Tjens overall expedition commander committed several major errors during the operation Towards its end he wallowed in despair failing to carry through on several ruses devised by his subordinates which in the hands of a commander not already resigned to death might have tipped the scale to the Bismarck's survival Both sides made crucial errors but those of Gunther L. Tjens proved most decisive As Charles de Gaulle pithily observed Victory often goes to the army that makes the least mistakes not the most brilliant plans The sinking of the Bismarck demonstrated the truth of this aphorism A handful of poor choices at vital turning points on the part of one man L.
