Situating Feminism Vol 2 From Thought To Action:

Situating Feminism Sondra Farganis, 1994-06-07 Feminist theory has undergone continuous evolution since its recognized establishment in 1963. Sondra Farganis's insightful volume revisits feminist philosophy's turbulent beginnings and explores the myriad political and social factors influencing its development during the past three decades. The author also considers the interaction between feminism and the greater women's movement, discussing not only the commonalities but the differences among women of various cultures and experiences. Finally, she recounts four of the most controversial women-centered court cases of recent years, identifying elements of feminist theory and how they affected or were affected by the social and political context in which they occurred. Inspiring new directions in critical thought and theoretical advancement, Situating Feminism will prove an essential resource for students and professionals in the areas of women's and culture studies, political science, social work, communication, and psychology. Sondra Farganis does not shy away from rigorous arguments or moral issues dealing directly with the relationship of postmodernism and feminism and the concerns that the former undermines the latter. She capably moves among writers like Berger and Luckman, Freire, Habermas, and Butler. Ultimately, the strength of this book is its ability to present a wide range of feminist political and social theories in a coherent fashion while demonstrating its application to actual real-life situations.

Affilia Sondra Farganis has written a concise study on the situation of feminist thought in relation to contemporary social controversies. She analyzes the Nussbaum domestic violence and victimization, Baby M motherhood and surrogacy, Sears employment and affirmative action, and Hill-Thomas race and sexual harassment cases in a broad theoretical context. Farganis outlines major themes and conflicts within feminist thought, illustrating how these played out in the resolution of the cases.

Choice Inclusion as Social Justice, 2020-07-13

Inclusion as Social Justice: Theory and Practice in African Higher Education discusses the extent to which education enables equitable social access for diverse student populations in the context of historical sidelining of indigenous knowledge systems and epistemic injustice of colonial epistemologies in Africa. The goal is to theoretically unpack the social differentials and micro inequities that practically disempower diverse students in African higher education. To this end, the book features aspects of diversity such as gender, rurality, refugee status, and disability in general, with hearing and visual impairment as prime illustrations. It is argued that despite the ethically defensible and socially just policy and structural interventions for transforming higher education meant to redress the legacy of colonial injustices, urban universities present epistemological equity challenges for students from rural communities. Similarly, the opaque fate of students displaced from their home countries and currently studying in universities in host countries is analyzed. The book illustrates the access case for gender and disability in higher education using empirical studies and examples from Tanzania, Kenya, Ethiopia, Zimbabwe, and South Africa. Challenges facing students in higher education in these countries and the strategies the students devise to succeed in the institutions are analyzed.

Postmodern Management and Organization Theory David Boje, 1996 This thought provoking critique of postmodern theory provides an overview of issues as they relate to management and organization theory and its history and assembles a variety of important works on postmodern philosophy including feminist and cultural postmodern philosophies Addressing the future of the postmodern influence on management and organization theory and method the book also establishes an agenda for future research

Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology Mary Gergen, 2000-10-03 Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology introduces a distinctive new mode of doing psychology This psychology is based on an increasingly popular range of ideas called social constructionism Within the book new forms of theory and methods of inquiry relating social constructionism to feminist topics are introduced Each chapter highlights different topics of special concern within gender studies especially the psychology of women The first chapter outlines the purposes of the book and positions social constructionism in relation to the more traditional feminist psychologies empiricist and feminist standpoint Given the trend toward social constructionism the author thinks the broad audience of people doing gender work will be interested in becoming familiar with this approach to the field The second and third chapters are focused on narrative methods as a means for studying gender differences in popular autobiographies The discussions center on differences in stories of achievement family love and embodiment Quotations from well known personalities such as Donald Trump and Martina Navratilova enrich the text The fourth fifth and sixth chapters involve issues of menopause with a focus group methodology a historical look at the male gaze as it is poised on the Naked Maja painting by Goya and how relationships function within imaginal conversations The two final chapters in the book are exemplars of a recent innovation in the field called performative psychology One monologue is about aging in contemporary society and the other is a feminist critique of aspects of postmodernism itself The book draws from the central tenets of postmodern inquiry as played out in the positive framework of social constructionism Emphasized are reflexivity the social basis of reality making the breakdown of traditional narrative forms the loss of objectivity as a scientific standard and the possibilities for new forms of doing research In this respect the book is unique and serves to provide a point of view on an intriguing movement that is gaining momentum across the social sciences and humanities It is hoped that this book might serve as a catalyst for further innovative work in psychology This text encourages such moves by its own irreverence for traditions and its overt efforts to break down

resistances to creativity in the field

New Feminist Stories of Child Sexual Abuse Paula Reavey, Sam Warner, 2003 Child sexual abuse is a multifaceted event interpreted in many different ways in many different contexts In New Feminist Stories of Child Sexual Abuse contributors try to untangle some of the complex ways in which stories of child sexual abuse are translated through and into personal professional and social politics The first section of the book explores the cultural and political landscape of child sexual abuse in Western and non Western contexts It examines the ways in which radical aspects of feminism can be undermined in Western cultures and how Westernised ideologies of childhood sex and gender have been used to structure discussions about child sexual abuse across the world The second section traces the effects of these wider cultural and political narratives through the various contexts in which child sexual abuse is theorised and around which interventions in the lives of women are structured It provides insights into how traditional approaches to understanding harm can be challenged and reworked in practice using alternative therapeutic models based on feminist post structuralist agendas Reworking earlier feminist analyses New Feminist Stories of Child Sexual Abuse asks pertinent questions about how child sexual abuse is produced rather than merely represented in the ways we speak about it

