Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, R.R. Bowker Company. Publications Systems Department, 1983 Race Mixture in Nineteenth-Century U.S. and Spanish American Fictions Debra J. Rosenthal, 2005-10-12 Race mixture has played a formative role in the history of the Americas from the western expansion of the United States to the political consolidation of emerging nations in Latin America Debra J Rosenthal examines nineteenth century authors in the United States and Spanish America who struggled to give voice to these contemporary dilemmas about interracial sexual and cultural mixing Rosenthal argues that many literary representations of intimacy or sex took on political dimensions whether advocating assimilation or miscegenation or defending the status quo She also examines the degree to which novelists reacted to beliefs about skin differences blood taboos incest desire or inheritance laws Rosenthal discusses U S authors such as James Fenimore Cooper Catharine Maria Sedgwick Walt Whitman William Dean Howells and Lydia Maria Child as well as contemporary novelists from Cuba Peru and Ecuador such as Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda Clorinda Matto de Turner and Juan Leon Mera With her multinational approach Rosenthal explores the significance of racial hybridity to national and literary identity and participates in the wider scholarly effort to broaden critical discussions about America to include the Americas Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic Alan Rice, 2003-04-30 Broad based survey of trans Atlantic black culture Newest book in the popular Black Atlantic series Radical Narratives of the Black Atlantic is a multi faceted and interdisciplinary take on trans Atlantic black culture Alan Rice engages

fully with Paul Gilroy's paradigm of the Black Atlantic through examination of a broad array of cultural genres including music dance folklore and oral literature fine art material culture film and literature The aspects of black culture under discussion range from black British gravesites to sea shanties from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of the Zanzibar born black British artist Lubaina Himid and from King Kong to the travels of Frederick Douglass and Paul Robeson The book places such figures as the African American traveller and Barbary slave narrator Robert Adams and the West Indian slave narrator Mary Prince in a Black Atlantic context that explicates them fully A chapter on the Titanic disaster shows how diasporan Africans composed oral poems about the disaster to criticise the discriminatory practices of its owners and racial imperialism Overall the book argues for the crucial importance of Black Atlantic cultures in the formation of our modern world Moreover it argues that looking at Black culture and history through a national lens is distorting and reductive

Gay and Lesbian Historical Fiction N. Jones, 2007-05-28 The first extensive study of gay and lesbian historical fiction this book demonstrates how the highly popular sub genre helps us understand gay and lesbian history It shows not only why the sub genre should be taken more seriously by historians but also how it implicitly works to ameliorate divisions between Christianity and homosexuality

The Imperial World-System and Cultures of Dissent in Thomas Hardy's Fiction Rena Jackson, 2024-10-30 This is the first book length study of imperial crossings in Thomas Hardy's novels and short stories Combining the strengths of world literary and world systems analyses with a cultural materialist approach the study offers unparalleled coverage of global links in Hardy's fiction engaging in addition with a range of dissenting responses at both formal and thematic registers to the British world system's exploitative structures Hardy's prose outputs reveal that the empire contrary to popular critical assumptions in postcolonial studies did not harmonise the classes genders or regions into a shared national imperial identity culture or destiny A major component of the study additionally includes comparative readings of the modern world system and imperial sociality in writings by Joseph Conrad H Rider Haggard Elizabeth Gaskell Rudyard Kipling David Livingstone and in Chartist poetry The book will be an invaluable resource to teachers students and enthusiasts working in the field of world literature and in Victorian postcolonial and settler colonial studies

Fables and Futures George Estreich, 2025-05-27 How new biomedical technologies from prenatal testing to gene editing techniques require us to imagine who counts as human and what it means to belong From next generation prenatal tests to virtual children to the genome editing tool CRISPR Cas9 new biotechnologies grant us unprecedented power to predict and shape future people That power implies a question about belonging which people which variations will we welcome How will we square new biotech advances with the real but fragile gains for people with disabilities especially when their voices are all but absent from the conversation This book explores that conversation the troubled territory where biotechnology and disability meet In it George Estreich an award winning poet and memoirist and the father of a young woman with Down syndrome delves into popular representations of cutting edge biotech websites advertising next generation prenatal tests feature articles on three parent IVF a scientist's memoir of constructing a semisynthetic cell and more As Estreich shows each new application of biotechnology is accompanied by a persuasive story one that minimizes downsides and promises enormous benefits In this story people with disabilities are both invisible and essential a key promise of new technologies is that disability will be repaired or prevented In chapters that blend personal narrative and scholarship Estreich restores disability to our narratives of technology He also considers broader themes the place of people with disabilities in a world built for the able the echoes of eugenic history in the genomic present and the equation of intellect and human value Examining the stories we tell ourselves the fables already creating our futures Estreich argues that given biotech that can select and shape who we are we need to imagine as broadly as possible what it means to belong Mother Jones

