Sojourn With The Grand Sharif Of Makkah:

Sojourn with the Grand Sharif of Makkah Charles Didier, 1985 The Wahhabi Mission and Saudi Arabia David Commins, 2009-03-30 Wahhabism has been generating controversy since it first emerged in Arabia in the 18th century In the wake of September 11th instant theories have emerged that try to root Osama Bin Laden s attacks on Wahhabism Muslim critics have dismissed this conservative interpretation of Islam that is the official creed of Saudi Arabia as an unorthodox innovation that manipulated a suggestible people to gain political influence David Commins book questions this assumption He examines the debate on the nature of Wahhabism and offers original findings on its ascendance in Saudi Arabia and spread throughout other parts of the Muslim world such as Afghanistan and Pakistan He also assesses the challenge that radical militants within Saudi Arabia pose to the region and draws conclusions which will concern all those who follow events in the Kingdom The Wahhabi Mission and Saudi Arabia is an essential reading for anyone interested in the Middle East and Islamic radicalism today Songs of the Arabian Red Sea Dionisius A. Agius, Muhammad Zafer Alhazmi, Hasan Hujairi, 2025-07-24 Song and music have always played an important part in the cultural identity of the mariners and coastal peoples of the Red Sea While previous studies on the maritime culture of this region have focused on the sailing vessel the dhow and seafaring communities this is the first book to examine its rich musical repertoire Using fieldwork conducted along the Hijaz and Upper Tihama coasts The Songs of the Arabian Red Sea documents examples of different musical forms and styles as well as the stories of older mariners who describe the contexts in which songs were sung from sea shanties during the working day to soulful ballads about home and loved ones at night Presenting the songs and their lyrics in the context of the geography culture oral history and musicology of the region the book reveals the complex and connected network that influenced their development and the vital place of song and music for diverse communities of the region The History of Saudi Arabia Wayne H. Bowen, 2024-10-17 Build an understanding of a country undergoing dramatic and accelerating changes in this new edition of The History of Saudi Arabia Taking readers from the Saudi Arabia of pre Islamic times to the present day this revised edition in the Histories of Modern Nations series examines how the current efforts to transform the Kingdom fits into the long history of the region The Arabian Peninsula the birthplace of Islam has a long heritage of multiple intersecting civilizations In recent years major events in Saudi Arabia have left a mark not only within the region itself but also around the world The country continues to undergo significant developments as the government led by Crown Prince Muhammad bin Salman aims to end its reliance on fossil fuels and build a dynamic society without bringing into question its authoritarian political system national security structure and absolute monarchy Bring your knowledge up to date with revised information based on new findings and historiography on the political military religious economic and diplomatic history of the country In addition this book discusses events such as The rise of Muhammad bin Salman known as MBS as the new crown prince under his father King Salman who took the throne in 2015 Vision 2030 a set of reforms designed to create a revived society a robust economy and a more vital national state The Saudi intervention in Yemen as part of the new King's foreign policy Goals to diversify the economy from oil to tourism and biotechnology Reforms impacting the status of women and the roles of the religious police

Mecca F. E. Peters, 2017-03-14 For the non Muslim Mecca is the most forbidden of Holy Cities and yet in many ways it is the best known Muslim historians and geographers have studied it and countless pilgrims and travelers many of them European Christians in disguise have left behind lively and well publicized accounts of life in Mecca and its associated shrine city of Medina where the Prophet lies buried The stories of all these figures holy men and heathens alike come together in this book to offer a remarkably revealing literary portrait of the city's traditions and urban life and of the surrounding area Closely following the publication of F E Peters's The Hajj Princeton 1994 which describes the perilous pilgrimage itself from the travelers' perspectives this collection of writings and commentary completes the historical travelogue The accounts begin with the Muslims themselves in the patriarchal age of Abraham and Ishmael and trace the sometimes glorious and sometimes sad history of Islam's central shrine down to the last Grand Sharif of Mecca Husayn ibn Ali whose fragile kingdom was overtaken by the House of Saud in 1926 Because of chronic flooding and constant rebuilding there is little or no material evidence for the early history of Islam's holy cities By assembling analyzing and fashioning these literary accounts of Mecca however Peters supplies us with a vivid sense of place and human interaction much as he did in his widely acclaimed Jerusalem Princeton 1985 Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Mission and the Kingdom David Commins, 2016-09-29 In the wake of September 11th instant theories have emerged that try to root Osama Bin Laden's attacks on Wahhabism Muslim critics have dismissed this conservative interpretation of Islam that is the official creed of Saudi Arabia as an unorthodox innovation that manipulated a suggestible people to gain political influence David Commins' book questions this assumption He examines the debate on the nature of Wahhabism and offers original findings on its ascendance in Saudi Arabia and spread throughout other parts of the Muslim world such as Afghanistan and Pakistan He also assesses the challenge that radical militants within Saudi Arabia pose to the region and draws conclusions which will concern all those who follow events in the Kingdom The Wahhabi Mission and Saudi Arabia is essential reading for anyone interested in the Middle East and Islamic radicalism today

Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari'ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari'ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari'ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari'ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today's world Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari'ah As the world's second largest religion Islam remains an important force on the global stage Reasoning with God takes readers both Muslim and non Muslim beyond superficial understandings of Shari'ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential

