of a Life Aharon Appelfeld, 2009-08-19 In spare haunting almost hallucinogenic prose the internationally acclaimed award winning novelist shares with us for the first time the story of his own extraordinary survival and rebirth Aharon Appelfeld's childhood ended when he was seven years old The Nazis occupied Czernowitz in 1941 penned the Jews into a ghetto and a few months later sent whoever had not been shot or starved to death on a forced march across the Ukraine to a labor camp As men women and children fall away around them Aharon and his father his mother was killed in the early days of the occupation miraculously survive and Aharon even more miraculously escapes from the camp shortly after he arrives there The next few years of Aharon's life are both harrowing and heartrending he hides alone in the Ukrainian forests from peasants who are only too happy to turn Jewish children over to the Nazis he has the presence of mind to pass himself off as an orphaned gentile when he emerges from the forest to seek work and at war's end he joins the stream of refugees as they cross Europe on their way to displaced persons camps that have been set up for the survivors He observes the full range of personalities in the camps exploitation exists side by side with compassion until he manages to get on a ship bound for Palestine Once there Aharon attempts to build a new life while struggling to retain the barely remembered fragments of his old life everyone urges him simply to forget what he had experienced and he takes his first tentative steps as a writer As he begins to receive national attention Aharon realizes his life's calling to bear witness to the unfathomable In this unforgettable work of memory Aharon Appelfeld offers personal glimpses into the experiences that resonate throughout his fiction High School Life, 1920 Henry the Hamster Hurries Home Kelly Johnson, 2025-07-25 In Henry the Hamster Hurries Home Henry awakens to find the door to his cage mysteriously left open and sets off on an unexpected adventure beyond the safety of his cozy home Enchanted by the scents and sights of the outside world Henry explores his house slips into the backyard and chases a butterfly into a dazzling unfamiliar garden As the day turns to night the once magical world becomes vast and intimidating and Henry begins to feel the pull of home Along the way he discovers a playground where he bravely crosses a giant spinning wheel testing his courage and determination Though the journey is filled with wonder and challenge Henry
