Sir John Everett Millais A. L. Baldry, 2015-06-15 Excerpt from Sir John Everett Millais Although John Everett Millais was born on June 8 1829 at Portland Place Southampton his father was an inhabitant of Jersey and a member of a family which had been settled in that island from a date anterior to the Norman conquest The first five years of the child s life were spent in Jersey but in 1835 he was taken by his parents to Dinan in Brittany where he began by his sketches of the scenery of the place and the types of the people to give the first convincing proofs of the remarkable artistic capacity that was in him These early efforts were so surprising and attracted so much attention outside his family circle that when he was not more than nine years old he was brought to London for an expert opinion on his chances in the profession for which he seemed predestined About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged
