Sojourners And Settlers Histories Of Southeast Asia And The Chinese:

Sojourners and Settlers Anthony Reid, 2001-04-01 Only recently has the role of Chinese minorities at the forefront of Southeast Asia's rapid economic growth attracted world attention. Yet interactions between Chinese and Southeast Asians are longstanding and intense, reaching back a thousand years and making it difficult if not specious to attempt to disentangle what is Chinese and what is indigenous in much of Southeast Asian culture. Sojourners and Settlers now back in print, written by some of the most distinguished specialists in the field, demonstrates the depth of that relationship. Contributors: Leonard Blussé, Mary Somers Heidhues, Jamie C. Mackie, Anthony Reid, Craig Reynolds, Claudine Salmon, G. William Skinner, Wang Gungwu, O. W. Wolters. Sojourners and Settlers Anthony Reid, 1996. Sojourners and Settlers Asian Studies Association of Australia, 1996-01-01 Only recently has the role of Chinese and Sino Southeast Asian minorities in leading Southeast Asia's rapid economic growth attracted world attention. Yet the interaction of Chinese and Southeast Asians reaches back a thousand years at a level of intensity which makes it difficult if not specious to attempt to disentangle what is Chinese and what is indigenous in much of Southeast Asian culture. This book demonstrates the depth of that relationship. Ten of the most distinguished specialists in the field pool their expertise in considering the multiple ways in which Chinese have interacted with the region. Jamie Mackie sets the scene in a survey of the Southeast Asian Chinese, particularly during the last fifty years. Wang Gungwu considers their history in terms of the concept of sojourning, while Anthony Reid considers the oscillating pattern of interaction from the thirteenth century to the twentieth, giving rise to new Sino Southeast Asian elites in times of mutual isolation and to a more Chinese character at times of close contact. G. William Skinner provides a new explanation of why stable Sino Southeast Asian creole societies were able to exist throughout the nineteenth century in Malaya, the Philippines, and Java. Claudine Salmon shows how one of these groups, the peranakan of Java, coped with pressures to become more Chinese in the second half of the nineteenth century. Oliver Wolters and Craig Reynolds reflect upon the difficulty of disentangling the two cultures in Vietnam and Thailand, respectively. Leonard Blussé reveals new Chinese sources on the junk trade with Java, while Mary Somers Heidhues surveys the neglected but numerous Chinese rural settlers in the arc around Singapore. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia John H. Walker, Glenn Banks, Minako Sakai, 2009-01-01 The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia is a thought-provoking examination of local politics and the dynamics of power at Indonesia's geographic and social margins. After the fall of Suharto in 1998 and the introduction of a policy of decentralization in 2001, local stakeholders secured and consolidated decision-making power and set about negotiating new relations with Jakarta. The volume deals with power struggles and local national tensions, looking among other things at resource control, the historical roots of regional identity politics, and issues relating to Chinese Indonesians. The authors develop information in ways that transcend the post-colonial territorial boundaries of Indonesia in the Malay Indonesian archipelago and use case studies to show how the changes described have galvanized Indonesian politics at the cultural and geographical peripheries A Companion to Chinese History Michael Szonyi,2017-02-06 A Companion to Chinese History presents a collection of essays offering a comprehensive overview of the latest intellectual developments in the study of China s history from the ancient past up until the present day Covers the major trends in the study of Chinese history from antiquity to the present day Considers the latest scholarship of historians working in China and around the world Explores a variety of long range questions and themes which serves to bridge the conventional divide between China s traditional and modern eras Addresses China s connections with other nations and regions and enables non specialists to make comparisons with their own fields Features discussion of traditional topics and chronological approaches as well as newer themes such as Chinese history in relation to sexuality national identity and the environment The Chinese Diaspora Laurence J. C. Ma,Carolyn L. Cartier,2003 In this first book to explore the Chinese diaspora from geographical perspectives leading scholars in the field consider the profound importance of meanings of place and the spatial processes of mobility and settlement for the Chinese overseas They trace the Chinese diaspora everywhere it has become a significant force from Southeast Asia to Oceania North America Latin America and Europe Providing an important historical perspective the contributors analyze the sharp differences between sojourning Chinese prior to the 1960s and the transnational Chinese of the current era especially in terms of spatial distribution mobility economic status occupational structure and identity formation Anyone interested in the powerful phenomenon of Chinese migration will find this comprehensive work an invaluable resource Silk Road to Belt Road Md. Nazrul Islam,2018-11-30 This volume approaches China s Belt and Road Initiative as a process of culturalization one that started with the Silk Road and continued over the millennium In mainstream literature the Belt and Road Initiative BRI has been portrayed as the geo economic vision and geo political ambition of China s current leaders intended to shape the future of the world However this volume argues that although geo politics and geo economy may play their part the BRI more importantly creates a venue for the meeting of cultures by promoting people to people interaction and exchange This volume explores the journey from the Silk Road to Belt Road by analyzing topics ranging from history to religion from language to culture and from environment to health As such scholars academics researchers undergraduate and graduate students from the Humanities Social Sciences and Business will find an alternative approach to the Belt and Road Initiative

