The Footprints Of One Who Has Not Stepped Forth:

English Literature: the Beginnings to 1500 James Dow McCallum, 1929 Asian American Poets Guiyou

Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Stepping Forward Carol

Lucas, 2023-12-14 In her book Fostered Adult Children Together on the Bridge to Healing Will We Ever Get Over It Carol Lucas shared a short story titled Stepping Forward about her foster care experience along with sixty other former foster children who hope to answer that question for themselves and other past present and future foster children The stories are dedicated as a voice to the unheard millions FACT which is based on Ten Stepping Stones and the Bridge to Healing is for former foster children who are tired of being angry ashamed and alone and choose to walk a new path sharing their experience strength and hope while building a bridge to healing In this book Stepping Forward on the Sidewalk Carol Lucas is now sharing her autobiography to further answer the question Will We Ever Get Over It It is her desire that former foster children will find hope in the pages of this book Will we ever get over it Maybe not but we can get beyond it which is what her story is all about Contact FACT carolannlucas@hotmail.com Religion, Ritual and Ritualistic Objects Albertina (Tineke) Nugteren, 2019-04-23 This is a volume about the life and power of ritual objects in their religious ritual settings In this Special Issue we see a wide range of contributions on material culture and ritual practices across religions By focusing on the dynamic interrelations between objects ritual and belief it explores how religion happens through symbolic materiality The ritual objects presented in this volume include masks worn in the Dogon dance antique ecclesiastical silver objects carried around in festive processions and shown in shrines in the southern Andes funerary photographs and films functioning as mnemonic objects for grieving children a dented rock surface perceived to be the god's footprint in the archaic place of
