The French Connection II:

French Connection II Robin Moore, Milt Machlin, 1975 French Connection II Robin Moore, Milt Machlin, 1975
Popeye Doyle was a long way from the New York scene he knew so well. He didn't speak the language. He didn't know the ropes. He didn't have a man or woman he could trust. He just had a hunch he was being played for a sucker again by the same Frenchman who had foxed him in New York. He just had an itch to turn Marseilles upside down until he found Charnier and turned the French connection off for good. Get ready for a wild ride in an adventure torn from the headlines. Page 1

French Connection II Alexander Jacobs, 1974 FRENCH CONNECTION 2 ROBIN MOORE AND MILT MACHLIN, 1975 French Connection Robin Moore, 2023-12-05
With a new introduction by the author. The true absorbing and sometimes frightening documentary of the world's most successful narcotics investigation. The French Connection is one of the most fascinating crime accounts of our time. When New York City detectives Eddie Popeye Egan and his partner Sonny Grosso routinely tail Pasquale Patsy Fuca after observing some wild spending at the Copacabana, they quickly realize that they are on to something really big. Patsy is not only the nephew of a mob boss on the lam but also a key negotiator in an impending delivery of narcotics from abroad. His incongruous connections are with several distinguished Frenchmen including Jean Jehan, the director of the world's largest heroin network, and Jacques Angelvin, a star of French television. For many suspense-filled months through opulent Manhattan nightclubs, dark tenements in Brooklyn, and the Bronx tree-lined streets of the genteel Upper East Side and in Paris, Marseilles, and Palermo, the duel is on the prize: 112 pounds of pure heroin worth ninety million on the streets. Over three hundred investigators from local, state, federal, and international agencies are ultimately involved in the hours of weary surveillance, the skilled intuition, the luck both good and bad, and the danger. The Films of the Seventies Marc Sigoloff, 2000-09-01. This is a comprehensive filmography of American, British, and Canadian feature films released during the decade of the 1970s. Nearly 1,000 films are listed alphabetically, each with cast, including the characters they played, and credits, release date, a five-star rating system, production company, length, the Motion Picture Association of America rating of G, PG, R, or X, various award winners are indicated with symbols, and a brief summary of major plot details and characters, and an evaluation of its virtues or flaws. The box office rentals of each film achieving 4 million or more are also indicated. Crime and Spy Jazz on Screen Since 1971 Derrick Bang, 2020-04-16. Henry Mancini's Peter Gunn theme, Lalo Schiffrin's Mission Impossible theme, Isaac Hayes' theme from Shaft. These iconic melodies have remained a part of the pop culture landscape since their debuts back when movie studios and TV production companies employed full orchestral ensembles to provide a jazz backdrop for the suspenseful adventures of secret agents, private detectives, cops, spies, and heist-minded criminals. Hundreds of additional films and television shows made from the mid-1950s and beyond have been propelled by similarly swinging title themes, and underscores many of which have undeservedly faded into obscurity. This meticulously researched book begins with Hayes' game-changing music for Shaft and honors the careers of traditional jazz composers who as the 1970s gave way to the 80s and beyond resolutely battled against the pernicious influx of synth jukebox scores and a growing corporate disinterest in lavish ensembles Fans frustrated by the lack of attention paid to jazz soundtrack composers including Mort Stevens Laurie Johnson Mike Post Earle Hagen David Shire Elmer Bernstein and many many others will find solace in these pages along with all the information needed to enhance one s music library But this is only half the story the saga s origins are discussed in this book s companion volume Crime and Action Jazz on Screen 1950-1970 John Frankenheimer Stephen B. Armstrong, 2013-03-22 John Frankenheimer s career as a professional director began and ended in television In the mid 1950s he won acclaim working on live productions for anthology series like Playhouse 90 and from the mid 1990s until his death in 2002 he helmed a string of Emmy winning features for cable TV including The Burning Season 1994 and Andersonville 1996 Despite these successes Frankenheimer s reputation rests primarily upon the nearly thirty feature films he directed which range from bona fide classics like Birdman of Alcatraz 1962 and The Manchurian Candidate 1962 to such lesser achievements as Prophecy 1979 and Dead Bang 1989 Unfortunately for Frankenheimer the discrepancy between his best films and his worst led many critics during his lifetime to dismiss him as someone whose talent dissipated in the late 1960s In the decade since his death however several critics have emerged who reject the assertion that the quality of Frankenheimer s output faded after an impressive start In John Frankenheimer Interviews Essays and Profiles Stephen B Armstrong has collected the most interesting and insightful articles and features published on this underrated director While question and answer exchanges make up the bulk of the items featured here also included are journalistic profiles of the director at work and essays Frankenheimer himself wrote for magazine audiences In addition readers will find a series of interviews of people who worked with Frankenheimer including actors Roy Scheider Tim Reid and the director s wife of 40 years Evans Frankenheimer In this volume the director and others look back on a career that included such films as Seven Days in May The Train Grand Prix The Iceman Cometh Black Sunday and Ronin The first collection of its kind John Frankenheimer Interviews Essays and Profiles enables those who value the director s work to develop a better understanding of the man through his own words and the words of others Pictures About Extremes Stephen B. Armstrong, 2017-02-10 This traditional auteurist survey closely examines the films of director John Frankenheimer assessing the thematic and stylistic elements of such films as The Iceman Cometh The Manchurian Candidate and Bird Man of Alcatraz It begins with a complete overview of Frankenheimer s life and career A chronology lists production history details for each of his films and a comprehensive biography draws attention to Frankenheimer s early artistic development Subsequent chapters categorize his films by genre and theme examining each film through analytical critiques and plot synopses Multiple appendices include an analysis of Frankenheimer s short films Maniac at Large and Ambush a complete filmography and a suggested reading list The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza, 2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon's Jr's The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation. In recent years Nick Hornsby's About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding's Bridget Jones's Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names. A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films, this volume includes books both fiction and non-fiction, short stories, newspaper and magazine articles, and poems. Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title, with cross-listings for films made under different titles. Each entry includes the original work's title, author, year of first publication, literary prizes, and a brief plot summary. Information on film adaptations of the work, including adaptation titles, director, screenwriter, principal cast, and the names of the characters they portray, major awards, and availability in the most common formats (DVD, VHS) is also offered.
