The Freedom To Be Wrong Sermons For Last Third Of The Pentecost Season:

The Freedom to Be Wrong Alvin C. Rueter, 1985-09 Against the Grain-- Words for a Politically Incorrect Church Steven E. Albertin, 1999 I have always been troubled by a church that is too enamored of the big business of religion and too hungry for the world's applause and approval The church is first of all called to be faithful to the gospel to be a sign of God's coming gracious kingdom in this world and only secondarily to be a successful and competent institution in this world This book is driven by the fear that the church has too often forgotten the former and succumbed to the latter from the Preface While thoroughly grounded in scripture and sound theology Steven Albertin has a way of contemporizing the message of the gospel making it easy to understand but not necessarily easy to fulfill After reading or listening to one of these sermons you'll be left with a very clear understanding of its central message expressed with such carefully chosen and forceful words that it will not be easily forgotten Chapter titles include What's In It for Me Mark 10 35 45 Baptism and Self Esteem Mark 12 28 34 Breaking the Taboo Mark 12 38 44 Having the Last Word John 18 33 37 No Freudian Slip Matthew 6 25 33 Steven E Albertin is currently pastor of Christ Lutheran Church of Zionsville Indiana He previously served parishes in Indianapolis and Fort Wayne Indiana Albertin has received degrees from Concordia College B A Concordia Seminary in Exile St Louis M Div Christ Seminary Seminex S T M and the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago D Min Feasting on the Word: Pentecost and season after Pentecost 1 (Propers 3-16) David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2010-01-01 With the twelve volume series Feasting on the Word Westminster John Knox Press offers one of the most extensive and well respected resources for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes will cover all of the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with moveable occasions The page layout is truly unique For each lectionary text preachers will find brief essays one each on the exegetical theological pastoral and homiletical challenges of the text Each volume will also contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers may make use of its contents The printed volumes for Ordinary Time include the complementary stream during Year A the complementary stream during the first half of Year B the semicontinuous stream during the second half of Year B and the semicontinuous stream during Year C Beginning with the season after Pentecost for Year C the alternate lections for Ordinary Time not in the print volumes will be available online at feastingontheword.net A Word that Sets Free Mark Ellingsen, 2000 Inspired by the heritage of African American churches Mark Ellingsen has created innovative visionary sermons on Old Testament texts from the Revised Common Lectionary His messages reflect his unique vantage point as a Lutheran of Norwegian heritage teaching at a historically black seminary and they are a model for anyone who wants to learn how to relate the Bible to the cutting edge social issues of our day Ellingsen suggests that many American Christians have abdicated their responsibility to advocate justice in our society or to talk about what the gospel can do in our lives and society as a whole from Monday through Saturday Ellingsen believes these Old Testament texts are relevant to our contemporary lives An all too common view of many Christians is look to the New Testament to find the liberating word of God while viewing the Old Testament as being about the law and the confining demands of tradition But Ellingsen says that the history of Christianity proves this is not true He observes that Martin Luther was primarily an Old Testament scholar and that African American churches have based many of their traditions of liberation on Old Testament stories and prophetic traditions Mark Ellingsen s offering of sermons based on Old Testament texts reflects his usual thorough biblical scholarship and his readable down to earth style that consistently render his material useful to both scholars and those seeking the inspiration of a faithful Christian Richard H Stough Publisher King Publications Mark Ellingsen has had a rich and varied career as a parish pastor and a seminary professor In addition to serving several Lutheran congregations in Pennsylvania and North Carolina he has held teaching positions at Luther Northwestern Seminary and the Institute for Ecumenical Research in Strasbourg France Ellingsen currently is on the faculty of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta the largest historic African American seminary in the United States A regular contributor to several homiletics periodicals Ellingsen is also the author of ten books some of which have been used as homiletics texts in many American and Canadian seminaries

Connections: Year B, Volume 3 Joel B. Green, Thomas G. Long, Luke A. Powery, Cynthia L. Rigby, Carolyn J. Sharp, 2021-04-20 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary This nine volume series offers creative commentary on each reading through the lens of its connections to the rest of Scripture and then seeing the reading through the lenses of culture film fiction ethics and other aspects of contemporary life Commentaries on the Psalms make connections to other readings and to the congregation s experience of worship Connections is published in partnership with Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Sermons for Children's Masses Raphael Frassinetti, 1900

No Box Seats in the Kingdom William G. Carter, 1996 Drawing upon a number of scripture texts from the gospel of Mark this collection of sermons speaks about many challenges on the road to Christian maturity The call of the gospel is given to all who find themselves in sticky human circumstances whether they are troubled by relationships tainted by affluence tired of the career ladder traumatized by persecution or threatened by death When people enter into a community of faith it may take a while for them to grow into mature membership within God s family They may need to be weaned from selfish actions stingy habits and resentful attitudes This book addresses those challenges in such chapters as Invitation to Community Love and Money What to Say When You Roll Out of Bed Something to Do While the World Falls Apart There is an air of unpredictability about William Carter s sermons Enjoy their humor their joyful interplay of the biblical and the contemporary their delightful poetic cadences Thomas G Long Princeton Theological Seminary William G Carter serves as pastor and head of staff of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarks Summit Pennsylvania He received his B A degree from the State University of New York and his M Div degree from Princeton Theological Seminary An accomplished jazz pianist Carter has extensive experience as a
