The Collected Writings of Franz Liszt Janita R. Hall-Swadley, 2016-10-13 The Collected Writings of Franz Liszt Dramaturgical Leaves Richard Wagner completes the second half of Liszt's writings about stage works, its composers and music drama. In this volume Liszt focuses on the works of his most controversial devotee and son-in-law Richard Wagner, whose music dramas Liszt championed as conductor during his tenure in Weimar. Here we see Liszt prove his skill and expertise as a music critic as well. He offers a critical analysis of the aesthetic and musical principles that underlie Wagner's operas Tannhäuser and Lohengrin, and The Flying Dutchman, including a thorough discussion of Wagner's Leitmotif system of composition. Additionally, his findings are substantiated with a plethora of music examples which will satisfy those who wanted greater musical substance from his writings. He also foretells the magnitude of Wagner's influence on posterity in his pamphlet-length essay The Rhine's Gold. Finally, the editor and translator of this volume, Janita Hall Swadley, provides a unique perspective on these same principles which is based on Wagner's own mysterious diagram of The Philosopher's Stone, which was supposed to be included in the original 1863 edition of the composer's important writing Opera and Drama but never made it to publication.

The Collected Writings of

Denton J. Snider ... Denton Jaques Snider, 1921 Selected Essays Karl Marx, 1926 Marx's critique of contemporary social, political, and economic structures that emphasizes the need for revolutionary change and the development of a materialist understanding of history and society. \(Per\)Versions of Love and Hate Renata Salecl, 2000-06-17 Why when we are desperately in love do we endlessly block union with our love object? Why do we often destroy what we love most? Why do we search out the impossible object? Is it that we desire things because they are unavailable and therefore to keep desire alive we need to prevent its fulfillment? Renata Salecl explores the distributing and complex relationships between love and hate, violence and admiration, libidinal and destructive drives through an investigation of phenomena as diverse as the novels The Age of Innocence and The Remains of the Day, classic Hollywood melodramas, the Sirens song, Ceaușescu's Rumania, and the Russian performance artist Oleg Kulik who acts like a dog and bites his audience. Per Versions of Love and Hate presents a unique and timely intervention in contemporary debates by questioning the legitimacy of the calls for tolerance and respect by multiculturalism and exploring practices such as body mutilation as symptoms of the radical change that has affected subjectivity in contemporary society. Postmodernizing the Holocaust Marta Tomczok, 2024-01-22 Marta Tomczok presents all Polish postmodern novels about the Holocaust, starting with The First Splendor by Leopold Buczkowski and ending with The Suspected Dybbuk by Andrzej Bart. She also presents their rich relationships with selected foreign language prose which intensified especially at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries. The culmination of the entire trend is a discussion around two novels Tworzy by Marek Bieńczyk and Fly Trap Factory by Andrzej Bart, which reveals the aestheticizing and post-memorial profile of Polish postmodernization and its advantage over the historiographical trend. This monograph is not only the first such collection of post-Holocaust postmodern novels but also the first comprehensive study of postmodernism in the literature about the Holocaust, which thanks to comparative analysis tries to analyze and explain the circumstances of the appearance and later disappearance of this trend from the cultural landscape of the world and Poland.

Selected Essays in Criticism L. C. Knights, 1981-06-04 This is a selection of essays by one of the most distinguished of modern literary critics L C Knights published as a companion volume to the selection of Professor Knights Shakespearean essays which appeared in 1979 The essays span almost four decades of critical work on authors as diverse as Marlowe George Herbert Clarendon and Henry James At the centre of each essay is an attempt to elicit some essential quality in the author or authors discussed Although each can be read as an isolated critical essay the different pieces are linked by a pervasive interest in the conditions social or personal out of which particular works emerged and in the way in which major works of the imagination are renewed as they are re interpreted in successive generations Throughout the underlying assumption is that literary criticism needs to be pure the result of direct exposure to particular works but that it cannot remain purely literary if only because the meaning of literature includes its effects on the lives and conduct of individual human beings Selected Essays & Readings Robert Fink, 2003 Selected Essays of Plutarch Plutarch, 1913 Sirens of the Western Shore Indra A. Levy, 2010 The cross fertilization of languages cultures and literary forms that produced modern Japanese literature also gave birth to a new literary archetype the Westernesque femme fatale an alluring figure who is ethnically Japanese but evokes the West in her physical appearance lifestyle behavior and use of language Tracing the genesis of this archetype from her first appearance in the vernacularist fiction of the late 1880s to her role in Naturalist fiction of the mid 1900s and her embodiment by the modern Japanese actress in the early 1910s Sirens of the Western Shore identifies the Westernesque femme fatale as the hallmark of an intertextual exoticism that prizes the strange beauty of modern Western writing By illuminating the exoticist impulses that informed this archetype Indra Levy offers a new understanding of the relationships between vernacular style and translation originality and imitation and writing and performance
