Serial and Mass Murder Elizabeth A. Gurian,2021-09-30 This book reframes the study of multicide that is serial and mass murder to use objective measures and aims to expand our understanding of multicide offending through descriptive and inferential statistical analyses of different homicide patterns of the offenders Criminal homicide and multiple murders are rare occurrences that typically account for a very small percentage of all violent crimes in most countries Despite this low occurrence homicide continues to be an area of intense study with a focus on subjective measures and classifications The research and analysis based on a database of over 1 300 cases contributes to the criminological study of violence and draws distinctions between the types of offenders partnered and solo serial and mass male and female etc from a range of different countries and across decades Traditionally studies of homicide focus on male offenders and theories of offending are then applied to females and co offenders The research presented in this book reveals that women and partnered offenders have very different homicide patterns from men Looking at the history of multicide offending this book uses descriptive and

inferential statistical analyses to directly compare differences in offending and outcome patterns across multicide offender types This exploration of the multidimensionality of homicide at an international level is useful for scholars and students interested in criminal justice criminology psychology sociology or law     Eyes of the Slain Woman Kwakye, Benjamin, 2015-03-12 This is a collection of three novellas that each explore grief and the tenacity of the human spirit In Echoes of Hungry Blood Solo a disenchanted doctor leaves his practice in the city to work in a small town where he is presented with the challenge of caring for those who have committed crimes against his family His decision has severe ramifications that lead to regret and eventual deliverance In The Last Next Solo returns to the city and remarries His new wife is soon diagnosed with a terminal illness Unable to cope with the pain she asks him to euthanize her His agreement and the ensuing trial and conviction for murder become a journey of growth and redemption Eyes of the Slain Woman narrates the harrowing experiences of Ma Ebo a long widowed woman following the murder of her son Through the prodding of a friend she is persuaded to visit her son s murderer in prison and in the process find healing and the liberation of forgiveness
