The Front Garden The Story Of The Cottage Garden In Australia:

The Front Garden Victor Crittenden, 1979 Australia's Timeless Gardens Judith Baskin, Trisha Dixon, 1996 Australia's Timeless Gardens is a celebration of private gardening in Australia since 1788 Presenting more than 100 paintings engravings sketches and photographs from the collections of the National Library of Australia it offers a pictorial tour through two centuries of gardening history The Front Garden Victor Crittenden, 1979 The Garden of Ideas Richard Aitken, 2010 The Garden of Ideas tells an inspiring and engaging story of Australian garden design From the imaginings of emigrant garden makers of the late eighteenth century to the concerns of twenty first century gardeners this book charts its way across four centuries through a handsome and satisfying fusion of images and text The Garden of Ideas is embellished with an unparalleled array of images paintings drawings prints plans and photographs each richly evocative of their time and most never previously published Unearthed from around Australia and many from overseas these images carry the story of Australian garden style down the years in the process criss crossing social and cultural history across the wide extremes of our continent Richard Aitken whose book Botanical Riches was published in 2006 to popular and critical acclaim brings a lifetime of experience to The Garden of Ideas He achieves fresh insights and presents our passion for garden making with wit and flair The Garden of Ideas is a valuable source book for the sophisticated gardener and an indispensable companion for the garden lover A History of European Housing in Australia Patrick Troy, 2000-06-22 This collection of essays first published in 2000 was the first systematic attempt to explain the social administrative technical and cultural history of European housing in Australia Written by a collaborative team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines it explains how Australian housing has evolved from the ideas brought by the first settlers and what makes Australian housing distinctive in social terms This book covers a broad range of topics including the ways in which houses reflect social values and aspirations the relationship between houses and gardens the home as a site of domestic production and consumption and an exploration of how housing provides the basis for developing a sense of community The book will be invaluable for students of urban affairs and those engaged in housing and the design professions as well as policy makers and analysts in the public and private sectors Genteel women Dianne Lawrence, 2017-02-01 During the latter half of the nineteenth century and the first decades of the twentieth colonial expansion prompted increasing numbers of genteel women to establish their family homes in far flung corners of the world This work explores ways in which the women's values as expressed through their personal and household possessions specifically their dress living rooms gardens and food were instrumental in constructing various forms of genteel society in alien settings Lawrence examines the transfer and adaptation of British female gentility in various locations across the British Empire including Africa New Zealand and India In so doing she offers a revised reading of the behaviour motivations and practices of female elites thereby calling into doubt the oft stated notion that such women were a constraining element in new societies The Poetics of Gardens Charles W. Moore, William John Mitchell, William

Turnbull (Jr.), 1988 This is an entirely different garden book a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards There is a universality about the creation of gardens across time and in diverse cultures that has inspired this entirely different garden book a playful and affectionate typology of gardens a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards The Poetics of Gardens is a celebration of places and the gardens they can become Most of the 500 sketches axonometric drawings and photographs were created especially for this book They explore the special qualities of places and the acts that can transform them into gardens The authors discuss the qualities that create the promise of a garden the shapes of land and water the established plants the light and wind the climate and show how these can be organized to give a place a special meaning And they pay particular attention to the rituals of habitation by which we imaginatively take possession of places on the surface of the earth The Poetics of Gardens examines great gardens made in other places with other climates at other times from ancient Rome to modern England from Ball to Botany Bay from the court of Ch ien Lung to the magic kingdom of Walt Disney to explore their devices and record their images scents and sounds The authors discuss the adaptation of the great garden traditions of the past to North American soil and call together the creators of these gardens to speculate about how their patterns and ideas can be appropriated transformed and composed into places that come alive for us

Locating Suburbia Paula Hamilton, Paul Ashton, 2013-01-01 The identity of suburbia so far as it can be ascribed one is shifting and insecure a borderline and liminal space Dominant stereotypes have listed it as on the margins beyond edges of cultural sophistication and tradition and the areas that make up sprawl But in the twenty first century this static view has to be modified As is evident from this collection suburban dwellers themselves have redefined themselves This collection explores the range and complexity of twenty first century responses to city suburbs predominantly in Sydney It draws on a range of approaches from history to creative non fiction and multi media
