher Education for the Future Yin Cheong Cheng, King Wai Chow, Kwok Tung Tsui, 2001-06-30 Serves to provide readers with an international understanding of how researchers and practitioners in different countries address some essential issues and initiatives in teacher education and development what they have found from their known and applied research and what the implications are of which are crucial to coping with challenges from the ongoing developments in teacher education Perspectives on School Leadership in Asia Pacific Contexts Salleh Hairon, Jonathan Wee Pin Goh, 2019-08-06 This book casts a refreshingly new light on current literature on school leadership which has predominantly been viewed through Western lenses Accordingly key concepts and theories on leadership and school leadership have primarily been generated from thinking and research in the Western sphere This is problematic considering the fact that the leadership concept or construct and its practices are significantly influenced and shaped by contexts and even situations However there are various contextual conditions and forces that can separately or collectively affect how school leadership is understood and practiced including social cultural historical geographical economic and political conditions In response the book seeks to provide readers a better awareness of how the leadership construct or phenomenon is shaped by the varying contexts constantly affecting school leadership while specifically focusing on the Asia Pacific region In turn it highlights various Asia Pacific contexts that shape school leadership so as to speak back to existing theories on school leadership

Secondary School Curriculum Improvement J. Lloyd Trump, Delmas F. Miller, 1979 Resources in Education, 1998 Computer Environments for Children Cynthia Solomon, 1988-07 In this book Cynthia Solomon takes a welcome look at the possibilities and issues of learning with and about computers in schools or in any other learning environment Teaching Methods for Today's Schools John Scott Hewitt, Kathleen S.
