Shropshire's Military Heritage John Shipley,2018-02-15 The picturesque county of Shropshire one of the country's least populated areas has a fascinating military history It was here that the Battle of Shrewsbury took place in 1403 the first battle in which English archers were pitted against each other on English soil The battle was celebrated by Shakespeare in Henry IV Part I The county was a central part of the Welsh Marches during the medieval period and was often embroiled in the power struggles between powerful Marcher Lords the Earls of March and successive monarchs Shropshire is home to many castles built to defend against the Welsh and enable effective control of the region From the mid eighteenth century Shropshire's military heritage has been linked to two regular regiments of the British Army the 53rd and the 85th Regiments of Foot They came together in the late 1880s to form the King's Shropshire Light Infantry KSLI the county's own regiment Soldiers of the KSLI together with the volunteer Shropshire Yeomanry served with great distinction in the two world wars In this book author John Shipley peels back the ravages of time as he explores the military heritage of this historic county

Index-catalogue of the reference department: local section. With list of MSS. Shrewsbury publ. libr,1903 The Soldier Experience in the Fourteenth Century Anne Curry,Andy King,David Simpkin,2011 Essays throwing fresh light on what it was like to be a medieval soldier drawing on archival research The long fourteenth century saw England fighting wars on a number of diverse fronts not just abroad in the Hundred Years War but closer to home But while tactics battles and logistics have been frequently discussed the actual experience of being a soldier has been less often studied Via a careful re-evaluation of original sources and the use of innovative methodological techniques such as statistical analysis and the use of relational databases the essays here bring new insights to bear on soldiers both as individuals and as groups Topics addressed include military service and the dynamics of recruitment the social composition of the armies the question of whether soldiers saw their role as a profession and the experience of prisoners of war Contributors Andrew Ayton David Simpkin Andrew Spencer David Bachrach Iain MacInnes Adam Chapman Michael Jones Guilhem Pepin Remy Ambuhl Adrian R Bell A. E. Housman Philip Gardner,2024-11-01 First published in 1992 A E Housman The Critical Heritage brings together the most important and significant critical response to the poetry of A E Housman from the time of his writing to 1951 It contains ninety four items articles reviews and comments which provide an accurate picture of how Housman the poet was seen during his lifetime and for some years beyond it The picture which emerges is of a poet not only of popular appeal but of great literary distinction who was admired by the majority of reviewers and critics who discussed his work Among those quoted are J B Priestley Edmund Gosse Cyril Connolly T S Eliot George Orwell Cleanth Brooke Stephen Spender John Sparrow and E M Forster Shropshire's Military Heritage John Shipley,2018-02-15 In this book author John

Keates, Patricia Pulham, 2015-10-14 This volume marks the first sustained study to interrogate how and why issues of sexuality desire and economic processes intersect in the literature and culture of the Victorian fin de siècle At the end of the nineteenth century the move towards new models of economic thought marked the transition from a marketplace centred around the fulfilment of needs to one ministering to anything that might potentially be desired This collection considers how the literature of the period meditates on the interaction between economy and desire doing so with particular reference to the themes of fetishism homoeroticism the literary marketplace social hierarchy and consumer culture Drawing on theoretical and conceptual approaches including queer theory feminist theory and gift theory contributors offer original analyses of work by canonical and lesser known writers including Oscar Wilde A E Housman Baron Corvo Vernon Lee Michael Field and Lucas Malet The collection builds on recent critical developments in fin de siècle literature including major interventions in the areas of Decadence sexuality and gender studies and asks for instance how did late nineteenth century writing schematise the libidinal and somatic dimensions of economic exchange How might we define the relationship between eroticism and the formal economies of literary production performance And what relation exists between advertising consumer culture and dissident sexuality in fin de siècle literary discourses This book marks an important contribution to 19th Century and Victorian literary studies and enhances the field of fin de siècle studies more generally

Men of Color to Arms!: Black Soldiers, Indian Wars, and the Quest for Equality Elizabeth D. Leonard, 2010-08-23 Framed by Appomattox in 1865 and the Chicago World's Fair in 1893 packed with individuals' stories, details of battles fought and descriptions of army life. Men of Color to Arms examines black soldiers' contributions to America's post-Civil War expansion and consolidation and sheds light on the myriad obstacles the Buffalo Soldiers faced. Publisher Ireland's War of Independence 1919-21 Lorcan Collins, 2019-05-27 An accessible overview of Ireland's War of Independence 1919-21. From the first shooting of RIC constables in Soloheadbeg, Co. Tipperary on 21 January 1919 to the truce in July 1921, the IRA carried out a huge range of attacks on all levels of British rule in Ireland. There are stories of humanity such as the British soldiers who helped three IRA men escape from prison or the members of the British Army who mutinied in India after hearing about the reprisals being carried out by the Black and Tans in Ireland. The hundreds of thousands of people who celebrated the Centenary of the 1916 Rising with pride and joy are the same people who will appreciate the story of the Irish Republicans who battled against all odds in the next phase of the fight for Ireland between 1919 and 1921.
