BATCHELOR, 2024 London's Women Artists, 1900-1914 Mengting Yu, 2020-09-16 Drawing on untapped archives as well as aggregating a wide range of existing published sources this book recalibrates the understanding of women artists roles outputs and receptions in London during what was indubitably a vibrant and innovative period in the history of British art and in which the work of their male contemporaries is so well understood The book takes its starting point from Alicia Foster's article Gwen John's Self Portrait Art Identity and Women Students at the Slade School published in 2000 where the expression a talented and decorative group was coined to describe common attitudes towards women artists in the late 19th and early 20th century London This pejorative attribution strongly implied a status less significant to that of their male counterparts The author challenges this statement's basic tenet by casting a wide net in examining women's art education from the Slade School of Fine Art through to the role of its graduates within a selection of London's exhibition groups societies and publications This book also reconstructs from scratch the role of the Women's International Art Club WIAC hitherto entirely overlooked in art historical studies of the era This book will be of interest to students and researchers in art and cultural history gender studies and in sociological studies of pre War World War Britain Women's Art Work Sophia Bennett, 2020-04-21 Discover the work of female artists who have made their mark on the art world Women's Art Work introduces readers to the lives and work of the world's most renowned artists With a foreword from Tate's first female director Maria Balshaw this collection celebrates the creativity of women in more than 30 biographies investigating their practices and exploring their contributions to the art world Readers will learn about a diverse group of innovators like Frida Kahlo Cindy Sherman Ana Mendieta Lubaina Himid Cao Fei and the Guerrilla Girls From early

International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon, 2024-09-25 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women's professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully
