Tamed, Lost, Revived Diane Flynt, 2023-09-18 For anyone who's ever picked an apple fresh from the tree or enjoyed a glass of cider writer and orchardist Diane Flynt offers a new history of the apple and how it changed the South and the nation. Showing how southerners cultivated over 2,000 apple varieties from Virginia to Mississippi Flynt shares surprising stories of a fruit that was central to the region for over 200 years. Colorful characters abound in this history including aristocratic Belgian immigrants, South Carolina plantation owners, and multiple presidents, each group changing the course of southern orchards. She shows how southern apples ranging from northern varieties that found fame on southern soil to hyper-local apples grown by a single family have a history beyond the region from Queen Victoria's court to the Oregon Trail. Flynt also tells us the darker side of the story detailing how apples were entwined with slavery and the theft of Indigenous land. She relates the ways southerners lost their rich apple culture in less than the lifetime of a tree and offers a tentatively hopeful future. Alongside unexpected apple history Flynt traces the arc of her own journey as a pioneering farmer in the southern Appalachians who planted cider apples never grown in the region and founded the first modern cidery in the South. Flynt threads her own story with archival research and interviews with orchardists, farmers, cidermakers, and more. The result is not only the definitive story of apples in the South but also a new way to challenge our notions of history. The Founding Foodies Dave DeWitt, 2010-11-01 Ever wonder how certain foods came to be such huge staples of American culinary history? In this fascinating mashup between history book and cook book, one of America's Founding Fathers could be at the source. Food writer Dave DeWitt entertainingly describes how some of America's most famous colonial leaders like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Benjamin Franklin not only established America's political destiny but also revolutionized the very foods we eat. Beyond their legacy as revolutionaries and politicians, the Founding Fathers of America were first and foremost a group of farmers. Like many of today's foodies, they ardently supported sustainable farming and ranching, exotic imported foods, brewing, distilling, and wine appreciation. Explore their passion for the land and the bounty it produced through an intriguing narrative sprinkled with recipes that showcase their love of food and the art of eating that would ultimately become America's diverse food culture. Features over thirty authentic colonial recipes including Thomas Jefferson's ice cream, A recipe for beer by George Washington, Martha Washington's fruitcake, Medford rum punch, Terrapin soup, and more.

where he learned about fine wines at Europe's salons and dinner tables as American Ambassador The book uses excerpts from Jefferson's colorful travel journals of his visits to France Italy and Germany as well as his letters to friends and wine merchants some of whose descendants still produce the wines Jefferson enjoyed Vivid contemporaneous accounts of dinners at the White House allow readers to experience vicariously Jefferson's Champagne diplomacy The book concludes with an overview of the current restoration of the vineyards at Monticello and the new Monticello Wine Trail and its numerous world class Virginia wineries In Thomas Jefferson on Wine Hailman presents an absorbing and unique view of this towering historical figure