Hajj Travelogues Richard van Leeuwen, 2024-06-03 In Hajj Travelogues Texts and Contexts from the 12th Century until 1950 Richard van Leeuwen maps the corpus of hajj accounts from the Muslim world and Europe The work outlines the main issues in a field of study which has largely been neglected A large number of hajj travelogues are described as a textual type integrating religious discourse into the form of the journey Special attention is given to their intertextual embedding in the broader discursive tradition of the hajj Since the corpus is seen as dynamic and responsive to historical developments the texts are situated in their historical context and the subsequent phases of globalisation It is shown how in travelogues forms of religious subjectivity are constructed and expressed Wahhabi Islam Natana J. Delong-Bas, 2008-08-22 Before 9 11 few Westerners had heard of Wahhabism Today it is a household word Frequently mentioned in association with Osama bin Laden Wahhabism is portrayed by the media and public officials as an intolerant puritanical militant interpretation of Islam that calls for the wholesale destruction of the West in a jihad of global proportions In the first study ever undertaken of the writings of Wahhabism's founder Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab 1702 1791 Natana DeLong Bas shatters these stereotypes and misconceptions Her reading of Ibn Abd al Wahhab's works produces a revisionist thesis Ibn Abd al Wahhab was not the godfather of contemporary terrorist movements Rather he was a voice of reform reflecting mainstream 18th century Islamic thought His vision of Islamic society was based upon a monotheism in which Muslims Christians and Jews were to enjoy peaceful co existence and cooperative commercial and treaty relations Eschewing medieval interpretations of the Quran and hadith sayings and deeds of the prophet Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab called for direct historically contextualized interpretation of scripture by both women and men His understanding of theology and Islamic law was rooted in Quranic values rather than literal interpretations A strong proponent of women's rights he called for a balance of rights between women and men both within marriage and in access to education and public space In the most comprehensive study of Ibn Abd al Wahhab's interpretation of jihad ever written DeLong Bas details a vision in which jihad is strictly limited to the self defense of the Muslim community against military aggression Contemporary extremists like Osama bin Laden do not have their origins in Wahhabism she shows The hallmark jihadi focus on a cult of martyrdom the strict division of the world into two necessarily opposing spheres the wholesale destruction of both civilian life and property and the call for global jihad are entirely absent from Ibn Abd al Wahhab's writings Instead the militant stance of contemporary jihadism lies in adherence to the writings of the medieval scholar Ibn Taymiyya and the 20th century Egyptian radical Sayyid Qutb This pathbreaking book fills an enormous gap in the literature about Wahhabism by returning to the original writings of its founder Bound to be controversial it will be impossible to ignore Cradle of Islam Mai Yamani,2009-08-21 Is Saudi Arabia really a homogeneous Wahhabi dominated state In 1932 the Al Saud family incorporated the kingdom of Hijaz once the cultural hub of the Arabian world in to the kingdom of Saudi Arabia The urban cosmopolitan Hijazis were absorbed in to a new state whose codes of behavior and rules were determined by the Najdis an ascetic desert people from whom the Al Saud family came But the Saudi rulers failed to fully integrate the Hijaz which retains a distinctive identity to this day In Cradle of Islam the product of years spent in Mecca Medina Jeddah and Taif Mai Yamani traces the fortunes of the distinctive and resilient culture of the Hijazis from the golden age of Hashemite Mecca to Saudi domination to its current resurgence The Hijazis today emphasise their regional heritage in religious ritual food dress and language as a response to the Najdification of everyday life The Hijazi experience shows the vitality of cultural diversity in the face of political repression in the Arab world Traveling through Sinai Deborah Manley,Sahar Abdel-Hakim,2009-03-01 Sinai has long attracted travelers to its ancient caravan routes and haunting landscapes and visitors have frequently left written accounts of their experiences In this wide ranging anthology Deborah Manley and Sahar Abdel Hakim have collected dozens of accounts and observations from travelers who have written about Sinai its people its sights and its historical and biblical landmarks Starting with Egeria a fourth century Christian who relates her visit to Mt Sinai and the Burning Bush Traveling through Sinai offers a diverse collection of voices over the centuries Among them are the German friar Felix Fabri who visited in 1492 and nineteenth century antiquarian William Flinders Petrie giving his impressions of the Bedouins of the peninsula French novelist Alexandre Dumas writes of meeting two monks in the desert carrying a letter signed by Napoleon while others describe crossing the canal at Suez the ancient inscriptions of Wadi Mukattab and the harrowing experiences of desert travel Race and Slavery in the Middle East Terence Walz,Kenneth M. Cuno,2010-11-01 In the nineteenth century hundreds of thousands of Africans were forcibly migrated northward to Egypt and other eastern Mediterranean destinations yet relatively little is known about them Studies have focused mainly on the mamluk and harem slaves of elite households who were mostly white and on abolitionist efforts to end the slave trade and most have relied heavily on western language sources In the past forty years new sources have become available ranging from Egyptian religious and civil court and police records to rediscovered archives and accounts in western archives and libraries Along with new developments in the study of African slavery these sources provide a perspective on the lives of non elite trans Saharan Africans in nineteenth century Egypt and beyond The nine essays in this volume examine the lives of slaves and freed men and women in Egypt and the region Contributors Kenneth M Cuno Y Hakan Erdem Michael Ferguson Emad Ahmad Helal Shams al Din Liat Kozma George Michael La Rue Ahmad A Sikainga Eve M Troutt Powell and Terence Walz Urban Violence in the Middle East Ulrike Freitag,Nelida Fuccaro,Claudia Ghrawi,Nora Lafi,2015-03-01 Covering a period from the late eighteenth century to today this volume explores the phenomenon of urban violence in order to unveil general developments and historical specificities in a variety of Middle Eastern contexts By situating incidents in particular processes and conflicts the case studies seek to counter notions of a violent Middle East in order to foster a new understanding of violence beyond that of a meaningless and destructive social and political act Contributions explore processes sparked by the transition from empires Ottoman and Qajar but also European to the formation of nation states and the resulting changes in cityscapes throughout the region
