The Fountain Arethuse A Novel Set In The University Town Of Leuven:

The Fountain Arethuse Marian F. Sia, Santiago Sia, 1997 That Elusive Fountain of Wisdom M.F. Sia, S. Sia, 2015-06-18 This tale follows fictitious characters as they journey in search of wisdom and the fulfillment of their objectives Set mainly in the fascinating university town of Leuven Belgium it revolves around the personal social political and academic aspirations of visiting scholars in the town Richard Gutierrez from the USA needs to get tenure at his university Jennifer Sydney from England is determined to advance her career Aisling O Shea and her six year old son Philip from Ireland have different expectations of their trip Piotr Malachowski wants to understand a life rooted in the bitter experiences of the internment camp of Majdanek in Poland The nationalistic Fr Miguel Fuentes from the Philippines wonders what he can learn from a Western university to deal with the challenges in his country What starts out as an academic sojourn for these individuals becomes a life changing experience as their paths cross in Leuven and they learn about each other and themselves and about life itself Those Distant Shores Santiago Sia, 2015-04-01 Distant Shores can mean various things Literally distant shores refer to one's travel destinations Figuratively they represent human desires ambitions or goals But distant shores also stand for the human yearning imbedded in everyone for final fulfillment Such yearning makes human beings fundamentally restless This work is about all of these forms of restlessness In story form it explores a fundamental philosophical theme human transcendence The narrative follows the life journeys of three Filipino boyhood friends who had different ambitions in and dreams about life A parallel story of another young man from Spain who is coming to grips with his father's philosophical views on life links up with one of these Filipinos during a trip to Ireland As the four characters respective and very different narratives unfold their dialogues develop and their reflections deepen one is caught up in the challenges they have had to face the goals they have achieved and the failures and successes they have encountered In different and at times unexpected ways they illustrate the restlessness of human nature itself From Question to Quest Santiago Sia, 2010-04-16 In facing up to life and its challenges questions inevitably arise Different situations provoke specific questions mostly trivial but frequently fundamental always seeking some kind of answer While the transition from question to quest is a rather natural one for human beings and the need for answers is a serious human demand the quest itself is significant precisely because it is a human task This book offers a number of literary philosophical enquiries into these challenges of life But it is the one set of quests stimulated deepened and widened by literature and philosophy as well as developed in a literary and philosophical way Among the topics covered are the search for meaning in life the quest for wisdom the aim of moral striving the need for community life the importance of relationships the challenge of suffering the desire for deliverance and the longing for immortality Routledge Revivals: God, Literature and Process Thought (2002) Darren Middleton, 2018-02-01 Originally published in 2002 God Literature and Process Thought looks at the use of God in writing as a part of the creative advance immersed in the processes of reality and affected by events in the world This edited collection outlines and promotes the novel view that there is much to be gained when those who value the insights of process thought encounter the many and varied writers of literature and literary theory It also celebrates the notion of process poesis a fresh way of reflecting theologically and philosophically that takes account of literary forms and promises to transform creatively the very structure of process thought today This Deep Pierian Spring M.F. Sia, S. Sia, 2016-05-11

Fundamental questions about life arise in various contexts making us wonder about the real worth of living However it is certainly a sign of our times when one is alerted to the fundamental question about the meaning and significance of life by an ominous text message The main character of this book Professor Enrique de los Reyes receives such a warning the onset of super typhoon Haiyan the strongest ever to hit landfall and the impending danger to his friend and his relatives in the Philippines As he anxiously awaits more news he recalls and reviews in the context of this tragedy his philosophical wanderings throughout a long academic career in pursuit of the meaning of life He wonders how these could now be reconciled with the urgent need for him to attend to this particular situation The response to his query comes from a most unexpected source as he assesses Alexander Pope's advice to drink deeply from the Pierian spring and realises its import for one's conduct in life This reflective account of a human quest is the last volume in a trilogy which probes into philosophical themes in a narrative way The first book Those Distant Shores A Narrative of Human Restlessness looks at human restlessness and explores the fundamental theme of human transcendence by following the life stories of three boyhood friends and of another young student as they embark on their respective journeys in life The second book That Elusive Fountain of Wisdom A Tale of the Human Thirst for Knowledge deals with the fundamental craving of human beings for fulfilment as depicted in the various characters from different countries who pursue their respective academic interests and ambitions

Society in its Challenges Santiago Sia, 2014-03-17 Living in society has always presented a variety of challenges to its members These challenges need to be addressed if there is to be an improvement in the quality of life in society However to what extent can philosophical thinking facilitate the task This book pursues and answers this question It offers an analysis of fundamental issues and provides philosophical considerations of the challenges arising from living in society The topics discussed here include philosophy and the social context individual interests and the common good dualistic thinking of and in society relationships and communal life the individual and society ethical thinking and formation images reality and truth the power and limits of human freedom social roles public office and moral society economic crisis and accountability the marketplace academia education contemporary society and faith based education and the meaning and significance of life After reviewing these discussions the concluding chapter then sets out a philosophical vision to facilitate an understanding of and motivation for the creative advance of society

From Education to Life Santiago Sia, 2019-01-03 This book contributes to ongoing discussions on the important role of education and on the challenging tasks facing educators today Drawing on their long vast and varied experience as educators administrators and scholars the authors deal specifically with certain fundamental issues with a view to engaging those involved in education in an examination of what underlies educational theory and practice The book shows that education is not simply about attending school academic institutions or any other establishment of learning or training but rather is a process that looks further than the time spent learning lessons attending lectures doing research acquiring knowledge honing skills or developing competence important and crucial as these activities are to human development Its greatest challenge and purpose come instead from life itself For this reason this book is about education as preparing us to live a more fulfilled life and as a process that lasts a lifetime All those involved in education at all stages and in various capacities will find this book both beneficial and engaging

The Christian Message as Vision and Mission Santiago Sia, 2017-08-21 With all the messages that come our way through social media and in sophisticated gadgets does the Christian message of love hope and redemption still have an importance and relevance What does it have to offer to enable us to meet the various challenges which beset present day living Today there is an even greater and more urgent need to focus on it After all the Christian message is not merely information because it is also about a way of life Neither is it simply an exhortation since it also presents a definite goal This book provides some philosophical considerations which underpin its central teaching While aware of its richness and complexity the essays concentrate on the Christian message insofar as it provides a vision for humanity and articulates a mission to implement it The book serves to establish points of encounter rather than points of departure in order to contribute to the ongoing reflection by those who believe in that message as well as to the debates with those who oppose it

Framing a Vision of the World André Cloots, 1999 Since for Jan Van der Veken our vision of the world and especially the placing of God and religion in it has been the basic concern in all his work and thought this problem is also at the core of this volume
