Soekarno Founding Father Of Indonesia 19011945:

Soekarno, Founding Father of Indonesia B. B. Hering, 2003 Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia's Early Independence Period Farabi Fakhri, 2020-09-07 In Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia's Early Independence Period Farabi Fakhri offers a historical analysis of the foundational years leading to Indonesia's New Order state 1966-1998 during the early independence period The study looks into the structural and ideological state formation during the so-called Liberal Democracy 1950-1957 and Sukarno's Guided Democracy 1957-1965 In particular it analyses how the international technical aid network and the dominant managerialist ideology of the period legitimized a new managerial elite The book discusses the development of managerial education in the civil and military sectors in Indonesia The study gives a strongly backed argument that Sukarno's constitutional reform during the Guided Democracy period inadvertently provided a strong managerial blueprint for the New Order developmentalist state

The Territories of Indonesia Iem Brown, 2004-06-17 Presents an up-to-date in-depth survey of the region

The History of Indonesia Steven Drakeley, 2005-09-30 Culturally and politically Indonesia is one of the more complex countries in the world with 336 ethnic groups speaking 583 languages and dialects It is only recently that these people have been contained within one political framework Throughout most of history Indonesia's inhabitants were divided politically in many different ways as a bewildering array of kingdoms and empires rose and fell within the region Since independence in 1945 one of the challenges Indonesia faces is constructing a unified national identity Through six chapters Drakeley discusses Indonesian history beginning with settlement and social development in 5 000 BCE through the Colonial Era the Independence Movement the Sukarno Era and the Soeharto Era to the 2004 elections Ideal for students and general readers the History of Indonesia is part of Greenwood's Histories of Modern Nations series With over thirty nation's histories in print these books provide readers with a concise up-to-date history of countries throughout the world Reference features include a biographical section highlighting famous figures in Indonesian history a timeline of important historical events a glossary of terms and a bibliographical essay with suggestions for further reading

Pretext for Mass Murder John Roosa, 2006-09-05 In the early morning hours of October 1 1965 a group calling itself the September 30th Movement kidnapped and executed six generals of the Indonesian army including its highest commander The group claimed that it was attempting to preempt a coup but it was quickly defeated as the senior surviving general Haji Mohammad Suharto drove the movement's partisans out of Jakarta Riding the crest of mass violence Suharto blamed the Communist Party of Indonesia for masterminding the movement and used the emergency as a pretext for gradually eroding President Sukarno's powers and installing himself as a ruler Imprisoning and killing hundreds of thousands of alleged communists over the next year Suharto remade the events of October 1 1965 into the central event of modern Indonesian history and the cornerstone of his thirty-two year dictatorship Despite its importance as a trigger for one of the twentieth century's worst cases of mass violence the September 30th Movement has remained shrouded in uncertainty Who actually masterminded it What did they hope to achieve Why did they fail so miserably And what was the movement's connection to international Cold War politics In Pretext for Mass Murder John Roosa draws on a wealth of new primary source material to suggest a solution to the mystery behind the movement and the enabling myth of Suharto's repressive regime His book is a remarkable feat of historical investigation Finalist Social Sciences Book Award the International Convention of Asian Scholars

Histories of Scale: Java, the Indies and Asia in the Imperial Age, 1820-1945. Military Trials of War Criminals in the Netherlands East Indies 1946-1949 Fred L. Borch, 2017-08-24 From 1946 to 1949 the Dutch prosecuted more than 1000 Japanese soldiers and civilians for war crimes committed during the occupation of the Netherlands East Indies during World War II They also prosecuted a small number of Dutch citizens for collaborating with their Japanese occupiers The war crimes committed by the Japanese against military personnel and civilians in the East Indies were horrific and included mass murder murder torture mistreatment of prisoners of war and enforced prostitution Beginning in 1946 the Dutch convened military tribunals in various locations in the East Indies to hear the evidence of these atrocities and imposed sentences ranging from months and years to death some 25 percent of those convicted were executed for their crimes The difficulty arising out of gathering evidence and conducting the trials was exacerbated by the on going guerrilla war between Dutch authorities and Indonesian revolutionaries and in fact the trials ended abruptly in 1949 when 300 years of Dutch colonial rule ended and Indonesia gained its independence Until the author began examining and analysing the records of trial from these cases no English language scholar had published a comprehensive study of these war crimes trials While the author looks at the war crimes prosecutions of the Japanese in detail this book also breaks new ground in exploring the prosecutions of Dutch citizens alleged to have collaborated with their Japanese occupiers Anyone with a general interest in World War II and the war in the Pacific or a specific interest in war crimes and international law will be interested in this book

A History of Modern Indonesia Adrian Vickers, 2013-03-25 Since the Bali bombings of 2002 and the rise of political Islam Indonesia has frequently occupied media headlines Nevertheless the history of the fourth largest country on earth remains relatively unknown Adrian Vickers book first published in 2005 traces the history of an island country comprising some 240 million people from the colonial period through revolution and independence to the present Framed around the life story of Pramoedya Ananta Toer Indonesia's most famous and controversial novelist and playwright the book journeys through the social and cultural mores of Indonesian society focusing on the experiences of ordinary people In this new edition the author brings the story up to date revisiting his argument as to why Indonesia has yet to realise its potential as a democratic country He also examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam which has haunted Indonesia since the fall of Suharto

Historical Dictionary of Indonesia Audrey Kahin, 2015-10-29 A wide flung archipelago lying between the Pacific and Indian Oceans Indonesia is the world's most populous Islamic country For over two thousand years it was a crossroads on the major trading route between China and India but it was not brought together into a single entity until the Dutch extended their rule throughout the Netherlands East Indies in the early part of the 20th century Declaring its independence from the Dutch in 1945 the Republic of Indonesia was ruled by only two regimes over the next half century Throughout the years the country has continued to be dogged by an inefficient bureaucracy and by perpetual problems of corruption However since 2004 Indonesia has successfully carried out four direct elections for president together with an equal number of elections for legislative bodies at all levels of government and has finally in 2014 elected a president with no ties to either the military or to the previous authoritarian power structure This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Indonesia contains a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Indonesia
