Soledad Del Manager La:

La soledad del manager Manuel Vázquez Montalbán, 2013-01-22 Un hombre aparece muerto con unas bragas de mujer en el bolsillo La viuda encarga la investigación del caso a un huelebragueta gallego un detective privado de complejo pasado Lo que parec a ser un ajuste de cuentas sexual se convierte en un ajuste de cuentas político que tiene como fondo la sociedad española a medio camino entre la muerte de Franco y el intento de consolidación democrática Carvalho trata de compensar sus angustias e inhibiciones guisando un salmís de pato a las dos de la madrugada o haciendo el amor con la pasividad de un animal caliente pero escptico

The Spanish Sleuth Patricia Hart, 1987 A history of Spanish detective fiction from Alarcón's El clavo published twelve years after Poe's Murders in the Rue Morgue up to the present The presentation of the highly entertaining sleuth characters is based on a detailed examination of the works and in many cases personal interviews with the writers

Transatlantic Mysteries William J. Nichols, 2011 Transatlantic Mysteries presents a comparative study that brings together authors Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Manuel Vázquez Montalbán from two specific political contexts post 1968 Mexico and post Franco Spain who both work in one specific genre noir detective fiction In this so called age of globalization Spain and Mexico have witnessed an explosion in the production of noir detective fiction which these authors choose purposefully in order to infiltrate the market with formulaic popular literature while simultaneously critiquing the effects of the neoliberal strategies embraced by their countries By locating themselves at the crossroads where literature meets the market they not only underscore the effects of capital on literary and cultural production but also explore the possibility for their writing to resist the influences of capital and question the role of an intellectual in an era of globalization At the core of their writing Taibo and Vázquez Montalbán examine the revolutionary possibilities of literature and popular culture to offer a new kind of Marxist project that revitalizes the Left by redefining the role of socially engaged literature in a globalized landscape

Crime Scenes, 2021-11-01 The essays in this collection are based on papers given at a conference on detective fiction in European culture held at the University of Exeter in September 1997 The range of topics covered is designed to show not only the presence and variety of narratives of detection across different European countries and their different media although there is a predictable emphasis on the novel It also illustrates the fertility of the genre its openness to a spectrum of readings with different emphases formal as well as thematic Approaches to detective fiction have often tended to confine themselves to symptomatic interpretation where details of the fictional world represented are used to diagnose a specific set of social preoccupations and priorities operative at the time of writing Such approaches can yield valuable insights Nonetheless there is a risk of limiting the value of the genre as a whole solely to its role as a mirror held up to society In this perspective issues of structure and style are sidelined or if addressed are praised to the extent that they approach invisibility concision sparseness realism are the qualities singled out for praise The genre also gives much scope for formal innovation and indeed has often attracted already established mainstream writers and filmmakers for just this reason

The eclectic diversity of the detective narratives considered in this volume reveal the malleability of the traditional constraints of the genre. The essays bear rich testimony to the value of considering the interplay of thematic and structural issues even in the most apparently unselfconscious and popular or populist forms of narrative. The patterns of reassurance, the triumph of intellect and the ordered rational world of old are now challenged by the need to foreground the problems, ambiguities and uncertainties of the self and of society. The plurality of meanings and the antithetical imperatives explored in these detective narratives confirm that the most recent forms of the genre are not mere palimpsests of their golden age precursors. The subversion of traditional expectations and the implementation of diverse stylistic devices take the genre beyond mere homage and pastiche. The role of the reader, spectator and critic in conferring meaning is a crucial one.

Murder in the Multinational State Stewart King, 2019-05-23. As Spaniards set out to transform the political, social and cultural landscape of the nation following the death of dictator Francisco Franco in 1975, its crime fiction traces challenges and celebrates these radical changes. Crime Fiction from Spain: Murder in the Multinational State provides a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between detective fiction and national and cultural identities in post-Franco democratic Spain. What sort of stories are told about the nation within the state in the crime genre? How do the conventions of the crime story shape not only the production of national and cultural identities but also their disruption? Combining criminological theories of crime and community with an analysis of the genre's conventions, this study challenges the simple classification of Spanish crime fiction as texts written by Spaniards set in Spain and with Spanish characters. Instead, it develops a dramatic new reading practice which allows for a greater understanding of the role of crime fiction in the construction and articulation of different and at times competing national and cultural identities including in the Basque Country, Catalonia and Galicia. The book provides a stimulating introduction to the key debates on the study of crime fiction and national and cultural identities in the context of a multinational state.

Beyond Borders Pekka Kujamäki, Hannu Kemppanen, Leena Kolehmainen, Esa Penttilä, 2011-01-01. This volume is a collection of articles presented at the conference Translation Studies Moving In Moving On in Joensuu, Finland, December 2009. The papers deal with the question of how and under what circumstances target cultures accept or reject concepts, ideas or linguistic features that cross cultural and linguistic borders through translation. The discussions rely on varying empirical data including advertisements, audiovisual translations, encyclopedias as well as translations of literary prose, drama and history texts. As the multiplicity of the data implies, the methodologies used also vary widely from corpus linguistic methods to analysis of paratexts and from crosslinguistic analysis of source and target texts to contextualization of target texts in their respective target cultures. The target cultures and languages dealt with in the articles include Catalan, Chinese, Czech, Dutch, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Russian and Spanish. Hannu Kemppanen and Pekka Kujamäki are professors in Foreign Languages and Translation Studies at the University of Eastern Finland, Joensuu. Leena Kolehmainen and Esa Penttilä work as postdoctoral research fellows at the same department. A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent, 2008 The Spanish novel in a turbulent century This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political cultural and ideological history It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant Garde to the Postmodern age While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers others are of a broader nature grouping lesser known writers under certain literary tendencies the metaphysical novel the urban novel recuperative accounts of the Civil War feminine first person narrations and the rise of the popular detective historical and erotic novels Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan Basque and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction are not forgotten The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology while all titles and quotations are translated into English Contributors Marta E Altisent Katarzyna Olga Beilin Ram n Buckley Jos F Colmeiro Stacey Dolgin Casado Sebastiaan Faber David K Herzberger Carlos Alex Longhurst Kathleen N March Cristina Mart nez Carazo Alfredo Mart nez Exp sito Nina L Molinaro Gonzalo Navajas Mari Jose Olaziregi Janet D P rez Randolph D Pope Josep Miquel Sobrer H Rosi Song Introducción a la lectura de la obra narrativa de Manuel Vázquez Montalbán Angel Díaz Arenas, 1995

Investigating Identities, 2009-01-01 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Detective Fiction Renée W. Craig-Odders, Jacky Collins, Glen S. Close, 2006-03-20 The image of the hard boiled private investigator from gritty pulp fiction a terse and mysterious figure has become increasingly universal as the detective novel crosses more and more borders A booming genre in Latin America Spain and other Hispanic cultures detective fiction has transcended the limitations of its influences Hispanic authors relatively new to the genre have published novels and series popular with the public while a number of well known writers have adapted the genre to reflect the concurrent globalization of modern society and the crimes within it This volume presents a compilation of 11 critical essays on genero negro contemporary detective fiction in the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian canon Surveying the last twenty years the text analyzes emerging trends in this rapidly evolving genre as well as the mutations and innovations taking place within the style The first section of the book is dedicated to the detective fiction of Spain and Portugal The second section surveys works from Latin America and the United States where topics touch on universal subjects like crime identity and feminism