The Accidental Theorist Patricia J. Thompson, 2002 The Accidental Theorist first in a Hestia trilogy introduces the Hestian Hermeneutic Dual Systems Paradigm as a lens of analysis through which to view the private public and the familial political in feminist philosophy and theory Tracing the split between the oikos and the polis in fifth century BCE Greece Professor Thompson identifies two consistent orientations in human life toward the homeplace symbolized by Hestia and the marketplace symbolized by Hermes She proposes that a complementary hestianeutic be added to conventional hermeneutic interpretations of texts These dual orientations are as significant as gender for interpreting the phenomena of everyday life They form the basis of an alternative perspective she calls Hestian Feminism as a prolegomenon to a new humanism for the new millennium

An Invitation to Social Theory David Inglis, 2013-04-23 Social theory is a crucial resource for the social sciences It provides rich insights into how human beings think and act and how contemporary social life is constructed But often the key ideas of social theorists are expressed in highly technical and difficult language that can hide more than it reveals Cutting through the often off putting writing styles of social theorists this book demonstrates exactly what social theory is about clearly presenting the key themes of major social theory from the classical thinkers onwards Areas covered include Marxism structuralism post structuralism phenomenology symbolic interactionism feminism and structuration theories Wide ranging in scope and coverage the book is concise in presentation and free from jargon Showing why social theory matters and why it is of far reaching social and political importance the book is ideal for students across the social sciences seeking a clear crisp mapping of a complex but very rewarding area Understanding Subaltern History V. V. Thomas,2006 Situating the Self Seyla Benhabib,2020-08-26

This book is an attempt to defend the tradition of universalism in the face of a triple pronged critique by engaging with the claims of feminism communitarianism and postmodernism and by learning from them It situates reason and the moral self more decisively in contexts of gender and community Teaching Diversity Joan V. Gallos,V. Jean Ramsey,1997 Teaching Diversity brings together the voices and collective experience of 17 management educators currently engaged in diversity teaching and learning from a wide range of experience and preparation Each contributor renders a heart felt account of their feelings and experiences in training tomorrow s leaders to value diversity

Nimble Fingers, Clenched Fists Aileen May C. Paguntalan,2002 Sociology of Aging and Death Jason Powell,2022-11-25 This book presents a critical analysis and examination of the major theories and social issues in the social construction of aging and death It is concerned with the impact of death and places how our experiences of death are transformed by the roles that truth and discourse about aging play in everyday life A major element of the book is an examination of the way in which groups and individuals employ specific representations of mortality in order to construct meaning and purpose for life and death To accentuate this the book provides an investigation into the social construction of death practices across time and space Special attention is given to the notion of death as a socially accomplished phenomenon grounded in a unique sociological introduction to the meaning of death throughout history to the present The purpose of this book is to critically inform debates concerning the abstract and empirical features of death examined through the lens of sociological perspectives This book explores the emergent biomedical dominance relating to ageing and death An alternative is advocated which re interprets ageing for Graduate schools This innovative book explores the concept history and theory of aging and its relationship to death Traditionally many books have focused on older people dying of natural causes a biomedical explanatory framework This book looks at alternative social theories and experiences with aging and relate to death in different countries victims crime imprisonment and institutional care Are these deaths avoidable If so what are the solutions the book addresses This is one of the first books that re interprets aging and its relationship of examples of death It will be of essential reading for graduate students and researchers in understanding these different examples of aging and death across the globe The Literary Imagination of Ultra-Orthodox Jewish Women Alyse Fisher Roller,1999 The ultra Orthodox sector of Jewish culture possesses its own body of creative English writing a prose genre which is impelled and shaped by women Contemporary scholars and writers have brought ultra Orthodox Jewish women to our attention However critical writing about this community has consistently misrepresented or misanalyzed it This study attempts to correct the outsider's bias prevalent in academic research by letting the insiders' voices that is the writings of ultra Orthodox Jewish women speak for themselves Through the women's heretofore little known literature we can get an unmediated view of this secluded yet vibrant writing community a glimpse into how traditional women in a postmodern world negotiate feminist consciousness Writers are analyzed in the specific fields of personal narrative anthology Holocaust testimonial self help literature and fiction A bibliography and index are included Feminist Studies ,1995 Alternation ,1999
