Mishra, Vandana Upadhyay, Atul Sarma, 2014-03-21

As the Indian economy integrates into global circuits of production exchange and accumulation the burdens of adjustment are shared unequally by different sectors classes and regions This study unravels the livelihood strategies and living conditions of labour in the tea gardens of Assam The tea sector has been undergoing a crisis since the 1990s with stagnant production decline in exports and closures of many tea gardens leading to large scale retrenchments in the labour force Based on a detailed analysis of secondary data and primary field research the study examines the extent types and implications of inter generational occupational mobility or immobility among tea garden labourers in Assam In the process it reflects on how even a sector that had brought capital and labour from outside and contributed significantly to the country s export earnings failed to create dynamic growth linkages within the local economy The experience of the labour force in the Assam tea sector the authors argue is important for making sense not only of the development dynamics of the region but of the contradictory ways in which forces of globalisation and neo liberal reforms have been reshaping the worlds of labourers in the margins The book will be of interest to students and scholars of labour studies development studies management studies and studies of north east India as well as to policy makers and those in the tea industry Development and Sustainability Sarmila Banerjee, Anjan Chakrabarti, 2014-07-08 Following the reforms undertaken in the last two decades India s economic landscape has been radically transformed This book examines the new economic map which is shown to be shaped by two intertwined currents globalization and sustainability Weaving extensively through these currents and the canvas of development in the Indian economy they open up this work seeks to introduce new methodologies a corpus of concepts and modes of analysis to make sense of the emerging order of things What transpires in the course of the investigation is a critical reflection of the present in which not only the new institutions policies and practices are analyzed but their limitations fragility and at times myopic approaches are brought to light By highlighting the rough edges created by the new conditions this book is firmly engaged with the frontier of the Indian economy and ends up challenging many well known conjectures and assumptions In doing so it strives to shift the Indian economy to a new terrain thereby fundamentally re locating and re orienting the discourse of that economy as a unique object of analysis Applications and Innovations in Intelligent Systems X Ann Macintosh, Richard Ellis, Frans Coenen, 2012-12-06 The papers in this volume are the referred Applications papers presented at ES 2002 the Twenty second SGES international Conference on Knowledge Based Systems and Applied Artificial Intelligence to be held in Cambridge during December 2002 The Application stream is the largest annual showcase in Europe of real applications using AI technology Papers presented in this volume describe the application of AI to address real world problems including commerce manufacturing and defence and every major AI technique and highlight critical areas of success and failure and present the benefits and lessons of value to other developers This is the tenth volume in the Applications and Innovations in Intelligent Systems series The series serves as a key reference as to how AI technology has enabled organisations to solve complex problems and gain significant business benefits The Technical Stream papers are published as a companion volume under the title Research and Development in Intelligent Systems XIX
