Skinner's Drift Lisa Fugard, 2013-03-07 Lisa Fugard's Skinner's Drift is a beautifully written d but that reveals the secrets and violence buried beneath the earth of a South African farm Skinner's Drift lying amongst the sandstone rocks of the eastern borders of South Africa beside the snaking bed of the Limpopo River was Eva Van Rensburg's home As a young girl she would range through its mopane trees at night hunting jackals with her stammering father But as soon as she grew up Eva fled the farm and has not returned for more than ten years Now as her father lies dying in hospital with only his claustrophobic sister for company Eva must go back to confront her family and remember the beauty and the horror of her life on Skinner's Drift Praise for Skinner's Drift A wonderfully brave novel unflinchingly and lovingly written It is books like this books that shake the dust out of our heads and hearts that allow us all to understand our past slightly better and walk forward more confidently Alexandra Fuller An achingly beautiful book Monica Ali Fugard wonderfully captures the swift rivers of change in which contempt and fear resentment righteousness and loyalty churn in one unending torrent Daily Mail Lisa Fugard grew up in South Africa and now lives in the desert of Southern California with her husband and young son Her short stories have been published in magazines and literary journals and she has written many travel pieces for the New York Times Skinner's Drift is her first novel

Skinner's Drift Lisa Fugard, 2006-02-24 Ten years after leaving South Africa the country of her birth and the place where her mother died Eva van Rensburg returns to her dying father a violent man whose terrible secret Eva has kept since she was a child In this beautiful first novel Lisa Fugard paints a haunting portrait of a family careering toward disaster She vividly describes the isolation of Eva's rebellious and lonely English mother the desperation of her Afrikaner father as drought destroys his farm the conflicts among the black farmworkers as the younger generation questions the loyalty and subservience of their elders and the dangerous silence of a young girl who witnesses too much Like Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee Fugard has written a profoundly moving family drama subtly set against the backdrop of a country in turmoil She moves with extraordinary agility between intimate and revelatory domestic scenes and the fiercely challenging land This is a powerful story from a stunning new writer

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here 21 Days to Awaken the Writer Within Lisa Fugard,2023-02-07 Discover insightful guidance tools and techniques to become a skilled writer and learn how to share your work with the world How do you sustain your ideas and overcome self doubt in your talents How do you transmit your ideas so that the world will take notice What techniques can you use to create discipline and make your writing sessions a joy We live in exciting times anyone with an idea can reach a worldwide audience but how do you separate yourself from the thousands competing to be heard This is a warm comforting guide to stepping into your new life as an empowered author You ll learn how to generate more ideas build confidence in your writing and take your manuscript to completion Studies have shown it takes just 21 days to establish a new habit If there s a skill you ve always wanted to take advantage of the answer is only a few weeks away with Hay House s 21 Days series Comic Lives Laurie McNeill,John David Zuern,2025-06-27 Comic Lives examines the dynamic intersection of life narrative and comedy within the theoretical and methodological frameworks of auto biography studies In stand up acts comedy specials podcasts and print memoirs autobiographical comedy offers a productive occasion for addressing key concerns in the discipline in particular the challenges of representing trauma and the testimonial uses of personal stories The contributors take up examples of auto biographical comedy in Australia Canada South Africa and the United States to explore the question of how comedians transform difficult life experiences such as mental illness the displacements of immigration family conflicts and institutional racism into texts and performances aimed at making people laugh Thinking about auto biography and comedy auto biography as comedy and auto biographical comedy this collection reflects on what auto biography brings to comedy what affordances comedy offers life narrative the benefits and risks of playing life for laughs and the capacities and limitations of the comic for resistance and counternarrative This book will be of particular interest to students and researchers in fields such as literary studies cultural studies performance studies and social theory especially those exploring intersections of identity trauma and humor in contemporary media and performance The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in a b Auto Biography Studies Intersectional Trauma in American Women Writers' Incest Novels from the 1990s Marinella Rodi-Risberg,2022-03-24 This book explores the intersections of sexualized gendered and racialized traumas in five US novels about father daughter incest from the 1990s It examines how incest can be connected to wider past and present structural oppression and institutional abuse and what fiction looks like that testifies against and references a historical background of slavery poverty settler colonialism annexation and immigration Investigating the means of resistance used against attempts at silencing and denial in these texts the book also shows how contemporary women s novels can propose social change Overall this study uniquely argues that the individual trauma of incest in these texts must be understood in relation to histories of and present collective wounding against marginalized communities By sitting at the intersections between trauma theory and US third world feminism it allows for theory to meet literary activism Life Stories Maureen O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books Trauma and Spirituality in Ethnic American Women's Novels Marinella Rodi-Risberg,2025-01-15 Trauma and Spirituality in Ethnic American Women s Novels examines a genre of ethnic American women s literature which the author calls spiritual trauma narratives that testify to traumas caused by epistemological violence wreaked by ongoing colonialism systematic racism and marginalization grounded in a binary hierarchical and supremacist post Enlightenment epistemology that negates the spiritual knowledge of interconnectivity found in people of color s belief systems Placing trauma theory in productive conversation with women of color feminist studies Marinella Rodi Risberg explores literary texts by Chicana African American and Native American authors that engage readers in the protagonists transformative encounters with ancestral knowledge through symbols ritual dreaming storytelling and interactions with the natural world In this way the author argues they model a shift in awareness regarding historical and present traumas including slavery genocide racial and sexual violence highlighting the importance of literature as a site of knowledge production and resistance Catalog of Copyright Entries.
