A Checklist of Fredric Brown, 1992 Harry Houdini Mysteries: The Dime Museum Murders Daniel Stashower, 2012-02-07 Harry Houdini and his brother Dash are called to solve the murder of a toy tycoon in this first locked room mystery starring the legendary real life magicians New York City 1897 Young escapologist Harry Houdini is struggling to get the recognition he craves from the ruthless entertainment industry But when toy tycoon Branford Wintour is found murdered in his Fifth Avenue mansion detectives call upon Houdini to help solve this mysterious crime ushering in a new era of Houdini's career amateur sleuth When Harry and his brother Dash reach the scene of the murder they discover Wintour was found dead in a room that was locked from the inside out the result of a cruel magic trick Together the brothers Houdini launch their first ever investigation venturing into the bizarre world of rare curios and the collectors who will pay any price to own them Everyday Murders Hugh Anthony Levine, 2009-08-07 Excerpt from Chapter One All Tanenbaum said was And then what happened Eddie He appeared to enter some weirdly hypnotic catatonic trance his already breathy voice became monotonal his eyes glazed over his face drained of expression and he went on and on and on She said Wait until your mother hears this this is going to break her heart And I said Please don't tell my mother Sherrald please don't tell my mother Sherrald please don't tell my mother And while Eddie Hurdle continued to mouth that refrain please don't tell my mother both of his hands gripped an imaginary knife and repeatedly metronomically plunged it down and raised it up and plunged it down and raised it up over and over and over again The three observers Davin Tanenbaum and the stenotypist sat in stunned silence as Eddie Hurdle reenacted his crime Other sins only speak murder shrieks out wrote playwright John Webster in 1623

and our fascination with murder and murder trials has continued unabated to the present Murder is after all the most dramatically unlawful thing a person can do to another It runs counter to the very fundamentals of human society breaching what social philosophers have termed the social contract Society speaks with its firmest voice in addressing the conduct of its members who kill another and murder prosecutions have the direst of consequences of any court proceeding as they may occasion the loss of a violator's liberty for life or even the loss of his or her life itself But most murder cases while fascinating in the motives or personalities of the killers or the circumstances of the killings and the ensuing trials receive little attention and recede into ordinariness Only rarely does a murder case become a cause célèbre notorious enough to capture wide attention the O J Simpson Scott Peterson Claus von Bülow type cases prove the exception rather than the rule For the most part the public's perception of garden variety murder trials quickly becomes only memory's ashes strewn sparsely on the fields of public awareness Brought to life by the prosecutor who tried the six everyday murders narrated here three in Manhattan and three in San Francisco these true stories prove redolent with drama encapsulating raw human emotions that often impel man to murder greed lust jealousy hatred as well as mere folly and actually are quite extraordinary in their own context Sit at the prosecution's table with masterful prosecutor Hugh Anthony Levine as he represents the People of the State of New York or the People of the State of California in the trials of some everyday murders

The Multiple Murders of Mary Kelley Campbell Ruby Campbell Stroschein and Janel Kelley Campbell, 2020-03-28 This book is a memoir of Janel Campbell who lost her mother when she was eleven years old Woven through her own stories Janel gives the backdrop of her mother's life in the high mountain desert plains of southeast Idaho her marriage to Curtis Campbell and the events that take her mother from the dry farm in Juniper Idaho to Los Angeles back to north Utah to Seattle back to Utah then to New Jersey and back to Kent Washington a path that eventually leads to her mother's brutal murder on March 8 1961 at the young age of 39 Mary Kelley Campbell was a witty high spirited Irish girl who lost her own father at the age of six raised by her widowed mother older sisters and brother Mary was a devout Mormon a compassionate Christian and the mother of six children The confessed murderer was a member of Mary's church a Lennie type Of Mice and Men a large strong lumbering simple minded man oblivious of his actions and desperate to please The helpless 22 year old confesses to have been hypnotized by a young attractive member of their church who he claims was obsessed with the idea of having Mary killed and taking her place as the wife of an eminent Boeing engineer The crime was labeled by King County prosecutors as one of the weirdest murders in the annals of the Pacific Northwest With Mary's legacy banished for nearly sixty years by the pain and circumstance of her death Janel has quelled the fears she knew she had to face in order to bring her mother's tales of betrayal heartache love and forgiveness to Mary's progeny and to the world
