Combining transgender studies with the neomodernist architectures of the internationally renowned firm Diller Scofidio Renfro DS+R and with modernist writers Samuel Beckett and Virginia Woolf whose work anticipates that of transgender studies this book challenges the implicit spatial models of popular narratives of transgender interiority ownership sovereignty structure stability and domesticity to advance a novel theorization of transgender as a matter of exteriority groundlessness ornamentation and movement With case studies spanning the US and UK Transgender Architectonics examines the ways in which modernist architecture can contribute to our understanding of how it is that humans are able to transform shedding light on the manner in which architecture space and the spatial metaphors of gender can play significant if often unrealized potential roles in body and gender transformation By remedying both the absence of actual architecture in queer theory's discussions of space and also architectural theory's marginal treatment of transgender this volume constitutes a serious intervention in the field of queer space It draws on modernist literature in order to reckon with and rebuild the architectural ideas that already implicitly structure common understandings of the queer and transgender self As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in queer theory the body and transformation gender and sexuality modernist writing and architectural theory

Joan's Book Joan Littlewood, 2016-07-28 Once upon a time the London theatre was a charming mirror held up to cosiness Then came Joan Littlewood smashing the glass blasting the walls letting the wind of life blow in a rough but ready world Today we remember this irresistible force with love and gratitude Peter Brook Along with Peter Brook Joan Littlewood affectionately termed The Mother of Modern Theatre has come to be known as the most galvanising director of mid twentieth century Britain as well as a founder of so many of the practices of contemporary theatre The best known work of Littlewood s company Theatre Workshop included the development and premieres of Shelagh Delaney s A Taste of Honey Brendan Behan s The Hostage and The Quare Fellow and the seminal Oh What A Lovely War This autobiography originally published in 1994 offers an unparalleled first hand account of Littlewood s extraordinary life and career from illegitimate child in south east London to one of the most influential directors and practitioners of our times It is published along with an introduction by Philip Hedley CBE previously Artistic Director of Theatre Royal Stratford East and Assistant Director to Joan Littlewood

Current Encyclopedia, a Monthly Record of Human Progress ,1902 Birkbeck Word Association Norms Helen Moss, Lianne Older, 1996 This is a reference work containing free association norms for over 2000 words in the English language collected over the last eight years from groups of 40 50 British English speakers aged between 17 and 45 These norms provide the information that for example 67% of people give dog as the first word they think of in response to the word cat that 24% give the word society in response to the word pillar and given the name Michael 65% say Jackson whereas less than 5% say Heseltine or Caine These norms will be of use to researchers and students in many fields of psychology especially language and memory where the degree of association between pairs of words is often an important experimental variable The main part of the book contains an alphabetical list of all associative responses and their frequency for each of the 2464 stimulus words In addition there is an index of stimulus words organised according to semantic category to aid selection of experimental materials Full methodological details of the collection and compilation of the data are also provided in the introduction

Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Arts Ontario. Department of Agriculture, 1929 Annual Report of the Minister of Agriculture and Food Ontario. Dept. of Agriculture and Food, 1929 Wagner and the Erotic Impulse Laurence

Dreyfus,2010-12 Though his image is tarnished today by unrepentant anti-Semitism Richard Wagner 1813-1883 was better known in the nineteenth century for his provocative musical eroticism In this illuminating study of the composer and his works Laurence Dreyfus shows how Wagner's obsession with sexuality prefigured the composition of operas such as Tannhäuser Die Walküre Tristan und Isolde and Parsifal Daring to represent erotic stimulation passionate ecstasy and the torment of sexual desire Wagner sparked intense reactions from figures like Baudelaire Clara Schumann Nietzsche and Nordau whose verbal tributes and censures disclose what was transmitted when music represented sex Wagner himself saw the cultivation of an erotic high style as central to his art especially after devising an anti-philosophical response to Schopenhauer's metaphysics of sexual love A reluctant eroticist Wagner masked his personal compulsion to cross dress in pink satin and drench himself in rose perfumes while simultaneously incorporating his silk fetish and love of floral scents into his librettos His affection for dominant females and surprising regard for homosexual love likewise enable some striking portraits in his operas In the end Wagner's achievement was to have fashioned an oeuvre which explored his sexual yearnings as much as it conveyed as never before how music could act on erotic impulse
