Sir Charles God Damn:

Sir Charles God Damn John Coldwell Adams, 1986-12-15 A new era in Canadian poetry began in 1880 with the publication of Charles G D Roberts Orion and Other Poems He was just twenty years old Roberts was soon acknowledged as leader of the so called Confederation Poets Bliss Carman Duncan Campbell Scott and Archibald Lampman During his long lifetime he wrote hundreds of poems as well as novels histories short stories translations and essays he also originated the realistic animal story popularized by Ernest Thompson Seton He awed literary critics with the versatility of his writing and shocked staid Canadians with the escapades of an unconventional private life Married at twenty in his native New Brunswick Roberts soon after began a series of romantic entanglements While his wife May raised the children in Fredericton he swanned around New York Havana and the capitals of Europe He experienced the Bohemian life of Washington Square around the turn of the century and lived in Montparnasse long before it became famous as an expatriate haven In 1907 he sailed off to Europe and stayed for eighteen years When he finally returned aboard the Berengaria in 1925 for a reading tour he was lionized from coast to coast For almost two decades he remained a prominent figure in Canadian literary and social circles He was national president of the Canadian Authors Association from 1927 to 1929 and in 1935 he was knighted At the age of eighty three just three weeks before his death in 1943 he married for a second time Perhaps over praised as a writer in his own lifetime Roberts reputation has since languished His main literary achievement Adams concludes was in being the first Canadian writer to come to terms with the Canadian landscape influencing his contemporaries to see their own surroundings with fresh and discerning eyes The story of his personal life recounted here fully and objectively for the first time adds a vivid portrait to the gallery of Canada's literary pioneers

Little Resilience Eli MacLaren, 2020-10-22 The Ryerson Poetry Chap Books were a landmark achievement in Canadian poetry Edited by Lorne Pierce the series lasted for thirty seven years 1925-62 and comprised two hundred titles by writers from Newfoundland to British Columbia over half of whom were women By examining this editorial feat Little Resilience offers a new history of Canadian poetry in the twentieth century Eli MacLaren analyzes the formation of the series in the wake of the First World War at a time when small presses had proliferated across the United States Pierce's emulation of them produced a series that contributed to the historic shift in the meaning of the term chapbook from an antique of folk culture to a brief collection of original poetry By retreating to the smallest of forms Pierce managed to work against the dominant industry pattern of the day agency publishing or the distribution of foreign editions Original case studies of canonical and forgotten writers push through the period's defining polarity modernism versus romanticism to create complex portraits of the author during the Depression the Second World War and the 1950s The stories of five Ryerson poets Nathaniel A Benson Anne Marriott M Eugenie Perry Dorothy Livesay and Al Purdy reveal poetry in Canada to have been a widespread vocation and a poor one as fragile as it was irrepressible The Ryerson Poetry Chap Books were an unprecedented initiative to publish Canadian poetry Little Resilience evaluates the opportunities that the series opened for Canadian poets and the sacrifices that it demanded of them Canadian Literature in English W. J. New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay,2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province s literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick

The Imaginary Indian Daniel Francis,2012-04-17 First published in 1992 The Imaginary Indian is a revealing history of the Indian image mythologized by popular Canadian culture since 1850 propagating stereotypes that exist to this day Images of First Nations people have always been fundamental to Canadian culture From the paintings and photographs of the 19th century to the Mounted Police sagas and the spectacle of Buffalo Bill s Wild West Show from the performances of Pauline Johnson Grey Owl and Buffalo

Long Lance to the media images of Oka and the Vancouver Winter Olympics the Imaginary Indian is ever with us oscillating throughout our history from friend to foe from Noble Savage to bloodthirsty warrior from debased alcoholic to wise elder from monosyllabic squaw to eloquent princess from enemy of progress to protector of the environment The Imaginary Indian has been and continues to be as Daniel Francis reveals in this book just about anything the non Native culture has wanted it to be and the contradictory stories non Natives tell about Imaginary Indians are really stories about themselves and the uncertainties that make up their cultural heritage This is not a book about Native people it is the story of the images projected upon Native people and the desperate uses to which they are put This new edition published almost twenty years after the book's first release includes a new preface and afterword by the author Daniel Francis is an award winning historian and the author of twenty books

Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth-Century Canada Alice Higgs, 2023-11-09 Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth Century Canada fulfils a vital contribution to the conversation surrounding animal representation as a point of continuity in national narratives and supports the idea that focusing on narratives of responsibility and care influences better relations with both non human animals and across settler Indigenous boundaries Alice Higgs engages with on going debates regarding reconciliation by demonstrating that it is imperative to critique settler colonial environmental frameworks and place autonomy back into Indigenous communities by bringing Indigenous practices of custodianship and relationality to bear more generally This book also develops a number of conversations in animal studies in relation to the politics of representation Higgs studies a range of canonical Canadian authors demonstrating a progress across the period in which it is possible to identify the emergence of a literary pro animal turn
