Diocese of New York. Sunday School Commission, 1910 The Jewish Teachers of Jesus, James, and Jude David A. deSilva, 2012-10-23 Jews have sometimes been reluctant to claim Jesus as one of their own Christians have often been reluctant to acknowledge the degree to which Jesus message and mission were at home amidst and shaped by the Judaism s of the Second Temple Period In The Jewish Teachers of Jesus James and Jude David deSilva introduces readers to the ancient Jewish writings known as the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha and examines their formative impact on the teachings and mission of Jesus and his half brothers James and Jude Knowledge of this literature deSilva argues helps to bridge the perceived gap between Jesus and Judaism when Judaism is understood only in terms of the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament and not as a living growing body of faith and practice Where our understanding of early Judaism is limited to the religion reflected in the Hebrew Bible Jesus will appear more as an outsider speaking against Judaism and introducing more that is novel Where our understanding of early Judaism is also informed by the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha we will see Jesus and his half brothers speaking and interacting more fully within Judaism By engaging critical issues in this comparative study deSilva produces a portrait of Jesus that is fully at home in Roman Judea and Galilee and perhaps an explanation for why these extra biblical Jewish texts continued to be preserved in Christian circles The teacher's Church catechism, by 'Esegar'.
