The Business of Women Melanie Buddle,2011-01-01 In the past Western women inhabited a conceptual space divorced from the world of business Historians have consequently tended to overlook the experiences of women entrepreneurs Who were these women and how were they able to justify their work outside the home The Business of Women explores the world of women entrepreneurs in early twentieth century British Columbia Contrary to expectation the typical businesswoman was not unmarried or particularly rebellious but a woman who reconciled entrepreneurship with her femininity and her identity as a wife mother or widow The entrepreneurial woman was the product of a frontier ethos in British Columbia that translated into higher rates of marriage for women and more married women working outside the home than in any other province in Canada Like men they worked to support their families Young at Heart E.