Magazine, 1985-06 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues King Solomon's Seal Jascha

Kessler, 2013-07-16 KING SOLOMON'S SEAL consists of 63 pieces some short some long each a story several containing stories within stories There is a short introduction TO THE READER which informs us by whom it originated and is narrated if neither the why nor how There is also an AFTERWORDS which in some ways puts Finis to these tale tellings The time of its narrations is about 1750-1820 the place a small house of study perched on a mountain in the eastern part of the Fatra Range in Carpathia part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire during that century The materials are diverse in nature suggestion and purpose although the reader may and should suppose them meant for us today even if the language by which the tales are told is a pasticcio of assumed translation into English from some other language one that relates perhaps to whatever may have been the Yiddish vernacular of those lost times in that faraway place Some two or three of its fables have appeared in print KING SOLOMON'S SEAL playful and mock serious at once is meant to entertain It is a literary work consisting of pseudo fairy tales pseudo folk materials legends and the like Tears of Rage Shelly Brivic, Sheldon Brivic, 2008-12 In this provocative study Shelly Brivic presents the history of the twentieth century American novel as a continuous narrative dialogue between white and black voices Exploring four of the most renowned and challenging works written between 1930 and 1990 William Faulkner's Absalom Absalom Richard Wright's Native Son Thomas Pynchon's V and Toni Morrison's Beloved Brivic traces how these works progress through the interaction of white and black perspectives toward confronting the calamity of slavery and its reverberating aftermath and continuing legacy Brivic shows how one novel leads ineluctably to the next and how the four works in a sense form one continuous narrative with Faulkner's attack on the racial system in Absalom Absalom in the 1930s a literary space opened for Wright's devastating novel of protest Through the character of Bigger Thomas Wright's Native Son exposes a virtually incurable division in American ideologies which leads to the multiplying perspectives of postmodernism in Pynchon's V Arriving at the crest of the civil rights movement V questions Western systems of control laying a foundation for a world outside the white one and so providing a basis for the African view of reality presented in Morrison's Beloved The emergence of African consciousness in American literature exemplified across these works has had and continues to have Brivic concludes the potential not only to redress ongoing injustices but to bring about a new conception of the American universe and its laws of reality Striking in both the selection of novels and the connections Brivic draws among them Tears of Rage advances understanding of the destructive nature of racism and the possibilities for overcoming its effects through literature

HandiLand Elizabeth A. Wheeler, 2019-08-21 HandiLand looks at young adult novels fantasy series graphic memoirs and picture books of the last 25 years in which characters with disabilities take center stage for the first time These books take what others regard as weaknesses for instance Harry Potter's headaches or Hazel Lancaster's oxygen tank and redefine them as part of the hero's journey HandiLand places this movement from sidekick to hero in the political contexts of disability rights movements in the United States the United Kingdom and Ghana Elizabeth A Wheeler invokes the fantasy of HandiLand an ideal society ready for young people with disabilities before they get there as a yardstick to measure how far we've come and how far we still need to go toward the goal of total inclusion The book moves through the public spaces young people with disabilities have entered including schools nature and online communities As a disabled person and parent of children with disabilities Wheeler offers an inside look into families who collude with their kids in shaping a better world Moving funny and beautifully written HandiLand The Crippest Place on Earth is the definitive study of disability in contemporary literature for young readers

Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris, 2021-12-06 In Depictions of Home in African American Literature Trudier Harris analyzes fictional homespaces in African American literature from those set in the time of slavery to modern urban configurations of the homespace She argues that African American writers often inadvertently create and follow a tradition of portraying dysfunctional and physically or emotionally violent homespaces Harris explores the roles race and religion play in the creation of homespaces and how geography space and character all influence these spaces Although many characters in African American literature crave safe happy homespaces and frequently carry such images with them through their mental or physical migrations few characters experience the formation of healthy homespaces by the end of their journeys Harris studies the historical cultural and literary portrayals of the home in works from well known authors such as Richard Wright James Baldwin Toni Morrison and August Wilson as well as lesser studied authors such as Daniel Black A J Verdelle Margaret Walker and Dorothy West
