The Fruit Machine Twenty Years Of Writings On Queer Cinema:

The Fruit Machine Thomas Waugh, 2000-04-04 A selection of writings on gay and lesbian cinema by one of the pioneers of queer film criticism Fruit Machine Thomas Waugh, 2000 The ^AOxford Handbook of Queer Cinema Ronald Gregg, Amy Villarejo, 2021-11-12 The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema encompasses more than a century of filmmaking film criticism and film reception looking at the ways in which the idea of queer cinema has expanded as a descriptor for a global arts practice Queer Cinema in America Aubrey Malone, 2019-11-11 Explore queer cinema over time with this comprehensive encyclopedia helping readers understand films directors actors themes and other topics related to LGBTQ cinema history Just as American society has changed dramatically from decade to decade so has queer cinema Taking us from a time when LGBTQ characters were often represented as either caricatures or figures of farce this lively yet authoritative reference explores the sea change ushered in by such stars as Greta Garbo and Marlene Dietrich in the 1930s and 40s androgynous figures such as Montgomery Clift James Dean and Marlon Brando in the 50s and closeted gay men such as Rock Hudson and Liberace whose double lives were exposed by the scourge of AIDS Included are alphabetically arranged entries on stars directors films themes and other topics related to queer cinema in America including films and persons from outside the U S who nonetheless figured prominently in America popular culture Entries cite works for further reading sidebars provide snippets of interesting trivia a timeline highlights key events and a selected general end of work bibliography cites the most important major works on the topic Queer Cinema Harry M. Benshoff, Sean Griffin, 2004 Queer Cinema the Film Reader brings together key writings that use queer theory to explore cinematic sexualities especially those historically designated as gay lesbian bisexual and or transgendered Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media LGBTQ Film

Festivals Antoine Damians, 2025-10-01 While scholars have theorized major film festivals they have ignored smaller ephemeral events In taking seriously minor European and North American LGBTQ festivals which often only exist as traces within archival collections this book revisits festival studies methodological and theoretical apparatuses As the first critique of festival studies from within LGBTQ Film Festivals argues that both festivals and queer film cultures are by definition ephemeral The book is organized around two concepts First critical festival studies examines the political project and disciplinary assumptions that structure festival research Second the festival as a method pays attention to festivals role as producers of knowledge it argues that festivals are not mere objects of research but also actors already shaping academic industrial and popular cinematic knowledge Drawing on the author s experience on the festival circuit this book pays homage to the labour of queer organizers critics and scholars and opens up new avenues for festival research

I Confess! Thomas Waugh, Brandon Arroyo, 2019-11-21 In the postwar decades sexual revolutions first women s suffrage flappers Prohibition and Mae West later Alfred Kinsey Hugh Hefner and the pill altered the lifestyles and desires of generations Since the 1990s the internet and its cataclysmic cultural and social technological shifts have unleashed a third sexual revolution crystallized in the acts and rituals of confession that are a staple of our twenty first century lives In I Confess a collection of thirty original essays leading international scholars such as Ken Plummer Susanna Paasonen Tom Roach and Shohini Ghosh explore the ideas of confession and sexuality in moving image arts and media mostly in the Global North over the last quarter century Through self referencing or autobiographical stories testimonies and performances and through rigorously scrutinized case studies of gay for pay gaming camming YouTube uploads and the films Tarnation and Nymph maniac the contributors describe a spectrum of identities desires and related representational practices Together these desires and practices shape how we see construct and live our identities within this third sexual revolution embodying both its ominous implications of surveillance and control and its utopian glimmers of community and liberation Inspired by theorists from Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze to Gayle Rubin and Jos Esteban Mu oz I Confess reflects an extraordinary paradigm shifting proliferation of first person voices and imagery produced during the third sexual revolution from the eve of the internet to today

A View from the Bottom Tan Hoang Nguyen, 2014-07-29 A View from the Bottom offers a major critical reassessment of male effeminacy and its racialization in visual culture Examining portrayals of Asian and Asian American men in Hollywood cinema European art film gay pornography and experimental documentary Nguyen Tan Hoang explores the cultural meanings that accrue to sexual positions He shows how cultural fantasies around the position of the sexual bottom overdetermine and refract the meanings of race gender sexuality and nationality in American culture in ways that both enable and constrain Asian masculinity Challenging the association of bottoming with passivity and abjection Nguyen suggests ways of thinking about the bottom position that afford agency and pleasure A more capacious conception of bottomhood as a sexual position a social alliance an affective bond and an aesthetic form has the potential to destabilize sexual gender and racial norms suggesting an ethical mode of relation organized not around dominance and mastery but around the risk of vulnerability and shame Thus reconceived bottomhood as a critical category creates new possibilities for arousal receptiveness and recognition and offers a new framework for analyzing sexual representations in cinema as well as understanding their relation to oppositional political projects