Social Transformations in Chinese Societies Yanjie Bian,Kwok-bun Chan,Tak-sing Cheung,2006-06-01 Social Transformations in Chinese Societies is the official annual of The Hong Kong Sociological Association It publishes articles of original research that addresses theoretical methodological or substantive issues of sociological significance about or related to social transformations in Chinese societies The focus is mainly on Hong Kong Taiwan the mainland Singapore and Chinese overseas Review essays of exceptionally high quality are also welcome Chinese Indonesians Tim Lindsey,Helen Pausacker,2005 This volume honours and reflects on the life and work of the Australian Indonesianist Charles A Coppel His interests reflected in this volume are broad ranging from history politics legal issues and violence against the Chinese through to culture and religion The chapters in the volume contributed by scholars from Australia Indonesia Europe and Singapore also all reflect a theme inspired by Charles Coppel's expression remembering distorting forgetting by which he drew attention to misrepresentations of the Chinese seeking to locate the realities behind the myths that form the basis for the racism and xenophobia the Chinese have often experienced in Indonesia

Alternative Representations of the Past Ying-Kit Chan, Fei Chen, 2020-11-23 The relationship between the Chinese nation and its recent past has been fraught with contradictions and tensions This collection aims to make sense of this complex relationship and challenge the prevalent state centric and nation centric modes of history writing on modern China It explores alternative representations of the past and the salience of political conflicts and competitive histories in China highlighting the paradoxical similarities in such representations of the past from the late nineteenth century to the present Ultimately this book contributes to the ongoing discussion on the politics of interpreting the past and its many manifestations in both China and other societies This volume will contribute to the scholarly debate on the use of the past in national history Tze ki Hon City University of Hong Kong

Alternative Representations of the Past presents a collection of essays that critically examine the ways in which the contradicting and contested enterprise of history has been politicized in China As memory is past made present the meticulous re evaluation of Chinese history by the contributors of this volume promises to offer readers valuable insights into contemporary China Chang Yau Hoon Associate Professor and Director Centre for Advanced Research Universiti Brunei Darussalam

The Chinese Question Caroline S. Hau, 2014-02-28 The rising strength of mainland China has spurred a revival of Chineseness in the Philippines Perceived during the Cold War era as economically dominant political disloyal and culturally different the Chinese presented themselves as an integral part of the Filipino imagined community Today as Filipinos seek associations with China many of them see the local Chinese community as key players in East Asian regional economic development With the revaluing of Chineseness has come a repositioning of Chinese racial and cultural identity Philippine mestizos people of mixed ancestry form an important sub group of the Filipino elite but their Chineseness was occluded as they disappeared into the emergent Filipino nation In the twentieth century mestizos defined themselves and based claims to privilege on white ancestry but mestizos are now actively reclaiming their Chinese heritage At the same time so called pure Chinese are parlaying their connections into cultural social symbolic or economic capital and leaders of mainland Chinese state companies have entered into politico business alliances with the Filipino national elite As the meanings of Chinese and Filipino evolve intractable contradictions are appearing in the concepts of citizenship and national belonging Through an examination of cinematic and literary works The Chinese Question shows how race class ideology nationality territory sovereignty and mobility are shaping the discourses of national integration regional identification and global cosmopolitanism

