Au Coeur Du Mot Philippe Apeloig, 2001 Philippe Apeloig 1962 has established his reputation in the international poster scene since the end of the 1980s with works of a rare constant quality and an unerring sense for what it takes to design a poster His work above all that with an explicitly cultural content is well represented in the major collections Numerous exhibitions awards and membership of juries have consolidated his international reputation The publication contains an overview of his work for the first time Surrealism and Women Mary Ann Caws, Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Gwen Raaberg, 1991-03-13 These sixteen illustrated essays present an important revision of surrealism by focusing on the works of women surrealists and their strategies to assert positions as creative subjects within a movement that regarded woman primarily as an object of masculine desire or fear While the male surrealists attacked aspects of the bourgeois order they reinforced the traditional patriarchal image of woman Their emphasis on dreams automatic writing and the unconscious reveal some of the least inhibited masculine fantasies The first resistance to the male surrealists projection of the female figure arose in the writings and paintings of marginalized woman artists and writers associated with Surrealism The essays in this collection explore the complexity of these women s works which simultaneously employ and subvert the dominant discourse of male surrealists Essays What Do Little Girls Dream Of The Insurgent Writing of Gis le Prassinós Finding What You Are Not Looking For From D jeuner en fourrure to Caroline Meret Oppenheim s Chronicle of Surrealism Speaking with Forked Tongues Male Discourse in Female Surrealism Androgyny Interview with Meret Oppenheim The Body Subversive Corporeal Imagery in Carrington Prassinós and Mansour Identity Crises Joyce Mansour s Narratives Joyce Mansour and Egyptian Mythology In the Interim The Constructivist Surrealism of Kay Sage The Flight from Passion in Leonora Carrington s Literary Work Beauty and Is the Beast Animal Symbology in the Work of Leonora Carrington Remedio Varo and Leonor Fini Valentine Andr Paul et les autres or the Surrealization of Valentine Hugo Refashioning the World to the Image of Female Desire The Collages of Aube Ell ou t Eileen Agar Statement by Dorothea Tanning Reimagining Resistance in Gisèle Pineau's Works Lisa Connell, Delphine Gras, 2022-10-20 As one of the most prominent voices from and about the French Caribbean Gis le Pineau has garnered significant scholarly attention however this interest has culminated in precious few volumes devoted entirely to the author and her work In response to this lack of in depth critical attention Reimagining Resistance in Gis le Pineau s Works brings together a range of perspectives from both sides of the Atlantic and across the Pacific to explore the unique ways in which Gis le Pineau s works redefine the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to gender race history and Antillean identity As this volume ultimately demonstrates resistance holds up a mirror to the political economic and cultural forces that have shaped the past construct the present and build the future It argues that Pineau s characters open the narrative frame for reading them and move us beyond the categories of the wholly defiant or the inherently complicit Above all as they invite us to reimagine resistance they expose our expectations and hopefully shift our understanding about what it means to rise and to fall in a world we seek to call our own The style of Nerval's "Aurélia" William Beauchamp, 2019-05-20 No detailed description available for The style of Nerval s Aur lia Nerval. Masques et visage Jean Guillaume, Jean-Louis Pr  at, G  rard de Nerval, 1988 Transpositions Alison Rice, 2021-10-15 This publication benefited from the support of the Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts at the University of Notre Dame

This collective volume concentrates on the concept of transposition exploring its potential as a lens through which to examine recent Francophone literary cinematic theatrical musical and artistic creations that reveal multilingual and multicultural realities The chapters are composed by leading scholars in French and Francophone Studies who engage in interdisciplinary reflections on the ways transcontinental movement has influenced diverse genres It begins with the premise that an attentiveness to migration has inspired writers artists filmmakers playwrights and musicians to engage in new forms of translation in their work Their own diverse backgrounds combine with their awareness of the itineraries of others to have an impact on the innovative languages that emerge in their creative production These contemporary figures realize that migratory actualities must be transposed into different linguistic and cultural contexts in order to be legible and audible in order to be perceptible either for the reader the listener or the viewer The novels films plays works of art and musical pieces that exemplify such transpositions adopt inventive elements that push the limits of formal composition in French This work is therefore often inspiring as it points in evocative ways toward fluid influences and a plurality of interactions that render impossible any static conception of being or belonging

Subjects of Terror, 1998-12 Subjects of Terror uses a reading of the French Romantic poet Gérard de Nerval to elucidate and critique a death based ideology of subjectivity that has remained in force from Kant to Lacan This model despite variations is distinguished by three principal characteristics that the subject is the self sameness of individual experience that as such it functions like language or more specifically like writing and that this self sameness is the annihilation of all individual experiences Theorized by Hegel Heidegger Kojve and Lacan this abstract and ultimately impersonal notion of the self was not merely theoretical however It was for example long instantiated and enforced by the guillotine Even in its more intimate and less spectacular forms it provoked strong affective responses as is evidenced by writers of the Romantic period from Hugo to Mallarmé Zola and Nietzsche As part of this affective reaction Nerval's writings exemplify not only how this negative self construction determines self understanding but also how it determines self experience or in other words the way it feels to be a self in this cultural and historical context That feeling is fundamentally terror and the context is still in many ways our own The book demonstrates that Nerval's works constitute an aesthetic resistance to that ideology of terror and as such helped open the way for the ethical models of subjectivity that will appear in Kristeva Aulagnier and Levinas Although for two centuries social theoretical and aesthetic forces have coerced individuals into experiencing the world through the morbid filter of their own absolute destruction the author argues through Nerval for the possibility of an alternate open ended model of experience based on the libidinalization of language itself

Landscapes of Desire in the Poetry of Vittorio Sereni Francesca Southerden, 2012-01-12 This is the first book length study in English on Vittorio Sereni 1913-83 a major figure in Italian 20th century poetry It argues that a key innovation of Sereni's poetry is the way in which it reworks the boundaries of poetic space to construct a lyric I radically repositioned in the textual universe with respect to its predecessors