Diasporic Chinese Ventures GREGOR BENTON, Hong Liu, 2004-07-31 This collection of essays by and about Wang Gungwu brings together some of Wang's most recent and representative writing about the ethnic Chinese outside China giving the reader a deeper understanding of his views on migration identity nationalism and culture all key issues in modern Asia's transformation The book collects interviews speeches and essays that illustrate the development and direction of Wang's scholarship on ethnic and diasporic Chinese Chinese Indonesians and Regime Change Marleen Dieleman, Juliette Koning, Peter Post, 2010-11-12 By taking regime change as its main theme this book offers a new perspective on the multiple roles that Chinese Indonesians played in terms of shaping moderating and stimulating social change in Indonesia

Transtopia in the Sinophone Pacific Howard Chiang, 2021-04-06 As a broad category of identity transgender has given life to a vibrant field of academic research since the 1990s Yet the Western origins of the field have tended to limit its cross cultural scope Howard Chiang proposes a new paradigm for doing transgender history in which geopolitics assumes central importance Defined as the antidote to transphobia transtopia challenges a minoritarian view of transgender experience and makes room for the variability of transness on a historical continuum Against the backdrop of the Sinophone Pacific Chiang argues that the concept of transgender identity must be rethought beyond a purely Western frame At the same time he challenges China centrism in the study of East Asian gender and sexual configurations Chiang brings Sinophone studies to bear on trans theory to deconstruct the ways in which sexual normativity and Chinese imperialism have been produced through one another Grounded in an eclectic range of sources from the archives of sexology to press reports of intersexuality films about castration and records of social activism this book reorients anti transphobic inquiry at the crossroads of area studies medical humanities and queer theory Timely and provocative Transtopia in the Sinophone Pacific highlights the urgency of interdisciplinary knowledge in debates over the promise and future of human diversity

Chinese Among Others Philip A. Kuhn, 2008-03-27 This book tells the remarkable worldwide story of Chinese emigration since the sixteenth century a process that is integral to the history of state and society in China Distinguished historian Philip A Kuhn explores the creative opportunism that has allowed Chinese migrants to adapt to different environments around the world The various human ecologies they confronted presented Chinese settlers with diverse challenges and opportunities in the colonial and postcolonial states of Southeast Asia in the settler societies of the Americas and Australasia and in Europe And post revolutionary China today presents fresh opportunities for emigrants to leverage their expatriate status to do business with a homeland eager for their investments donations and technologies Chinese Indentured Labour in the Dutch East Indies, 1880-1942 Gregor Benton, 2022-09-19 This book offers a comprehensive account of indentured Chinese labour in the Dutch East Indies between 1880 and 1942 particularly in its twilight years after 1917 The author shows that Chinese indenture started and evolved differently from other forms of bonded labour in Southeast Asia and globally including its Indian and Javanese variants This difference is reflected in its lexicon which was in part special to the Chinese strain Using fieldwork findings from the tin islands of Bangka and Belitung and the Deli plantations on Sumatra as well as archival materials in Dutch Chinese and other languages held in libraries in Java Nanjing Taipei Hong Kong and Leiden this book presents cutting edge research that sets out to contribute to the revising of our historical understanding of indenture

Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Diaspora Chee-Beng Tan, 2013 With around 30 million migrants worldwide the ethnic Chinese and the Chinese in diaspora form the largest diaspora in the world The economic reform of China in the late 1970s marked a huge phase of migration from China and the new migrants have had a major impact on the local societies including the ethnic Chinese and on China The transnational networks between the Chinese in diaspora and China have become even more significant as China has emerged as an economic world power
